Extraordinary Affair.—Under the caption the Railway (N. J.) Advocate gives the particulars of an occurrence which took place at the neighboring village of Woodbridge on Sunday last. We copy the following:

It seems that a young man named Hogan, whose parents are Catholics, and who reside at the Short Hills, had been for some time an attendant at the Methodist Church of Rev. Mr. Graves, at Woodbridge, and on Sunday was to be received into the church. On Saturday a message was received by his parents that if the son did not appear at the Catholic church in Rahway and make recantation, his death would be the consequence. In the course of that night quite a number of Irishmen collected around the house, and the young man fearing some violence, slipped away unperceived, and walked to Woodbridge. He expressed a willingness to leave the place, as he feared he should get his friends into trouble, but he was told the laws would afford ample protection to all.

At the opening of morning service a number of Irishmen collected around the door, and the father of the young man attempted to forcibly prevent his entrance, but the effort was unsuccessful. In the afternoon a still larger crowd assembled, and the father and mother of the young man, backed by their friends, attempted to drag him off by main force. At this juncture a magistrate, Mr. Jackson, interfered and ordered the citizens to effect a release, which was quietly but promptly done.

Threats were made of further violence in the evening, and a request for assistance was sent to Rahway, in order that any rioters making their appearance from here might be identified for arrest. The appearance of a strong force from here, who were understood to be prepared for any emergency, with the arrangements made there by the magistrate, had the desired effect, and no further disturbance occurred.

SAVANNAH.

We clip the following from the Georgian of Thursday:

"We are happy to inform our contemporary of the Courier that Mr. Milton, the senior editor of this paper, convalescent, and it is hoped he will be able to resume his duties in a few days. Dr. J. M. Schley is sojourning at Richmond Hill, near Augusta, and we understand, from reliable authority, that he will undoubtedly soon be able to resume his extensive, and heretofore successful, practice in this city. We have been at some pains to ascertain the facts relative to the health of the medical faculty of the city, and are happy to report that, instead of being sick, Drs. West, Wayne and Arnold are in full practice, nobly battling to stay the ravages of the fell destroyer. Dr. Wells, we regret to announce, is dead. He died at about nine o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. The writer of this paragraph had not the pleasure of his acquaintance, but understand he was a young man of amiable character, and much promise in his profession. He was a son of Dr. Wells, of Columbia, South Carolina. The Dr. Ellis, whose name appears with those already mentioned, was a student of medicine with Dr. Arnold. In this connection we regret to record the death, on Tuesday, of Charles Hartridge, Jr., son of the late Charles Hartridge, Esq., aged 21 years, another medical student of Dr. Arnold. We know of but three of the faculty who are now on the sick list, viz: Drs. Habersham, sr., Harris and Bird, with every reasonable prospect of speedy convalescence.

"In point of business appearance our city does indeed look doleful; it is however a mistake to say that 'all the hotels, * * have been closed.' As for 'Roche's Hotel,' we know of no such establishment in the city. The Pulaski House is the only hotel that has closed its doors. The City Hotel and the Marshall House, though by no means crowded with guests, are doing much in these times of public calamity to mitigate the distress so prolific upon every hand, and others less conspicuous are not idle in the good work.

"The heartfelt and substantial sympathy that is flowing in upon us is doing much to cheer onward those whose health and lives are spared to minister to the sick and dying.

"We trust our cotemporaries of Charleston, as well as other cities, need not be cautioned for the future against receiving mere reports from individuals—possibly frightened from our midst. Their sympathy is fully appreciated, and such means as may be forwarded for benevolent purposes will be well-timed and properly applied."

The Charleston Standard says:

"We learn that it was not Bishop Gartland, of Savannah, but Bishop Barron, formerly stationed in Africa, but who has recently resided in the South, mostly in Florida, who died in the former place. He fell a victim to his arduous exertion in behalf of the sick, and died from excessive fatigue."

Among the dead is Mr. Joshua G. Payne, pastor of the the Wesley Chapel, who died nobly discharging his duty among the sick and dying, though from being unacclimated, urged by his friends to leave Savannah. His answer was that "Savannah was as near to Heaven as any other place." His age was barely 25. The Georgian says of him:

"We refrain from panegyric. His noble conduct in attending upon the poor, the sick, the needy, and the afflicted, everywhere throughout the city, day and night ministering to their souls and bodies, with a self-sacrificing zeal and yet a calm, unobtrusive and humble demeanor, would only be detracted from by any attempt at eulogy."

Daily South Carolinian.

Exports.—Mobile is the third exporting City in the Union. Of cotton alone, their exports last year were $26,000,000. New Orleans is said to be the first and New York the second.

Within a short period, one thousand of the inhabitants of St. John's, New Brunswick, have been cut off by cholera, and seven hundred and fifty orphan children have been left without friends or kindred.

MORE OF IT.

A dispatch from Chicago, dated 12th, says that there was much excitement in that city, in consequence of the attempted arrest of a fugitive slave by three citizens of St. Louis in the street, without the assistance of officers. An immense crowd soon assembled and rescued the fugitive from their possession. The captors instantly attacked the crowd and retook the fugitives, firing pistols and wounding one of the mob. The three were then arrested, and were examined before Justice Peace. An excited crowd at the latest news was gathered.

South Carolinian.

THE FEVER AT SAVANNAH.

A despatch received here yesterdy from a reliable gentlemen at Macon states that the deaths at Savannah on Tuesday were fifty-one, and on Wednesday thirty-five. As the white population is now said to be reduced to about two thousand, the mortality is at the alarming rate of one in fifty per diem. We also learn that orders have been sent from Savannah to Macon for fifty coffins and five hundred pounds of bread daily. To give some idea of the frightful ravages of the pestilence at Savannah, we would state that the same per centage of mortality in New York would carry off ten thousand persons daily.—South Carolinian.

Bloodhounds have been used in England several times lately to aid in the capture of sheep stealers, under the direction of the police. This seems a dangerous and inhuman course, for which the crime committed affords but an inadequate justification. The manner in which the hounds are used may be gathered from the following remarks of the Sussex, England, Express, in noticing a recent capture of sheep stealers by police superintendent Atar:

"This is the second capture this active officer has made within the past three months. A few weeks ago the same parties stole a sheep from Mr. Bettsworth, of the same parish, and Mr. Smith and his bloodhounds were sent for. The latter ran from the spot where the sheep was killed, through the most remote valleys in the neighborhood, a distance of three miles, causing great sensation to the guilty gang. They ultimately arrived at a cottage occupied by a shoemaker, when the gallant huntsman was accosted by the paralysed inmate as to what his business was there. He was informed of the nature of his visit. The bloodhound tried to make an entrance to their prey through the thatch on the roof of the cottage.—The door, however, was opened, a search was made and part of the sheep found in the house. The prisoners were subsequently apprehended and committed for trial."

A Novel Sport.—Mr. Hale, in his letters from Saratoga and New York, says:

In Church at Saratoga yesterday, was a gentleman whose dress attracted universal observation, increased perhaps by a very indifferent and badly delivered sermon. It was very warm, and he wore a greenish-blue velvet coat, fashionably cut, a fiery red double-breasted velvet vest; drab velvet knee breeches, white silk stocking, gloves, a ruffled shirt, and white cravat.

New York, Sept. 4.

To-day, one of the first things I saw in this city was a venerable and most respectable looking old gentleman, dressed in the exact style of costume worn by General Washington when he was married. Flowing wig, powdered, surmounted by a cocked hat, long swallow tailed coat, buff knee-breeches, long vest, coming down over the hips, silk stockings, and shoes. There was an air of respectability about this old gentleman that made him interesting, not ridiculous, as the Saratoga buck was. I know not who he was.

IS IT SO?

And, if so, where is Cuseman? For several days past, the following paragraph has been going the rounds of the papers, uncontradicted; and as it may all be true, we deem it proper that our readers should have the benefit of the information:

"The Hon. J. C. Dobbin, U. S. Secretary of the Navy, having just returned to Washington from a visit to his home, in North Carolina, it is stated that his election to the U. S. Senate has been definitely arranged."

THE STATE FAIR.

Proper steps were taken by the Town Meeting, on Tuesday last, to provide ample entertainment for all who may choose to visit Raleigh at the next State Fair.—None, therefore, need be deterred from coming by apprehensions of difficulty in securing accommodations.

It will be seen by the advertisement of the President of the Raleigh and Gaston Road, in another column, that goods for exhibition at the State Fair, the Fair at Henderson, and the Petersburg Fair, will be carried over the road free of charge, and that visitors to these Fairs will be charged only half price.—Ral. Register.

Marine Disasters.—The Charleston papers received this morning report the loss of the Schr. John P. Brown, Capt. Collet, from Charleston to Philadelphia. The vessel went ashore near Lockwood's Folly, during the late gale, and the Captain, passengers and crew with the exception of the second mate, perished. Vessel and cargo supposed to be a total loss.

The French Schr. Les Amis Reunis from St. Pierre to Wilmington was driven ashore at Lavender Point and went to pieces. The Captain and three men were lost.

Young America.—A Paris correspondent says: "I had last week the pleasure of witnessing, at one of the first private boarding schools in Paris, an exhibition of private theatricals. The Language spoken was French, and the performers were four fifths of them American girls.

The Annual Meeting of the American Board of Commissioners of Foreign Missions commenced on Tuesday at Hartford. The receipts for the year are $310,008 93; expenses, $332,111 92.

A New Dodge.—A New York Sunday paper says: "We heard of a dodge to raise the wind the other day that does credit to the sharpers whose wits got it up. There are three gentlemen engaged in this new enterprise, and we are told that they have collected some thousands of dollars during the past two weeks.—Their plan of operation is: Two of them, dressed as laborers, visit a grocery store, buy a pound of some cheap article, take it off to a corner and weigh it with a standard scales which they carry with them. If it falls short of the full and correct weight, (which it does in nine cases out of ten,) they kick up a grand breeze with the grocer, threaten prosecution, and finally, through the intervention of a gentleman (the other partner) who steps in just at the nick of time, the trouble is compromised by the payment of an X or a V by the grocer to settle the matter. In one instance $30 was paid to hush up one of these cases, the article bought was sugar, and the pound only weighed thirteen ounces.."

A school-boy who did not know what wages were, asked, 'What does your father get on a Saturday night?' 'Drunk was the reply.

VALUABLE PLANTATION

AND

20 LIKELY NEGROES

FOR SALE.

ON Tuesday the 14th day of November next, I will proceed to sell, at public sale, my Plantation lying one mile North of Salisbury, on the main road leading to Mocksville, containing

260 ACRES,

One Hundred of which are cleared and in a good state of cultivation, the balance is very heavily timbered.—The nearness of this place to market—the productiveness of the soil, and the immense amount of timber on it, render it one of the most desirable tracts of land in the vicinity of Salisbury. There is on the place a dwelling and all necessary out houses. Also, a Brick Yard, which might be made very profitable. I will also sell at the same time, consisting of Men, Women and Children. Among these are two cooks and two good nurse servants.

15 OR 20 LIKELY NEGROES,

Also, my Wagon HORSES and MULES—Farming Utensils of every description.

Terms made known on the day of sale.

Sale to commence at 10 o'clock.

NORTH CAROLINA.

THE undersigned are preparing and will publish as soon as the necessary surveys, &c., can be obtained, a new, large and complete MAP of NORTH CAROLINA, five feet by three, well engraved, and finished in the best style.

It is admitted on all sides, that such a work is a great desideratum in our State, and it is in consequence of the frequent inquiries on this subject that the undersigned have embarked in the enterprise.

The only attempted work of the kind is that of McRae, published in 1833; and since then the Counties, Towns, Roads and Post offices have increased in number, and all our works of Internal Improvements, with small exceptions, been set on foot.

It is intended that the new map, now proposed to be published, shall contain, accurately set down, all the Natural Features of the State—the Inlets, Harbors, Sounds, Lakes, Rivers, Creeks, Mountains, &c. Also, the public improvements and artificial divisions. The Railroads, Plank roads, Counties, County-towns, Post offices, Cities, Villages, Post-roads and Canals, Colleges, Academies, &c., &c.
