The attendants were as follows:

Mr. J. S. Johnston Miss Nannie G. Womack; Mr. J. Y. Stokes, Miss Mollie Hatchett; Mr. B. S. Graves, Miss Bertie Ratliffe; Mr. T. J. Hatchett, Miss Lila Graves; Mr. E. L. Graves, Miss Addie Lee Henderson; Mr. E. J. Barnard, Miss Lizzie Sullivan; Mr. R. S. Mitchell, Miss Donna Graves; Mr. L. M. Neal, Miss Bettie Mebane.

Miss Mattie Fitzgerald, who is a skillful performer at the organ, produced the running melodies of the wedding march and awakened every accordant note and combined and blended them into sweetest harmony, which had an enlivening, stirring and enrapturing effect upon the audience. The ceremony was clothed in beautiful language and sublime thought. After the ceremony all repaired to Sheriff Johnston's where an elegant and sumptuous supper had been prepared. We are told that everything passed off lovely.

Success to you Bro. May your life be a continuity of unending love, unalloyed bliss, exceeding beauty and everlasting rest. May the golden glories of that day when first you knelt at love's pure shrine, now reach their noontide splendor in the culmination of a purer love, and may the golden twine which binds the spirit of true love have no cloud to change its beauty.

A glass of beer costs the consumer 5cts. and there are at least twenty in the gallon and 640 in the barrels. So that beer retails at about $32 a galon, while ale costs still more. The cosumption of beer and ale last year was about 15,000,000 barrels; cost about $480,000,000.

The cheapest kind of liquor used, ordinary whiskey is rarely sold at 5cts. and averages at least 7cts. a drink at half a gill to the dram, this makes $4.58 per gallon.

The consumption last year was 70,000,000 gallons, cost to the consumer about $313,000,000, adding wine there is certainly spent for spirituous drinks more than $800,000,000, and the entire sum raised by taxes of all kind, national, state, county, city, town and school district is stated on authority of the census bereau to be not more than $700,000,000.
