The Chatham Record

THURSDAY, — Dec. 6, 1900

M. . LONDON, Editor.

THE State Legislature will be asked to do two things, which should meet with general approval. One is to make good the promise made in the platform adopted by the last Democratic State convention to have a four months school in every school district in the State. And the other is to enact a local option law that is perfectly fair and impartial.

The establishment of a four months school is not only advocated by the Democratic platform, but is required by the State Constitution. Because no county has ever carried into effect this requirement of the constitution the Legislature now thinks it can let the matter go by default. Why should not the Legislature now do its duty? There is now an public fund for the purpose, and there is no excuse for not carrying into effect the constitutional requirement. The Legislature can do no less than to provide for the carrying into effect of the constitutional requirement. The people want the four months school and they want it now. The Legislature can do no less than to provide for the carrying into effect of the constitutional requirement. The people want the four months school and they want it now.

The Legislature will be asked to do something for the relief of the farmers. The farmers are the producers of the country. They have been the victims of legislation long enough. The Legislature can do no less than to provide
