OXYGENATED BITTERS.

A young writer, from a well known Architect of Montreal, speaks volumes in favor of the OXYGENATED BITTERS, as a medicine for those whose occupations are of a sedentary nature.

MONTREAL, Nov. 26, 1854.

Gentlemen:—I am happy to be able to send you testimony in favor of the Oxygenated Bitters, intended to have done it before this but been prevented by professional engagements.

I feel great pleasure in recommending it to all suffering from imperfect digestion, sick headache, or any derangement of the stomach, from which I have suffered very severely upwards of [illegible] years. From the recommendation of one of my friends, I was induced to try one bottle, and myself so much benefitted by its use, I do not think it necessary to continue it further.

Any use this Gentleman as you think will permit me to remain,

Yours very truly,

JOHN ATKINSON.

CHARLOTTE HOTEL,

BY

J. H. KERR & SONS,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

THE Proprietor of this Hotel is still at his post ready to fulfil the duties of "mine host" to travelling public and others who may call on him, and he believes himself that as comfortable quarters can be found with him as any where in this vicinity. Being situated nearly in the centre of Charlotte, Business Men will find this Hotel a most convenient and desirable location. He has been engaged in the business of this place nearly eighteen years, and at first time he has made several additions to his house, and it has been greatly enlarged and improved, presenting to front a two story VERANDA 100 feet in length by 12 feet in width, handsomely shaded by trees on the side walk, affording a pleasant promenade at all hours of the day.

The House has been thoroughly furnished throughout, and in every part of it creature comforts are abundant and tangible, especially in its DINING ROOM, where the "inner man" is "nourished" day by day.

Connected with this Hotel are Stables of strong room for 100 horses, abundantly fed, stalls, grass and provender, attended by faithful and obliging hostlers.

The Proprietor feels confident that with his long experience and many new advantages added to the house he is prepared to offer as comfortable and the "best in market," as many travellers and as many good cheer as will be found anywhere, perhaps a little more so.

☞ All who visit the Charlotte Hotel will be well cared for.
