J. R. Magee Is Navy Enlistee

RALEIGH — Joseph Ramsay Magee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Magee, of Route 1, Seaboard, has enlisted in the United States Navy and was transferred to the U.S. Naval Training Center at Great Lakes, Ill., for recruit training, according to Petty Officer Bron Duncan, local Navy recruiter for this area.

Prior to his enlistment in the Navy Magee graduated from Northampton High School. Petty Officer Duncan invites anyone interested in the Navy to contact him at the local Navy recruiting office located in the Municipal Building, Roanoke Rapids, on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Eastside Observes Founders Day

JACKSON — After a short business session with Mrs. Lucille Alston, president, presiding, a Founder's Day program was presented by the Eastside School's Parent-Teacher Association on Tuesday, February 22.

As a background, the history and achievements of the school were given by Mrs. Margaret Judkins. Special tributes were paid to the past presidents of the local association by C. C. Hawkins. Corsages were presented to them by Mrs. Inez Artis. Special tributes to the teachers were given by Mrs. Lucille Alston.

A birthday cake was presented to the president in honor of the founders and to stimulate the association to go forth in the spirit of enthusiasm and unity by Mrs. Mollie Casterlow.

Special musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Clara Wynn, Mrs. Elizabeth Paul and Mrs. Doris Mitchell, preceded by a candle light processional by the PTA Chorus.

Dr. George W. Walker, state dental surgeon, gave some brief remarks on dental care.

The meeting was well attended. Mrs. E. W. Paul was program chairman.

Refreshments were served.
