Little Mary.

From the group of little faces
One is gone—
In the old, familiar places
Sad and lone,
Father, mother, black-eyed brother,
Sit and mean.

Sit and mean for one departed,
Pure and mild,
Little Mary, gentle hearted,
Darling child,
And as nestling memories thicken,
Grief's grow wild.

Home once bright, how cold and dreary!
Shadows deep
Fall on forms and hearts aweary,
Eyes that weep;—
Thought is in the church yard seeking
One asleep

Still the merry laugh, deceiving
Fills the ear;
Tiny arms yet toil, cleaving
Dry the tear;
Footfalls, silvery footfalls, patter
Far and near;

Ears instinctive pause to hearken,
All in vain;
Days drag on, and skies shall darken
O'er with pain,
But the heart will find its lost one
Ne'er again!

From the treasured fireside faces
Here to-day,
From the tender, warm embraces,
Dropp'd away,
Sleeps she 'mid forgotten sleepers
In the clay.

Ah! what weary numbers sighing
To be free,
Little Mary, would be lying
Low with thee!
Where no care nor eating sorrow
E'er shall be.

Weep not when ye tell the story
Of the dead—
'Tis a sunbeam joined the Glory
Overhead!
"For of such sweet babes is heaven,"
Jesus said.

Indian Names.

Ye say—they all have passed away,
That noble race and brave;
That their light canoes have vanished
From off the crested wave;
That 'mid the forests where they roamed.
There rings no hunter's shout;
But their name is on your waters,
Ye may not wash it out.

'Tis where Ontario's billow,
Like Ocean's surge is curled;
Where strong Niagra's thunders wake
The echo of the world;
Where red Missouri bringeth
Rich tribute from the west;
And Rappahannock sweetly sleeps
On green Virginia's breast.

That clustered o'er the vale,
Have disappeared as withered leaves
Before the autumn's gale;
But their memory liveth on your hills,
Their baptism on your shore;
Your everlasting rivers speak
Their dialect of yore.

Old Massachusetts wears it
Within her lordly crown:
And broad Ohio bears it,
Amid her young renown;
Connecticut hath wreathed it,
Where her quiet foliage waves,
And bold Kentucky breathes it hoarse
Through all her ancient caves.

Epigram.

As my wife and I, at the window one day,
Stood watching a man with a monkey,
A cart came by, with a "broth of a boy,"
Who was driving a stout little donkey.
To my wife I then spoke, by way of a joke,
"There's a relation of yours in that carriage,"
To which she replied, as the donkey she spied,
"Ah, yes, a relation—by marriage!"

A Time for all Things.—"Mrs. Briggs," said a neighbor, who stepped into the house of the former, just as she was in the act of sitting herself at the dinner table, "have you heard of the dreadful accident?"

"Why, no—what is it?"

"Mr. Briggs has fallen from his wagon and is killed."

"Is it possible! Well, just wait until I finish my dinner, and then you'll hear crying."

Swallowing Needles.—Dr. Fearing of Nantucket, Massachusetts, has taken from the stomach, abdomen, and left side of a patient, named Jane James, sixty two needles, and more remain. The patient, some years ago, was deranged in mind, and fancied herself a pincushion, swallowing all the needles and pins she could lay hands on.

A very desirable Farm for Sale, with a Dwelling House on it, lying on the North Carolina Rail Road, and within ¼ of a mile of High Point Depot, in Guilford county, containing near 100 acres. For further particulars apply to William P. Mendenhall, Greensboro, N. C. 847:1y

NORMAL COLLEGE.—Randolph County, N. C. This Institution is situated four miles from "High Point," on the North Carolina Rail Road, about one mile from the Western Plank Road, and eighteen from Greensboro.' The buildings which are now finished consist of an elegant brick edifice, three stories high, and of ample dimensions, well finished and furnished, together with extensive boarding arrangements both public and private. The Apparatus, made by Chamberlain and Ritchie, of Boston, is of the very best character; the Museum and all other appliances properly belonging to a College, are such as the spirit of the age demands. The extent, thoroughness and finish of Instruction are suited to the dignity of an enterprising State, and have been matured by the wisdom of a large board of Trustees, headed by His Excellency the Governor, John A. Gilmer. Hon. J. C. Dobbin, &c. The Collegiate year is divided into three Terms of fourteen weeks each; a holyday of two weeks is given at Christmas, and one week about the fifth of April, but students from a distance are not expected to return home till the Summer vacation. The location is of easy access by rail and plank roads, within two days drive of the finest mountain scenery in the South, and is itself in a rolling country of first rate water and cheap living. The entire expense varies from about $31 to $40 per term, or from $93 to 120 dollars per annum. All money must be placed in the hands of the President, and if any pocket money is to be allowed, parents should give precise instructions as to the amount. Money sufficient to pay the Janitor's fee ($1 per term) and to purchase books must be deposited in advance, all other expenses are due at the end of the Term and must be promptly settled. Books can be obtained at the College, but clothing should always be furnished from home. All communications should be directed to "Normal College, N. C." Catalogues can be obtained by application to the President. The next Term will begin on the 12th of September.
B. CRAVEN, President.

25 DOLLARS REWARD.—Ranaway from the subscriber on the 17th inst., a negro man Reuben, black, twenty-seven years of age, five feet nine inches in height, weighs one hundred and sixty-five pounds, has, when not embarrassed, a bold, plausible address, a good face, and a receding forehead, between one of his great and next toe a scar, the cut of an axe, which causes the big toe to point across the foot towards the outside. No other notable marks recollected. Reuben was brought up in Robeson County in this State, had a wife there,—owner not known.—was bought when sold from Robeson by Messrs. Leighton & Sherman, of Georgetown, S. C., and by me of Z. B. Oakes, a broker in Charleston, on the 5th day of June last, and brought to this county where he labored and behaved well up to the time of his disappearance. He is well acquainted about Fayetteville, having drove the wagon from Robeson to that place.

I will give the above reward of $25 for his apprehension and confinement in any jail, as soon as I get him, and not grumble.
