A BASKET OF CHIPS

—General Jones is a gentleman of wit. The other day he was showing some ladies the Court House. One of them asked why the lightning rod, where it was attached to the building for support, was encased in a piece of horn, the Colonel replied that horn was a non-condutor.

"Oh, indeed!" says the lady "I never knew that before."

"To be sure," says the Colonel. "Have you never observed that when boys have had a horn or two they cannot' conduct themselves properly!"

—Among some of the Pacific Islanders, the word for hope is beautifully expressive; it is manaolana, or the swimming thought—faith floating and keeping its head aloft above water, when all the waves and billows are going over one—a strikingly beautiful definition of hope, worthy to be set down with the answer which a deaf and dumb person wrote with his pencil, in reply to the question "What was his idea of forgiveness?" "It is the odor which flowers yield when trampled on."

—An Ancient Jewish Legend says:

There was a city in which the air was so healthy, and so full of the vigor of life, that they who dwelt there never died. This was soon known, both far and wide, and people of birth and fortune hastened thither, and they lived there a long time. In a while, however, people saw them, one after another, stealing away silently, that they might be able to die.

—Mr. Snowball, I want to ask you one question dis evening"

"Well, succeed, den."

"S'pose you go to de tabern to get dinner, and don't hab noffin on de table but a big beet, what should you say?"

"I gib dat up, afore you ax it. What should you say?"

"Why, under de circumstances ob de case, I should say, dat beat's all!"

—An alderman was heard the other day getting off the following specimen of what may be called "corporation" logic—"All human things are hollow; I'm a human thing, therefore I'm hollow. It is contemptible to be hollow, therefore I'll stuff myself as full as I'm able."

—A man, speaking of a place out West, in a letter which he writes home, says that it is a perfect Paradise, and that though most all the folks have the fever-'n-ager, yet it's a great blessing, for its the only exercise they take.

—If some men's bodies were not straighter than their minds, they would be crooked enough to ride upon their own backs.

—At what period of life does a young lady devote herself to arithmetic? When she begins to sigh for (cipher) a lover.

—Johnson says the greatest magicians of the age, are the paper makers. They transform beggar's rags into sheets for editors to lie on.

END OF JUSTICE.—A lawyer by the name of End, received the appointment of Justice of Peace, and soon after, a wit wrote on the door of his office, "Here justice comes to an End."

—Among the curiosities discovered by the census takers is a pretty little girl of fifteen, in the Southern part of Monson, N. York, who has a husband one hundred and seven years of age.

—A thief who broke out of jail in Ohio, the other day, being captured, told the sheriff that he might have escaped, but he had conscientious scruples about traveling on Sunday.

—Dean Swift proposed to tax female beauty and to leave every lady to rate her own charms. He said the tax would be cheerfully paid, and very productive.

—Auctioneers are wonderful strong men, as they will sometimes knock down the largest brick or stone building with a single blow of the hammer.

—A man who kept a tippling house, asked his neighbor what he should put upon his sign? "Write," said his neighbor, "Beggars made here!"

—The old joke is not a bad one about the corporal's wife, who said to the general's lady.—"We officers' wives ought to dine by ourselves."

—A down east editor says there is a girl in his section with a breath so sweet that they talk of boiling it down for molasses."

—Why is a man with his eyes shut like an ignorant schoolmaster? Because he keeps his pupils in the dark.

—"Where there's a will, there's a way," as the woman said when she wiped the dishes with the door mat.

HOPE.—A sentiment expressed in the wag of a dog's tail, when he is waiting for a bone.

—"That's into him," as the oyster said when he was swallowed.

CHARLOTTE HOTEL,

BY

J. B. KERR,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

THE Proprietor of this Hotel is still at his post ready to fulfil the duties of "mine host" to the travelling public and others who may call on him, and he flatters himself that as comfortable quarters can be found with him as any where in this vicinity. Being situated nearly in the centre of Charlotte, Business Men will find this Hotel a most convenient and desirable location. He has been engaged in the business at this stand nearly eighteen years, and in that time he has made several additions to his former house, and it has been greatly enlarged and improved, presenting in front a two story VERANDA 100 feet in length by 12 feet in width, handsomely shaded by trees on the side-walk, affording a pleasant promenade at all hours of the day.

The House has been thoroughly furnished throughout, and in every part of it creature comforts are abundant and tangible, especially in the DINING ROOM, where the "inner man" is "renewed" day by day.

Connected with this Hotel are Stables affording room for 100 horses, abundantly furnished with grain and provender, attended by faithful and obliging hostlers.

The Proprietor feels confident that with his long experience and many new advantages added to his desire to please, he is prepared to offer his friends and the "rest of mankind," as many comforts and as much good cheer as will be found anywhere, perhaps a little more so.

At any rate try the Charlotte Hotel.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Pars Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed this such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this stimulus of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of those have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.
