DAINTY SHOES FOR DAINTY FEET.

It will pay you handsomely to buy a pair of our fine new shoes. Just as sure as you wear them long enough to wear them out, and you'll have to wear them long to do it, you'll come back for another pair. If you want to know what comfort in foot wear really means, these are the shoes for you. They'll fit as snugly as an easy fitting glove and there are plenty of gloves not half so becoming. As to the price, if they are not worth what we ask and a little more, no shoes have ever been worth what you paid for them. You certainly would not blame us if we asked a larger figure. A large stock of Hats and Umbrellas, Trunks, Valises and Handbags at lowest prices.

NEW ORDER OF THE CARS.

New Trains and New Schedules to go into Effect Sunday, the Eleventh Day Between Charlotte and Monroe.

With the completion of the Carolina and Northwestern branch of the Seaboard Air Line road a new order of things goes into effect. The new passenger trains between Charlotte and Atlanta through Monroe will be put on Sunday, the May 1st. A special through passenger train between Portsmouth and Atlanta will be put on and on Monday a new special freight train between these points will make its first trip.

With these changes will come a change of schedule. It contains that the newest train for Rutherfordton at 8:15 p. m. will leave at 7 p. m. The train for Atlanta will leave at 8 a. m. and the train from Atlanta at 4:30 p. m. The night train for Wilmington will leave at 9:45 p. m. instead of 10:45 as now.

The Atlanta train will be manned by Capt. A. Nelson. The conductor will be Messrs. Dewand Boyce. At Monroe Mr. Boyce takes charge of the train and Mr. Dewand takes the train on to Atlanta. The engineer will be Mr. Fred Dunn, a young man who is a fine engineer and a fine fellow. The fireman will be Mr. Ed Dunn, a young man who is a fine fellow and a good fireman.

Mr. Dewand is a young man who is a fine fellow and a good conductor. Mr. Boyce is a young man who is a fine fellow and a good conductor.
