Bows, feathers, lowered waistlines were very reminiscent of the past. Ruffles added the touch of femininity that so expresses the trend of today. Glitter, glamour, grace of movement marked "An Affair to Remember."

Israeli Wheelchair Basketball Champs

The World Champion Israeli Wheelchair Basketball Team has completed its good will tour of the U.S., a smashing success thanks largely to the sponsorship of local Jewish Community Centers and the national auspices of JWB.

The players are members of the Ilan Sports Club for the Handicapped, a world pioneer in the wheelchair sports movement and Israel's leading wheelchair sports club. The Ilan team was world champion in the years 1966-1969, 1975 and 1980. It won the World Cup in 1975 and the European championships in 1975, 1977 and 1979. During the 1980 Olympiad in the Netherlands, the Israeli disabled athletes won 13 Gold Medals, 17 Silver Medals and 2 Bronze Medals. The Israeli athletes range in age from 23 to 37. They are students, professionals and businessmen, and many of them are proficient in more than one sport.

Local Women to Visit Danzig

On the night of Dec. 17, 1938, a month after Kristallnacht, in a community-wide meeting, Danzig Jewry decided to liquidate the community and flee. Ten crates of silver, gold, bronze and brass ceremonial objects and textiles arrived in New York with the following stipulation: if, in 15 years, the Danzig community is reborn, the objects are to be returned; if not, they are to remain in America for the education and inspiration of the rest of the world.

THE DANZIG COMMUNITY DID NOT SURVIVE THE NAZIS. Its history is entrusted to each of us. An exhibit of the Danzig artifacts has been mounted and is being shown in selected locations throughout the world. Emory University in Atlanta is housing the exhibit for the Southeast Region of the United States. The Atlanta Jewish Federation has assumed responsibility for tours and education for surrounding communities.

On January 29, Women's Division of the Charlotte Jewish Federation is organizing a one day trip to Atlanta to include a tour and film of the Danzig Exhibit, a meeting with the Israeli

The trip will be open to women making a pledge of $365.00 or more to the 1981 campaign. The trip is being publicized under the slogan "A Dollar a Day for Danzig." Asked to explain the phrase, major gifts chairperson Bobbi Bernstein replied, "They gave their lives and entrusted us with the future of Judaism. The price of survival is steep, but I believe that Charlotte Jewish women can and will find at least a dollar a day to ensure a bright Jewish future for our collective children."
