THE SACRED VOLUME.—Some writer gives the following analysis of the book of books the Bible:

It is a book of laws, to show the right and wrong.

It is a book of wisdom, that makes the foolish wise.

It is a book of truth, which detects all human errors.

It is a book of life, that shows how to avoid everlasting death.

It is the most authentic and entertaining history ever published.

It contains the most remote antiquities, the most remarkable events and wonderful occurrences.

It is a complete code of laws.

It is a perfect body of divinity.

It is an unequalled narrative.

It is a book of biography.

It is a book of travels.

It is a book of voyages.

It is the best covenant ever made; the best deed ever written.

It is the best will ever executed; the best testament ever signed.

It is the young man's best companion.

It is the school boy's best instructor.

It is the learned men's master-piece.

It is the ignorant mens dictionary, and every man's dictionary.

It promises an eternal reward to the faithful and believing.

But that which crowns all is the author. He is without hypocrisy. "With whom there is no variableness, neither shadow of turning."

MEN OF AMERICA—MEN OF THE AGE.—The greatest man, "take him all in all," of the last hundred years, was George Washington—an American.

The greatest Doctor of Divinity was Jonathan Edwards—an American.

The greatest living Historian is Wm. H. Prescott—an American.

The greatest ornithologist was J. J. Audubon—an American.

The greatest Medical Chemist of modern times, Dr. J. C. Ayer—inventor of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and Cathartic Pill, is an American.

The greatest Lexicographer since the time of Johnson, was Noah Webster—an American.

The greatest inventors of modern times, were Fulton, Fitch Whitney and Morse—all Americans.

THE STORY ABOUT SENATOR DOUGLAS' SLAVES.—"Just previous to the recent election in Illinois," says the New Orleans Picayune, "the Chicago Press, a Republican paper, published a statement, charging that the slaves of Senator Douglas, held in Louisiana, are over worked, ill fed, badly clothed, and otherwise neglectfully treated, and gave Mr. Slidell, of this State, as authority for the statement."

The whole story was an election manard. Mr. Slidell made no such statement. On that we are fully advised, and the facts stated as apocryphal as the authority.—The slaves in which Mr. Douglas is interested are in charge of Jas. A McHatton, one of the most enterprising citizens of the State, a popular and humane gentleman and planter.

GEN. STEPTON, UNITED STATES ARMY.—This accomplished officer is among the number who departed for the East, in the steamer this morning. His first laurels were won while he was a young Lieutenant of Artillery in the war with the Florida Indians. During the Mexican war, he commanded one of the field batteries which rendered such signal service in the desperate conflicts through which General Scott's gallant little company marched into the Mexican capital. Since that time, he has been engaged in active and trying service in Utah, Washington and Oregon Territories. His long residence on the Pacific coast has made him many warm friends to wish his success in whatever field his valor and skill may be required in his country's service.—San Francisco National, 5th inst.

☞ Dr. Hostetter's Bitters have received the without exception from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation, or general nervous activity, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of the great efficacy are discovered throughout our principle journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the Bitters experience when using the celebrated specific. It acts free, decisive and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and by strengthening the entire human body, should not it be all sufficient of our community.—All one will be necessary to convince the sceptical of its healthy effects, is to purchase a bottle, this is convinced.

Sold by Druggists everywhere, and by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Sole Proprietors, 58 Water cor. 7th Street, Pittsburgh, and by Hutchison & Jordan, Charlotte, N. C.
