FREDELL on Executors. Being a treatise on the Law of Executors and Administrators in North Carolina, by James Iredell.

The object of this work has been to exhibit the Law as it now stands, in North Carolina, in relation to the matters of which it treats. It embraces therefore, the English doctrines, so far as they are recognized in our State, as well as our acts of Assembly and the decisions of our own Courts, on the subject of wills, Executors and Administrators. It is thought it may prove useful, not only to members of the legal profession, but to others who are so frequently called upon to undertake the indispensable, important and responsible trusts of Executors and Administrators.

A. B. STITH,

AGENT, COMMISSION MERCHANT, AND

DRY GOODS AND GROCERY BROKER,

NO. 89 BROADWAY,

NEW-YORK.

A. B. STITH tenders his services to the Merchants, Planters, and Citizens of North Carolina, and to Southern Merchants generally, as Agent, Commission Merchant, and Dry Goods and Grocery Broker, in the City of New-York, and will attend to any business in his line, either in

The sale of Produce or Merchandise,

OR THE PURCHASE OF

Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Crockery, Shoes, Hats, Furniture, Carriages, Musical and Agricultural Instruments, Bagging, Rope, Drugs, Medicines, &c. &c.

He flatters himself, as a purchaser of Goods for the Southern Trade, his experience—having been engaged for the last sixteen years in the retail trade in the middle and lower part of North Carolina and in the city of Raleigh—will enable him to give entire satisfaction to the Merchants who may entrust to him their orders. Unconnected with any establishment in New-York, and devoting his whole time to acquaint himself with the value of Goods of every description, attending the auction sales, and being present to improve every opportunity to benefit his customers, he can save more than his commissions to the Merchant, and the inconvenience and expense of a trip to New-York.

The fact that Goods are constantly varying in prices and styles, and always decline as the season advances, is known to all in the habit of buying Goods in New-York. A great advantage will therefore be afforded to the Southern Merchants in having a competent agent, whose interest it will be to avail himself of every opportunity for their benefit, and who can, through him, keep up their stocks by getting goods as their business may require, and avoid the necessity of laying in at one time a heavy stock for the season; and the inconvenience of a large amount of bills falling due about the same time. He can also get his goods more frequently, and of later and more desirable styles, and at lower rates, and thereby keep up a constant excitement and attraction.

Merchants, and other persons disposed to employ him, will please forward with their orders their references, or the names of firms with whom they usually deal in New-York, and in all instances he will give them the preference, unless he can fill their orders on better terms elsewhere. He asks but one trial of his taste and judgment to insure future orders. His commissions will be two and a half per cent. Address A. B. Stith, New-York.

Spring Trade.

I take this method of returning my sincere and unfeigned thanks to my friends and the public generally, for the liberal patronage which they have bestowed upon me for the last five years, and I hope that by a strict attention to business, to merit a continuance thereof. I have on hand, at my Manufactory on Bank street, a good supply of Carriages of my own manufacture, which I will sell on as accommodating terms as the same work can be procured in the State. And I would also state, for the information of those who are in the habit of patronising Northern Manufactories that having in my employ the best workmen to be found in the City, using none but the best material, and being myself a practical Coach Maker, I am prepared to make to order anything in my line, from a one horse Selkey to the finest Coach that runs our streets, which I will warrant to render as much service to the purchaser as any to be found either North or South.

I am also prepared to do repairing at the shortest notice and in a superior manner, and on the most reasonable terms.

Successor to the firm of Oliver & Proctor,

Sign of the R. R. R. R.

Doors open from 6 o'clock, A. M., to 8 P. M.

ADMISSION FREE.

HAVING purchased out the entire interest of Thos. M. Oliver, in the late firm of Oliver & Proctor, I avail myself of the very first opportunity to inform the patrons of the said firm of the fact and to solicit from them a continuance of their support. I have just received a beautiful supply of goods, selected by Mr. Oliver, with great care, from the latest importations, embracing Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings of everyone, loud and grade. Dress-Shirts, Under-shirts, Drawers, Cravats, Handkerchiefs, &c. &c.

In fact everything usually kept by Merchant Tailors or Clothiers. I shall be assisted by Mr. Geo. L. Gould, an experienced Coat cutter, (and a pupil of Mr. Oliver's—in fact, having been Oliver & Proctor's coat-cutter for the last fourteen months.) I shall have charge of the pantaloons and vest department myself and I have had exclusive charge of it in the late firm for the last five years.

Every thing will be done that can be done, to give satisfaction and to render the establishment popular with its patrons. Profoundly thankful for the patronage so liberally bestowed upon us as a firm, I shall endeavor, by assiduous attention to business and a desire to please, to merit a continuance.

ISAAC PROCTER.
