POETRY.

REFLECTIONS,

UPON RECEIVING A COPY OF MY FIRST POEM PUBLISHED IN THE VILLAGE NEWSPAPER.

Ah! here it is! I'm famous now,—
An author and a poet!
It really is in print! Ye Gods!
How proud I'll be to show it!
And gentle Anna! What a thrill
Will animate her breast,
To read these ardent lines and know
To whom they are addressed.

Why bless my soul!—here's something strange,
What can the paper mean,
By talking of the "graceful brooks
That gambler o'er the green."
And here's a t instead of r,
Which makes it "tippling rill;"
"We'll seek the shad" instead of "shade,"
And "hell" instead of "hill."

"They look at"—what! I recollect,
'Twas "aunt," and then 'twas "kind;"
And now to think, the stupid fool
For "blamed!" has printed "blind,"
Was ever such provoking work,—
'Tis curious, by the by,—
How anything is rendered blind
By giving it an eye.

"Hast thou no tears," the t's left out,
"Hast thou no ears," instead;
"I hope that thou art dear," is put
"I hope that thou art dead."
Was ever saw in such a space,
So many blunders crammed!
"Those gentle eyes beliamed," is spelt
"Those gentle eyes bedamned."

"The color of the rose" is "nose,"
"Affection" is "Affections!"
I wonder if the likeness holds,
In fact as well as diction?
"Thou art a friend," the r is gone;—
Who ever would have deemed
That such a trifling thing could change
A "friend" into a "fiend."

"Thou art the sum" is rendered "lame,"
It really is too bad;
And here, because an "i" is out,
My "lovely maid" is "mad;"
Then drove her blind by poking in
An eye—a process new;
And now they've gouged it out again,
And made her crazy, too.

"Where are the waves fled, that thou
Should'st live so long waiting?
Thus read my version—here it is—
"Should-st live so long walking."
"The fate of woman's love is thine,"
An h commences "fate;"
How small a circumstance will turn
A woman's love to hate!

I'll read no more! What shall I do?
I'll never dare to send it;—
The paper's scattered far and wide,
'Tis now too late to mend it.
Oh Fame! thou cheat of human bliss!
Why did I ever write!
I wish my poem had been burnt
Before it saw the light.

Let's stop and recapitulate:—
I've damned her eyes, that's plain—
I've told her she's a lunatic,
And blind, and deaf, and lame.
Was ever such a horrid hash
In poetry or prose?
I've said she was a fiend, and praised
The color of her nose.

I wish I had that editor
Alone a half a minute,
I'd "bang" him to his heart's content,
And with an "h" begin it.
I'd "jam" his body, eyes and bones,
And spell it with a "d."
And send him to that "hill" of his—
He spells it with an "e."

D.

NOW.

The following lines from "Household Words" are full of wholesome advice as well as beautiful imagery. They convey to the youthful dreamer a lesson which it would be well for him to ponder:

Arise! for the day is passing
While you lie dreaming on;
Your brothers are cased in armor,
And forth to the fight are gone;
Your place in the ranks awaits you;
Each man has a part to play;
The part and the future are nothing
In the face of the stern to-day.

Arise from your dreams of the future—
Of gaining a hard-fought field,
Of storming the airy fortress,
Or holding the giant yield;
Your future has deeds of glory,
Of honor, (let great it may!)
But your sun will never be stronger
Or needed as now—to day.

Arise! If the past detain you,
Her sunshine and storms forget!
No chains so unworthy to hold you
As those of a vain regret;
Set or bright, she is listless ever;
Cast her phantom arms away!
Nor look back, save to learn the lesson
Of a nobler strife to-day.

Arise! for the hour is passing;
The sound that you dimly hear,
Is your enemy marching to battle!
Rise! rise! for the foe is near!
Stay not to brighten your weapons,
Or the hour will strike at last,
And from dreams of a coming battle,
You will waken and find it past.

THE TRUE END OF BEING.

"NONE OF US LIVETH TO HIMSELF."

Not to my self I live,—
The whispering sunbeam seems to say,
As from the gladdening fount of day
It swiftly wings its cheerful way;
This is my being's great design—
No selfish wills that light confine,
But on the starry world I shine.

Not to ourselves we live—
The starry hosts in concert sing;
When shadowy eve begins to spring,
To others then we freely bring
The light that we receive.
And blending then the cheerful ray
We cease at silent close of day,
To watch the hours of night away.

Not to ourselves we live—
The blossoming flowers bring sweet reply,
To bless the earth like stars more high,
Than those that cheer the distant sky,
Our life of bloom we give,
To others' eyes, at others' feet,
We breathe to shed our fragrance sweet,
That unloved heaven and earth may meet.

Now a man who would say here to-day, to our faces, that he knew we would not misrepresent him; and then to-morrow, behind our backs 20 miles off, would deliberately inform his hearers that we would misrepresent him, nothing having occurred in the meantime to inform him as to what we intended to say of his speech, is unworthy of the slightest respect or confidence. Such a man is deficient in candor, truth, and honesty.

The Charleston Informer states that Henry Stevens, an intelligent man, of dissipated habits, has been found dead near Milton, and that Lafayette Morgan is charged with the murder.

Sunny Dream.—We learn that Mr. Wm. B. Hare, of this County, died whilst riding in his buggy on Tuesday last. The first that was known of his death was when his horse arrived at the gate with his dead body in the buggy.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

To the Citizens of the United States,—

I most humbly and sincerely thank you for the immense patronage which you have bestowed upon my Pills. I take this opportunity of stating that my Ancestors were all American citizens, and that I entertain for all that concerns America and the Americans, the most lively sympathies, so much so that I originally compounded these Pills expressly to suit your climate, habits, constitutions and manner of living, intending to establish myself among you, which I have now done, by taking premises in New York.

THOMAS HOLLOWAY,
38, Corner of Ann and Nassau Sts., New York.

PURIFICATION OF THE BLOOD AND LIVER AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS.

The citizens of the Union suffer much from disorders of the Liver and Stomach, scarcely any are free from the influence of those destructive maladies, hence life wears fast. The fair sex, perhaps the most handsome in the World, up to a certain period, when, distressing to say, many loose their teeth and good looks, while yet in the heyday of life, such and evils may be effectually remedied by continually keeping the blood pure, and the Liver and Stomach in a healthy action, when life will flow smoothly, and resemble plants in a congenial clime where an eternal spring appears to reign. As it regards the preservation of the human frame, and the duration of life, much may be effected, and I say fearlessly, that health and life can be prolonged for many years beyond their ordinary limits, if Holloway's Pills are taken to purify the blood according to the rules laid down for health contained in the directions which accompany each box.

A CASE OF WEAKNESS AND DEBILITY, OF 10 YEARS STANDING, CURED BY HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

Copy of a Letter from Captain John Johnson, Astor House, New York, dated January 5th, 1854.

To Prof. Holloway, 38, Co'r of Ann and Nas. St., N. Y.

Sir,—It is with the most heartfelt pleasure I have to inform you I have been restored to health and strength by taking your Pills. For the last ten years, I suffered from a derangement of the Liver and Stomach, and was reduced to such an extremity that I gave up my Ship, never expecting to go to Sea any more, as I had tried every Remedy that was recommended to me, but all for no purpose; and had given myself up to despair, when I was at last recommended to take your Pills. After using them for three months, the result is that I am now in better health than I have been for eleven years past, and indeed as well as I ever was in my life. You are quite at liberty to make this known for the benefit of others. I remain, sir, yours respectfully,

(Signed.) JOHN JOHNSON.

These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints:—

IREDELL ON EXECUTORS;

A Treatise on the Law of Executors and Administrators IN NORTH CAROLINA,

By James Iredell.

THE object of this work has been to exhibit the law, as it now stands in North Carolina, in relation to the matters of which it treats. It endeavors, therefore, the English decisions, so far as they are recognized in our own State, as well as in acts of Assembly and the decisions of our own Courts, on the subject of Wills, Executors and Administrators. It is thought it may prove useful, not only to members of the legal profession, but also to others, who are so frequently called upon to undertake the responsible, important and responsible trusts of Executors and Administrators.

SAVE YOUR MONEY!

THE subscriber having located himself in the CITY OF NEW YORK, after twenty-five years experience in almost every department of business in town and country, tenders his services to his friends and the public as a

GENERAL PURCHASING AND FORWARDING AGENT.

The fact of his being located in the Great Metropolis of America and being extensively acquainted and constantly familiar with the general trade of the city, will give him advantages that no one out of it can have. Another advantage that this mode of trade offers to the purchaser is that the Agent will never have any old or unsaleable goods or articles to pack off on his patrons; on the contrary, his constant object and interest will be to select none but the latest styles and best articles.

TO MERCHANTS.

To this large class of intelligent and enterprising tradesmen, who usually purchase to order but once or twice a year, he feels that he can be of great service, having served in the capacity of clerk and Merchant many years of his life, North and South. Instead of buying from one or two merchants in each branch of Trade as is the general custom, he will avail himself of the advantage of dealing DIRECTLY with the IMPORTER the MANUFACTURER and the JOBBER and saving of from 5 to 10 per cent in a general or separate bill, of this he can convince any intelligent merchant at any time.

TO FARMERS.

Having been raised on the Farm and imbibed a taste for agricultural and horticultural pursuits and the growing of stock, improved by many years study, he is prepared to buy and forward every kind of seed, species of implements, and the most approved breeds, of Horses, Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, Fowls, &c., wanted by this class of the world's greatest men, and will give all information required beforehand as to quality, size and price, free of charge.

TO PROFESSIONAL MEN.

The orders of Physicians, Lawyers, Ministers, Editors, Musicians, Teachers, Mechanics and Artists will be attended to with the utmost care and fidelity.

THE ORDERS.

Masons, Sons of Temperance, Odd Fellows, &c., will have their orders filled with care and promptness, being "One of Them" and a whole hand.

TO GENTLEMEN.

Having had seven years experience in the clothing business, (by receiving the measure) he will get up every kind of wearing apparel of the best material and in the best style. He will also purchase Carriages, Buggies, &c., from Newark and other celebrated factories.

TO THE LADIES.

Availing himself of the judgment of his "better half" and the taste of his lady acquaintances he will be able to furnish any article belonging to the wardrobe, parlor, kitchen or garden, to those who may trust the selection to his judgment, which has been often tested and proved.

REQUIREMENTS.

As the object of the Agent is to be where every thing may be secured and the buyer to procure what he wants at the lowest possible rates, a Draft on some Banking or private House, or Current funds will always be required in ADVANCE, being the safer and better mode for all concerned; yet, where persons give satisfactory city references, (or are in good standing without them,) he will make purchases wherever desired or where he can do so to the best possible advantage.

Having once resided in the city seven years, with a continued general acquaintance, he is confident of giving satisfaction to all who may favor him with their orders. The original bills will always be forwarded with the addition of his commissions thereto attached. All his time will be devoted to his business and all information sought in every branch of business will be promptly furnished.

TERMS.

His commissions will vary from two to five per cent for buying and forwarding; the amount being governed entirely by the character and value of the article purchased. He will guarantee that all goods bought by him will be delivered, including his commissions, as low as any merchant procures his—and at a saving to his patrons of from 5 to 50 per cent from the ordinary course of trade.

REFERENCES.

He has the honor of referring to the following among many other gentlemen:

Liquor Sellers Curse It!

THE People of North Carolina are arousing themselves to see the enormous oppression of the Liquor Traffic. Measures are on foot to abolish this most costly of vices. Nothing but legal prohibition of the traffic has ever stayed the course of intemperance. To secure the passage of a proper law, the people must be enlightened. To show the constitutionality, the reasonableness, the propriety, the urgent necessity of legal prohibition, the subscriber is publishing the "Ballot-Box," a monthly periodical the size of ordinary newspapers, well printed on good white paper. It is specially adapted to the peoples of North Carolina. Its facts, arguments, essays, poems, editorials, all look to the destruction of the Rum Traffic. With courtesy, but with fearlessness, the whole subject will be handled in the "Ballot-Box." No newspaper in North Carolina ever secured such a circulation in so short a time. To give it as wide a field of usefulness as possible it is put at the following rates: A single copy, one year, 50 cents: five copies for $2: fifteen copies for $5.

☞ A few columns will be yielded to advertisements, at the following rates: For a square, (one hundred words) $1 for the first insertion and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion. Large advertisements in proportion. Its extensive circulation renders it one of the best advertising mediums in North Carolina. Address (post paid,)

NEW THEMES FOR THE PROTESTANT CLERGY:

Creeds Without Charity, Theology Without Humanity, and Protestantism Without CHRISTIANITY:

With notes by the Editor on the Literature of Charity, Population, Pauperism Political Economy, and Protestantism.

THE great question the Book discusses is, whether the Church of this age is what the primitive Church was, and whether Christians—both pastors and people—are doing their duty.—Our author believes not, and, to our mind, he has made out a strong case. He thinks there is abundant room for reform at the present time, and that it is needed almost as much as in the days of Luther. For sale by

NAG'S HEAD HOTEL, OR OCEAN RETREAT.

THE undersigned takes great pleasure in announcing to his friends and the public generally, that he has purchased the entire establishment known as NAG'S HEAD HOTEL, and intends exerting the utmost of his abilities to give entire satisfaction to all who may favor him with their visits. It gives him much pleasure to be able to state that he has engaged the services of Mrs. Mason—who so long and successfully presided over the internal management of the "Mansion House" as matron of the establishment.

During the past year, great improvements have been made for the comfort and convenience of visiters. The Hotel has undergone thorough repairs and a number of alterations and additions made, which will greatly enhance the attractions of the place and the pleasure of guests. The Dining Room which was entirely too small, has been extended so as to seat six hundred persons at a time, while the Ball Room and Dining Room may be thrown into one, forming a vast and spacious saloon. Eight large dormant windows have been opened on each side of the building, making sixteen large and comfortable rooms, which, being exposed to the delightful sea-breezes, will be found cool and pleasant—commanding also a fine view of the magnificent ocean scenery presented on one side and that of the Albemarle Sound on the other.

A neat Office has been erected, where all business appertaining to the Hotel will be transacted under the management of Mr. Lee, who is a gentleman of pleasing address and courteous and obliging disposition.

The TABLE shall be regularly and abundantly supplied with all the delicacies of the season. Having procured scines of his own, to be hauled daily in both sea and sound under the direction of the Proprietor himself, a bountiful supply of FISH will always be placed upon the table.

A special BAND OF MUSIC has been engaged for the season; and the Railroad to the sea has been repaired and the Car fitted up in neat style—so that visitors desirous of indulging the luxury of the surf bath or of promenade upon the beach, can be speedily and comfortably transported to the shore. He also contemplates the erection of bath houses on the Sound side.

The BAR shall be supplied with the choicest Liquors and Cigars. A large assortment of Confectioneries and Fancy Goods will also be kept constantly on hand.

HORSES and VEHICLES kept for hire, and Horses taken on board.

The season will open the FIRST OF JULY; and from the acknowledged salubrity of the atmosphere, the unsurpassed sea bathing, and the determination of the Proprietor to spare neither pains nor expense in rendering "Nag's Head" a more pleasant and attractive resort than ever before, it is believed that the season will be emphatically a brilliant one, and that general satisfaction will be given.
