HEAVIEST SPORTING WAGER ON RECORD.—Mr. Ten Broeck appears to be putting matters through with a rush just now in England. London papers bring intelligence that he has made a bet of $100,000, $50,000 a side, with Sir Joseph Hawley, that his horse Umpire defeats Lutterer for the Derby of 1860. Mr. Ten Broeck purchased Lutterer when a yearling for $2500, and afterwards sold him for $7500, having won $5000 with him in a match in the meantime. He is half brother to the celebrated Saunterer, but beyond his undeniable high breeding and promising appearance, there is nothing in him to justify the high opinion entertained of his merits by his owner. Umpire has proved himself a first class horse. Sir Joseph Hawley is the most experienced as well as the most successful turfite in England. Last year he carried off the Derby with Beadsman, and this year with Musjid. In fact, the "cherry jacket" is oftener seen in front in the more important races than any other; and if Mr. Ten Broeck outgenerals the lucky baronet, he will have accomplished a feat which no other sportsman in England has ever been able to accomplish. The enormous extent of the wager, together with the character of the horses engaged, will render the race the most interesting that has taken place on the English turf since Fallgeer had to succumb to the Dutchman, and the result will be looked for with equal anxiety on both sides of the Atlantic.

APPROPRIATE, VERY.—We have a barber here who answers most politely to the valuable name of "Professor." He is not a white man, but his satire and wit is always good, and when indulged passes off with such grace as even to prevent those at whom it is aimed from being offended. Yesterday a young fop called at his shop, and hastily demanded to be shaved. The young heartless swaggerer was very insisting; he took a seat prepared for him and the barber went through the usual form of shaving—The boy jumped up exclaiming, "Well, my fine fellow, you shave admirably; what do I owe you?" "Nothing at all," said the Professor. "How's that?" said the fop. "I am always glad when I can get a soft calf-skin to sharpen my razor on!" replied our barber.—Petersburg Intelligencer

SORGHUM MOLASSES.—This article, made from the Chinese sugar cane, has evidently become one of the fixed institutions of this country. From what we can learn, a large quantity will be made. The demand for empty whisky, molasses and vinegar barrels is so great that the price has advanced from 50 cents to $1,25 and enough to supply the demand.—Kosciusko (Va.) Republican.

$150 REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, about the 25th of January last, my negro boy RUPH better known as Ruph Adams, very likely, about 22 years old, about 5 feet 11 inches high, brown complexion, a very slight impediment in his speech, a good sized foot and a little inclined to be round shouldered. Lowe and the Wool Factory, where he was passing himself off as a free boy. I will give $100 for his apprehension and delivery to me, or so secure him in Dallas jail that I can get him, any time before this and the 1st of March, 1860. SUBPENAS for sale at this Office

Special Notices.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"

Of medicine known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

Whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection and incipient Consumption is investimable.

HOME TESTIMONY.

BOSTON, April 18, 1852. No. 48, Union St.

MR. SETH W. FOWLE—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden Cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent Pains in the Side and Chest; I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and I informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years. Respectfully, MARY FOWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Fowe having been an inmate of our family. WM. DENNETT, MARTHA DENNETT.

None genuine unless signed I. BUTTS, on the wrapper.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, and for sale by E. Nye, Hutchison & Co., Charlotte, N. C. 135

Physicians are generally loth to speak a word in praise of what are called "patent medicines." Indeed, it is an article in the code of medical ethics, that a physician who sanctions the use of such remedies cannot be considered a member of the National Association. But there are exceptions to the most stringent rules, and many of the disciples of Esculapius have actually been compelled, by the force of facts, to recommend the use of DR. J. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS for those diseases which are particularly prevalent during the summer and fall. They have ascertained that there are no remedies in the pharmacopia which compare with this wonderful compound for derangement of the system. Thousands of families residing along the low grounds of the Western and Southern rivers, are now continued that they have found a medicine peculiarly adapted for their ailments, while in other portions of the country, during the summer months, the demand for the article is equally large.

RELIEF IN TEN MINUTE.

BRYAN'S

PULMONIC WAFERS.

The most certain and speedy remedy ever discovered for all Diseases of the Chest and Lungs, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, Sore Throat, &c., &c.

HESE WAFERS give the most instantaneous and perfect relief, and when persevered with according to directions, never fail to effect a rapid and lasting cure. Thousands have been restored to perfect health who have tried other means in vain. To all classes and all constitutions they are equally a blessing and a cure—none need despair, no matter how long the disease may have existed, or however severe it may be, provided the organic structure of the vital organs is not hopelessly decayed. Every one afflicted should give them an impartial trial.

To VOCALISTS and PUBLIC SPEAKERS, these Wafers are peculiarly valuable; they will in one day remove the most severe occasional hoarseness; and their regular use for a few days will, at all times, increase the power and flexibility of the voice, greatly improving its tone, compass and clearness, for which purpose they are regularly used by many professional vocalists.
