NEWS IN BRIEF.

Postmaster Briggs, of Raleigh, has appointed T. C. Council, of Holly Springs, assistant postmaster at Raleigh to succeed Lester F. Butler, brother of former Senator, Marion Butler.

At a meeting of the Guilford board of education Monday Prof. Thos. R. Foust was re-elected county superintendent of schools.

The report comes from one of the big negro politicians at Raleigh that North Carolina will send a delegation to the next National Republican Convention to demand recognition.

The Central Illinois Internal Revenue district has paid into the U. S. Treasury $35,000 in whiskey fees during the year ending July 1st.

Miss Etta Stockard, daughter of Dr. J. K. Stockard, formerly of Randolph county, who has been teaching in the Greensboro graded schools, has accepted a position as assistant training teacher in the Washington City Normal School Kindergarten Department.

Prayer of Little Girl.

The following appeared in the last issue of the Confederate Veteran:

A Fauquier tot, three years old, was sent soon after the war was over, to visit her aunt in Boston. When she knelt to say her prayers, the night of her arrival, she put into the old, old petition of "Now I lay me down to sleep," the Southern addition of "God bless General Lee and Jeff Davis."

Her aunt mildly interposed with, "Mollie, the war is over now, and we are one people, and you must pray for the Yankees, too."

Once more the little knees were bent; once more the little hands came together; and once more the infant tongue lisped in prayer. This time the unwonted and earnest addition to the old form was:

"Oh, Lord, Bless the damn Yankees, too."

The Burglar Was Married.

"James," cried Mrs. Timmid, sitting up in bed, "there are burglars downstairs."

"Oh, no, there ain't, my dear," replied Mr. Timmid.

"I'm sure there are."

"I'm sure there ain't."

"I tell you there are."

"I tell you there ain't."

"Your husband is right, mum," interposed a low-browed individual, who thrust his head into the room at this juncture. "We're up stairs."

And as he started down the steps he was heard to say to his pal: "I always believe in helping a husband out whenever I kin. I'm a married man myself."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

THE COURIER contest is attracting more attention than anything else; baseball and Fourth of July celebrations do not occupy the attention of the public so much.

She was 81 years old and had lived for many years in this community. She has been afflicted for several years but bore her sufferings with patience and fortitude to the end. She leaves two sons and two daughters to mourn their loss. They have the sympathy of our people.

Miss Lillie Fentriss, of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, will spend the summer in the city with her aunt, Mrs. L. F. Fentriss.

A Sad Death.

On June 27th the Death Angel visited the home of Mr. H. C. Tyson of Carolina and took from the home the devoted wife and mother, Mrs. Catherine McKenzie Tyson, aged 68 years. Mrs. Tyson was only sick about 2 days. She was taken Tuesday evening and died Thursday morning about 7 o'clock. For over 15 years she was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church at Rockingham, and soon after moving to Carolina, about two years ago, she joined the church here and remained a member until God called her to go and live with the angels in heaven, where there is peace and rest for all. It was so sad and heartbreaking to give her up and to sit and watch her breathe her life away, yet it is so sweet to know that she is safe in the arms of Jesus, safe on His gentle breast. Services were held over her remains by her pastor, Rev. G. F. Hicks, attended by so many sorrowing friends. Mrs. Tyson is survived by a husband and six children. The children are Mrs. Louisa Waddell, Mrs. Etta Batten, Miss Jennie Tyson and Mr. Cyrus Tyson of Carolina; Mrs. L. O. Sugg, of Erect; Mr. Ed Tyson, of Asbury and Mr. Archie Tyson, of Texas.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol relieves indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol for dyspepsia does not only relieve indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy helps all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Bell, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says:—"I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."

Kodol Digests What You Eat.

It's Oxford Weather

High time for low-cuts.
But no time for high-priced low cuts.

The CROSSETT is moderately priced, but is more than a moderately good shoe. It is positively the largest value for the money in this town. Below this price—$4.50—quality balks; above it, quality adds only fads and frills. But for sound, solid worth, the CROSSETT is your shoe.

It fits—it feels good—it walks and wears well—and it's natty. What more can you ask for leather.
