kept up by a fund which he left for that purpose. It is open to the public every day except Sundays.

The Fair grounds and race track are open all the time. Sunday is a favorite day for coursing," which I learned by enquiry means running jack-rabbits with grey hounds. The lack of Sunday observance is painful to one who lives where all the people rest one day in seven. The street cars run just the same that day as any, many stores are open, and the theatres are attended by perhaps large crowds than during the week.

The General Conference, which is the legislative body of the M. E. church, South, convened in Centenary church at 9 o'clock a. m., on the 8th. It was called to order by Bishop Keener, who is now the senior Bishop of the church. He presided that day. The Bishops presided one day each in turn according to seniority. Bishop Hendrix is by all odds the best and most expeditions presiding offices among them. Bishops Wilson and Galloway are considered the best preachers among the old Bishops, but now they will share that honor with Bishop Haygood. The Conference was in session three weeks, lacking one day. Much of the time was consumed in needless debate and now concurring in what was proposed in the way of changes to the descriptive.

The chief matters done which mark the progress of the church were the election of two Bishops the election of three Missinary Secretaries instead of one, two Book agents, instead of one, and the establishment of church paper on the Pacific slope. That part of this State lying beyond the Blue Ridge Mountains was transferred from the Holston to the North Carolina Conference, and that part lying between the Roanoke and Chowan rivers from the Virginia to the North Carolina Conference, and the latter was divided into two Conferences to be known as the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Conferences. The line begins at the Va, line between Rockingham and Caswell Counties and runs with the eastern line of the counties of Rockingham, Guilford and Randolph to the southeast corner of Randolph thence the southern line of Randolph and Davidson to the Yadkin river. thence with said river to the South Carolina line.

In the General Conference all the southern States, Mexico, Brazil, China, and Japan were represented. One of the delegates from China was a native who dressed in the costume of his country.

Now, Mr. Editor, if the above compliance with your request to give your readers some account of my trip, shall prove of interest to them I shall feel more that repaid for the trouble.

A GRAND MASONIC MEETING.

One of the most interesting and pleasant Masonic events was that celebrated at Clinton, N. C., on Thursday night with Hiram Lodge No. 98. The occasion was the conferring of the Master's degree upon Mr. W. A. Johnson, that highly esteemed citizen of that place. Worshipful Samuel Northrop, of Wilmington Lodge No. 319, and his officers, did the honors in their usual style before a large assembly, and all were very much gratified at the manner in which the whole programme was carried out. After the conferring of the degree and the exchanging of many social amenieties, the lodge assembled at the refreshment hall where the fair ladies had prepaired a banquet. It is hardly necessary to say that all enjoyed the occasion to the fullest extent.

The Wilmington delegation numbering twenty-five was met by the fair ladies and the committee from the lodge, and was signed to their respective homes. The Clinton people are well known for their generous hospitality and the Wilmington Masons hope an opportunity will present itself when they can reciprocate.

This social events has already brought about some good for Hiram Lodge as several have signified their intentions to become Masons. Hiram Lodge is to be congratulated on having among its members such a man as Mr. W. A. Johnson and we are confident he will make a bright Mason and will be a credit to Masonry.

One of the most enjoyable features of the occasion was the singing by the choir which was complimented by all. After the lodge was closed and the choir had been refreshed the organ was moved to the refreshment hall where music was furnished for the ladies' special benefit. The whole occasion was greatly enjoyed by the Wilmington bretheren, and they will walk forward with pleasure to another visit to that delightful place.—Wilmington Messenger.
