LOST HIS JOB.

A Mayodan Cotton Mill Employee Sued Boys for Stealing Turnips.

The Winston Sentinel learns that a white man in the employ of the Mayodan cotton mills was discharged under peculiar circumstances. He owned a large turnip patch. Several of Madison's young men, in taking a walk, spied the turnips and helped themselves. The owner had warrants issued for them. The turnip-eaters tried to compromise, offering to pay 25 cents apiece for the damage they had done. The offer was declined. One of the officers of the mill company heard of the proceedings and after much pleading succeeded in getting a compromise by paying the turnip man $5. After this was done, he told his employee his services were no longer needed; that he had no use for any man who would bring suit against boys for taking a few worthless turnips. The fellow was also ordered to vacate the house he occupied, which belonged to the company. His children in the mill were also discharged.

Others have found health, vigor and vitality in Hood's Sarsaparilla, and surely has power to help you also. Why not try it.

Dr. G. C. Osgood, Lowell, Mass.

"The use of Castoria is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach."
Carlos Martyn, D.D., New York City.

"I prescribe Castoria every day for children who are suffering from constipation, with better effect than I receive from any other combination of drugs."
Dr. L. O. Hurgan, South Amboy, N. J.

"THE TRIUMPH OF LOVE IS HAPPY, FRUITFUL MARRIAGE."

Every Man Who Would Know the Grand Truths, the Plain Facts, the New Discoveries of Medical Science as Applied to Married Life, Who Would Atone for Past Errors and Avoid Future Pitfalls, Should Secure the Wonderful Little Book Called "Complete Manhood, and How to Attain It."

"Here at last is information from a high medical source that must work wonders with this generation of men.

"The book fully describes a method by which to attain full vigor and manly power.

A method by which to end all unnatural drains or weakness.

To cure nervousness, lack of self-control, despondency, etc.

To exchange a jaded and worn nature for one of brightness, buoyancy and power.

To cure forever effects of excesses, overwork, worry, etc.

To give full strength, development and tone to every portion and organ of the body.

Age no barrier. Failure impossible. Two thousand references.

The book is purely medical and scientific, useless to curiosity seekers, invaluable to men only who need it.

A despairing man, who had applied to us, some time wrote:

"Well I tell you that first day is one I'll never forget. I fairly bubbled with joy. I wanted to hug everybody and tell them my old self had died yesterday, and my new self was born to-day. Why didn't you tell me when I first wrote that I would find it this way?"

And another thus:

"If you dumped a cart load of gold at my feet it would not bring such gladness into my life as your method has done."

Write to the ERIE MEDICAL COMPANY, Buffalo, N. Y., and ask for the little book called "COMPLETE MANHOOD." Refer to this paper, and the company promises to send the book, in sealed envelope, without any marks, and entirely free, until it is well introduced.

That is a mighty host of OVERCOATS you will find "lined up" here to meet your wants and wishes. Strong in quantity, strong in quality and style and fit. The only weak spot is the price. One wing of this army of comfort followers the conventional fashion. The other leads a gallant band of novelties—all our own. Both are mustered under the same business bringing banner—"satisfaction to everybody." The big trade we are having is the best evidence of our surpassing facilities. It's like a corporation's guard facing a regiment for competition to strive against our enormous variety—our superior qualities—our lowest prices. Cost may not cut any figure with you, but you don't want to pay fifty dollars when twenty-five dollars will give you the same value. The man who must feel his way and count his dollars can't afford to pay ten dollars when $7.50 will buy as good a garment. We are not favorites from friendship only, but on the solid, substantial ground that bring folks back here season after season. We want to sell you the

HARRIS LITHIA WATER

Contains more lithia than any other lithia spring water on the market, and we have yet to find a physician who has given Harris' Lithia Water a fair trial but that will state that it is superior to the other waters. Dr. Thomas S. Powell, President Southern Medical College, Atlanta, Ga.; Theo Lamb, Professor Diseases of Chest and Principles of Medicine, Medical Depot, Atlanta, University of Georgia; Prof Joseph Jones, President Tulane University of New Orleans, La.; Dr. John Hey Williams, Asheville, N C; Dr R B Harris, Savannah, Ga; Dr A N Talley, of Columbia, S. C., and hundreds of others of the most noted physicians of the country, testifying that Harris' Lithia is superior to all other waters that they have used in their practice.

President's Office,
Baltimore, June 24, 1896.

Mr J T Harris' Harris Spring, S C:

Dear Sir—I will say to you that it is my opinion that the Harris Lithia Water is by far the best lithia water I have ever used, and that it has done me a great deal of good, and I think that it is a most valuable remedy.

Very truly yours,
