FELLOW CITIZENS:

Treasure up the information I design imparting to you, as it may prove more precious than silver and gold.

FELLOW CITIZENS! I am earnestly and strongly impelled to doing just as the important subject which claims our attention—a thing strangely out of every thing else.

Acknowledged Truth

that every house must stand or fall by its own merit, or be forgotten, I would instantly pack down and employ some distinguished stump orator to come out to the public mills and at the cross-roads, and make known the facts

That

Horton's carefully selected stock of Fall and Winter Ready-Made Clothing, comprising every shade and grade of every varied style of dress, has arrived; and that he, can exhibit the substance and oracle of Fashionable adornments to be met with in the States—cloth and pelts!—enough to make a thousand handsome forms in habiliments at once neat, rich, strong, beautiful and cheap. He should also make known that Horton's Store is on the corner,

MARCUS HOFFLIN,

at the Mansion Hotel, abundantly convenient to every visitor of Salisbury who designs visiting the most popular place of town—well supplied with light and comfort, where he

than any other Dealer in North Carolina

Curiosity quickens the powers of human nature, and I ask judicious people to the discovery of many profitable facts that might otherwise remain buried forever. Now just look up to Horton's Store to see his new Stock, and to hear his prices. You are obliged to have Clothing—the law compels—but you need not be obliged to buy from Hofflin. ☞ But suppose he should offer you the best bargain, that's what—that's the question. He knows what he can do, and intends to do what he can to accommodate every one, high and low, rich and poor. Who may first him with a call. ☞ Call, and try on.

FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE

IT IS NOT TOO MUCH TO SAY
SINCE ALL,
OLD AND YOUNG,
Affirm its Truth,
Viz: That Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative

Will preserve infallibly the growth and color of the hair, if used two or three times a week, to any imaginable age. Perfectly restore the gray, cover the bald with nature's own ornament, the hair; make it more soft and beautiful than any oil, and preserve the scalp free from all disease to the greatest age. Statesmen, Judges, Attorneys, Doctors, Clergymen, Professional men and Gentlemen and Ladies of all classes, all over the world, bear testimony that we do not say too much in its favor. Read the following, and judge:

HUMBOLDT GROVE, St. Charles Co., Mo., Nov. 19, '57.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to just and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his sufferings, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success, but to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can, therefore, and do hereby, recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are yours respectfully,

GEO. W. HIGGINBOTHAM,
SARAH A. HIGGINBOTHAM.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: My hair had, for several years, been becoming prematurely gray, accompanied by a harshness which rendered the constant application of oil necessary in dressing it. When I commenced using your Hair Restorative about two months ago it was in that condition; and having continued its use till within the last three weeks, it has turned to its natural color, and assumed a softness and lustre greatly to be preferred to those produced by the application of oils or any other preparation I have ever used. I regard it as an incomparable article for every lady's toilet, whether to be used as a Hair Restorative or for the simple purpose of dressing or beautifying the hair. You have permission to refer to me all who entertain any doubt of its performing all that is claimed for it. MRS. C. SYMONDS,

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 19, 1857. 114 third st.

WELLSTON, Mo., Dec. 5, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: By the advice of a friend of mine, who had been using your Hair Restorative, I was induced to try it. I had the fever, some time last May, and nearly every hair in my head came out. Now my hair has come to a great deal thicker than ever it was. Nothing but a duty and sympathy that I feel to communicate to others who are afflicted as I have been, would induce me to give this public acknowledgement of the benefit I have received from Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative.

Yours respectfully, A. R. JACOBS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz.: large, medium, and smaller; the smallest holds a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least a pint, twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion and retails for $3.
