The Same Old Bluff.

Every time the Republicans make a bluff at prosecuting the trusts, the trusts raise the prices on their wares and thereby make the public pay the cost of the suits. The public does not understand why the trusts put the prices up just as soon as they are asked to answer charges and those who do not stop to think say it does not pay to interfere with them for this reason. In the first place a reason for this action should be sought the trusts are only played with by the Republicans and are not really and truly prosecuted. The trusts furnish the money to run the Republican party and that party will never hurt them. The only way to check the trusts is to place the law-breakers in stripes and make them serve time for their offences. Then the public will see the result and not until then can they get any relief. As long as they can advance the price on their commodities and make the public pay the fines they will care nothing for fines and will continue their plunder of the people. There is another reason why they can raise the price on their goods at will when they are called to account for the robbery and that is the have driven out all the small competition and they can control the price but once that the trusts and the public fully understand that the trusts are to be controlled then small manufacturers will enter the field and a real com- [illegible]

REAT COUNTY ALES DAY!

SECOND SATURDAY IN EACH MONTH,

Beginning June 8th, at Rocky Mount, N. C.

THE WAY PROVIDED!

The Chamber of Commerce of Rocky Mount, recognizing the need of a general market-clearing house—in this section where farmers and others can sell the things they have and don't need and wish to turn into cash, has arranged a great "County Sales Day," which will be held in Rocky Mount on the second Saturday in each month. Maybe one farmer has a horse, or cow, or colt, an old wagon, plow, some corn, or other products or other thing he doesnt need. Without doubt, there is somebody who does need that very thing, and maybe this second man also has some articles useless to him which some one else needs. If all these people could bring these things together all would be benefitted.

REGULAR DEALERS ARE DEBARRED.

FREE AUCTION SALE?

WHAT HAVE YOU?

Rocky Mount will hold a Monthly Sales Day. The City pays the auctioneer and the clerk. Every person in Nash, Edgecombe and adjoining counties is cordially invited to come to Rocky Mount on that day and bring any and every thing he may have to sell. Anything from a dozen of eggs to a traction engine, if desired.—farm products, horses, pigs, chickens, farming utensils, furniture, books, etc; and have them sold at auction free of charge, and if the price doesn't suit you, you can call it back before it is "knocked off." It doesn't cost you a cent and you get every penny your property brings.

REGULAR DEALERS ARE DEBARRED.

Rocky Mount will Povide the Way! First Sales Day June the 8th, 1912.

The Place is Pitt's Warehouse, Rocky Mount, N. C.

Which Mr. Pitt has offered free of charge. The Warehouse will be open day and night, and a competent man will be on hand to take care of your team. Good stalls for your horses and if you want to stay all night, or drive in Friday night before, sleeping accommodations will be furnished you.

Everything Without Costing You a Cent. We Just Want You to Come to Rocky Mount.

Sales Begin at 11 O'clock and Continue Until Goods are Exhausted. Goods Must be on Floor to be Tagged by 10 O'clock a. m.

Thousands are Coming. You Come too, and see how much Cash that Article you Don't Need Will Bring You.

The Rocky Mount Chamber of Commerce.
