

Alive

Serious consideration is being given to starting a new Alive I class, commencing Fall of 1981. The Alive series, sponsored by Charlotte B'nai B'rith Women and Jewish Community Center in conjunction with UNCC, has become a very meaningful course over the last several years in the lives of many people in the community. For those new to Charlotte, or those who were unable to take advantage of this offering in past years, now is the time to learn more about yourself and your relationship to others.

Alive I is a self-awareness, self-development course that covers such topics as assertiveness training, values clarification, body language, changing sex roles and active listening. It offers an opportunity to share thoughts while making new friends. One exciting aspect of the series has been the high caliber of people, professionals prominent in the community and in their own field of specialization, who have led the various classes.

Alive I is a one-year course offering three graduate, undergraduate or teacher renewal credits given through UNCC.

In order to meet your needs and avail yourself of this course, a great deal of advance planning must be made. Therefore, it is vital to get an early commitment from those who wish to participate. Class size must be limited.

Alive I is open to both men and women. Babysitting is available on request.

If you wish to become a part of this new Alive I series, please call Bette Jaffe, 542-2041, now.

Members of the Alive Class presented the JCC with a 90 cup electric coffee maker at the JCC's July board meeting. Betty Jaffe made the presentation and expressed the class's appreciation to the "J" for its cooperation with BBW and Alive Class members.

Devorah Chai Up Weekend

The Devorah Group of Hadassah will spend its annual "CHAI-UP" weekend at Wildacres. Devorah's first time at Wildacres, last year, was such a great success, they have decided to repeat it on an annual basis. Chairperson of this event is Alice Schreiber.

The weekend of September 4-7, will be cram-packed with entertainment, special seminars and many surprises. The theme will be "THE FAR RIGHT-WHAT IS LEFT?" with pertinent discussions on what is happening to the U.S., and how it applies to all of us — as Jews as Americans.

"CHAI-UP" will be graced by the presence of two very special ladies. Mrs. Edith Zamost, Vice President of National Hadassah, has past portfolios with National Hadassah which include leadership development and membership. She has also been a delegate to the World Zionist Congress. An accomplished concert pianist, she having performed with the New York Philharmonic. Mrs. Sophie

Friedlander, the current President of the Southern Seaboard Region of Hadassah, has also had a diversified background, having been a technician at the Los Alamos Nuclear Testing Laboratories and a Director for the American Civil Liberties Union of Wake County.

A deposit of $20 will hold your reservation. The cost of the weekend is $75 per person for adults and $65 per child from ages 6 to 12. Please contact Mrs. Bobbie Pollard, Reservation Chairperson, 366-7846, or mail your check directly to her at 6117 Creola Road, Charlotte, N.C. 28211.

Please enter my reservation for the second annual "CHAI-UP", September 4/7, 1981, for _____ people.
