From the Philadelphia Monitor.

THE CHANCES.

The combination of the Union Douglas men with the Union party, will probably carry the following States:

		Bell.	Douglas.
Massachusetts,	13	6	7
Rhode Island,	4	2	2
Connecticut,	6	3	3
New York,	35	10	25
New Jersey,	7	3	4
Pennsylvania,	27	10	17
Iowa,	3	1	2
Wisconsin,	5	1	4
Illinois,	11	3	8
Indiana,	13	4	9
Ohio,	25	4	20
California and Oregon	7	3	4
		50	104
Southern States,		113
		163	104

We believe Bell will be elected by the people, and that the result will not vary much from the above.

But failing in this, let us look at the chances in the House and in the Senate.

In 1856, New York gave Buchanan and Fillmore, 320,482
Fremont, 174,505

Popular majority over Fremont, 45,777

This year the defection of the Seward men will more than counterbalance the defection of the Administration men, and the Union Ticket will be sure to win by 50,000 majority. This result defeats Lincoln, even if he should carry every other free State in the Union.

Pennsylvania, in 1860, gave
Buchanan and Fillmore, 312,332
Fremont, 147,350

Majority against Fremont, 164,982
We will suppose Lincoln gains 14,082 and the Buchanan men will throw away 5,000 votes 69,983

85,000

Bell and Douglas are sure to carry the State by 85,000 majority, and Lincoln cannot possibly be elected without getting, every other free State in the Union. If he got every other, he would just have a majority of four votes. But Jersey alone will defeat him. Jersey is where she was in 1856.—How was it then?

Buchanan and Fillmore got, 71,058
Fremont, 28,351

Majority against Fremont, 42,707

If the Buchanan men should all go for Lincoln, the Union ticket will carry the State by not less than 20,000 majority—and Lincoln is defeated.

And how is it with Illinois and Indiana?

In 1856 in Illinois Buchanan and Fillmore had, 141,730
Fremont 96,280

Majority against Fremont 45,540

The Buchanan men in 1856 cast only 5000 votes in favor of Lincoln and can do no more in 1860; and the combined Union ticket will have 40,000 majority.

In 1856 Indiana gave Buchanan and Fillmore, 142,058
Fremont 94,816

Majority against Fremont, 47,242

There being not more than 2000 Buchanan men now in this State, the Union ticket will carry it by 45,000 majority!

Electoral vote of Illinois,		11
" "	Indiania,	13
" "	New Jersy	7
" "	California, which in 1856 gave a majority of 54,056 against Fremont,	4 35
The South		120
		155

And Lincoln is defeated, even if he were to carry New York and Pennsylvania.

The Union men and the Douglas men are not beating the air. They are fighting for something, and they mean to get it.

We have calculated the "chances" of the Presidential contests, and have never yet made a material error; and we confidently predict that if the President is elected by the people, John Bell will be that man. If it goes into the House, Bell and Everett will be the first on the list. If it goes into the Senate, Edward Everett will be the next President of the United States.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

That the Yancey-Breckinridge Secessionists are inconsistent and hypocritical in their professions of friendship for Congressional protection to slave property in the Territories! Here is conclusive proof of the charge. While Mr. Davis' resolutions were under discussion in the United States Senate, Mr. Clingman, of North Carolina, offered the following amendment:

Resolved, That the existing condition of the Territories of the United States does not require the intervention of Congress for the protection of property in slaves.

Gov. Brown, of Mississippi, moved to strike out the word not, and the question being taken on the motion to strike out, but five members voted in favor of striking out—Messrs. Brown, Clay, Iverson, Johnson, of Arkansas, and Yulee—all the rest, including all the Southern Democratic Senators, voting against it; thus declaring that slavery does not require protection in the Territories!!

This vote is significant; for if slavery does not require Congressional protection in the Territories now, when the Legislature of Kansas has actually passed a law abolishing slavery, when is it ever likely to require such protection?—Richmond Whig.

WESTERN N. C. RAILROAD.—The annual meeting of the Western N. C. Rail Road Company was held at Statesville on the 20th ultimo. The attendance seems to have been pretty good. There was very little business to do, and the meeting opened and closed in one day. The Reports of the President, Secretary and Treasurer, and Chief Engineer, were severally read and adopted. These show a favorable condition of the affairs of the Company.

Anderson Ellis, of Davidson; R. A. Caldwell, of Rowan; Otho Gillespie, of Iredell, and Jonas Cline, of Catawba, were elected Directors.

At a subsequent meeting of the Board of Directors, Dr. A. M. Powell, of Catawba, was elected President of the Company, over R. C. Pearson, the former incumbent.—Salisbury Watchman.

EDITORIAL ACCESSION.—Our respected contemporary, the National Intelligencer, announces through the surviving editor, Mr. Wm. W. Seaton, that Mr. James C. Welling will hereafter be associated with Mr. Seaton, in the editorial conduct of the journal. Mr. Seaton says:—

In making this announcement it is proper to state that Mr. Welling is no stranger in the columns of the Intelligencer, having been, in different capacities, connected with it for the last ten years, during the first five of which, after the retirement of the accomplished Edward William Johnston from the literary department of the paper, Mr. Welling had charge of it, and was the author of those "Notes on New Books" which by the scholarship and ability evinced in their composition, would, of themselves, be a sufficient evidence of the qualifications he brings to the tasks of journalism. But it is just to add that during the last five years he has participated in all the duties incident to the editorship of this Journal, and had thus served a noviciate quite long enough to give full proof of his vocation to the exacting career upon which he has entered. Enjoying during this period, in the fullest degree, the confidence of my late lamented colleague, Mr. Gales, he has equally, by his high moral and conscientious character, no less than by his rare attainments, merited my own; and I avail myself of his temporary absence from Washington to make this announcement to the patrons whom it is the honor of the Intelligencer to address.

☞The political excitement has risen so high in the town of Selma, Alabama, that some of the politicians, unwilling to await the result of the election in October next, have canvassed the voters of that place order to ascertain their preferences among the three tickets competing for popular support. The result was as follows: Bell 228, Douglas 148, Breckinridge 77.

IOWA POLITICS.—The friends of Bell and Everett held a State Convention at Iowa City a few days ago. A full electoral ticket was nominated.

Bell & Everett Union Meeting.

THE friends of the Union, the Constitution and the Enforcement of the Laws, are requested to meet at the Court-House, on Wednesday evening next, for the purpose of forming a Bell and Everett Club. Friends of the Union! Rally to your standard boldly and let there be a full meeting on the occasion.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Quinsy, and the numerous as well as dangerous diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, prevail, in our changeable climate, at all seasons of the year; few are fortunate enough to escape their baneful influence. How important then to have at hand a certain antidote to all these complaints. Experience proves that this exists in Wistar's Balsam to an extent not found in any other remedy; however severe the suffering, the application of this soothing, healing and wonderful Balsam at once vanquishes the disease and restores the sufferer to perfect health.

Letter from A. M. Gorman, Esq., Editor of the Spirit of the age.

Respectfully, J. H. HENRY.

THE BUILDINGS

are new and spacious—

THE PLEASURE GROUNDS

extensive; and in fine, everything wished for at the best watering places, will be found here to refresh the inner man and to cheer the spirits.

The Extended Reputation and the MEDICINAL properties of the waters (almost inexhaustible before the completion of the Western N. C. Railroad) now call the sick and afflicted with a cordial welcome. The experience of the Proprietor justifies the seeker of health or pleasure in anticipating a "good time coming."

The Proprietor has been at very great expense in fitting up a Watering Place commensurate with the wants of the CAROLINAS and confidently relies on their generosity for encouragement.
