The Lighter Side Of Life

By

Our Helpmate

An unfortunate occurrance on Friday was the sudden rain which came from the south, running those playing bridge on the big front porch of Mary Fergus' beach cottage into the house . . . Not only that but the tables had to be set up twice there as they had been put up the night before and had to be rescued for the same reason about midnight . . .

* * *

The Young sisters distinguished themselves Friday at the two parties given by this writer and her sister . . . Lucille won high score prize in the afternoon, Evelyn at night, and Hazel won the traveling prize . . . They say they can't figure out why their mother didn't win one too, and make it a grand slam . . .

Crabbing was quite an attraction on Mr. Rob Thompson's dock several days last week . . . Betsy Jane Galloway had her cousin, Boots, visiting her and they spent most all the time the tide was in trying to catch them . . . Little Edwin Veazey squealed with joy when he got one. . .

The sport wasn't confined to the younger generation, however, as we saw Mrs. Rufus Dosher and Miss Genevieve Eakes stay till dark trying their hand at it . . .
