NORTH CAROLINA.

BEAUFORT, N. C., via MOREHEAD CITY, Dec. 1—The largest fire that ever occurred here took place about 2 A. M., and was evidently the work of an incendiary. The loss was very heavy and the insurance comparatively light. About twenty-five stores were burned, comprising all that portion of Front street, between Turner and Orange, with the exception of two private dwellings. Many of our citizens lost everything, and much distress will result therefrom.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—It is reported that Benj. P. Avery, Minister to China, is dead.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Senator Logan is suffering from acute rheumatism of the brain.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—A dispatch from Tuscon confirms the report of the defeat of the Sonora revolutionists.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 1.—The National Grange continues in session another week. A resolution ordering a Court of Appeals for Granges was adopted.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The steamer Sunnyside was sunk to-day by the ice. The clerk here thinks that four or five lives were lost.

At a late hour last night O'Connor's physicians held out hopes of his recovery, providing he suffers from no relapse.

The police prevented a public drawing of the lottery for the erection of a home for the homeless children. The drawing was conducted privately.

MARYLAND.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 1.—A special meeting of the stockholders of the Baltimore & Southern Steam Transportation Company is being held here today, to take into consideration the best means of closing the business of the Company. A resolution was adopted turning over the property to the Directors, to be used for the benefit of creditors. The total indebtedness is $20,000. Mr. D. J. Foley, President of the Company, stated that steamers would be run as usual. The steamers of the Company ply between this city, Charleston and Wilmington, N. C.

FOREIGN.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—The St. Petersburg Gazette says the incessant raids on Russian territory prove the necessity of the occupation of the remainder of Khokand.

The Standard says that in consequence of the recent conference between the English and French commanding officers on the North American stations, it is hoped that all soreness in consequence of the interference of the French in the New Foundland fisheries will be removed.

INFELICE:

A NOVEL.
BY AUGUSTA J. EVANS.

Author of "Beulah," "St. Elmo," "Vashti."

"Who has not read with rare delight the novels of Augusta Evans? Her strikingly wonderful, and fascinating style; the profound depths to which she sinks the plummet into human nature, touching its most sacred chords and springs; the intense interest thrown around her characters, and the very marked peculiarities of her principal figures, conspire to give an unusual interest to the works of this Southern authoress."

GOLDSBORO HIGH SCHOOL

GOLDSBORO, N. C.

M. FETTER, A. M., Prof. Ancient and Modern Languages.
E. W. ADAMS, A. M., Prof. Mathematics.

The Third Term of this Institution will begin on Monday, Aug. 2, and end on Monday, Dec. 20, 1875.

THIS School is situated in the town of Goldsboro (the centre of four Railroads), and from its accessibility offers superior advantages to parents and guardians living in the surrounding counties or in the Eastern portion of the state. The location is healthy, and no fears of sickness need be entertained by parents sending their sons to this place, as not a single case of serious illness occurred in the School during the past scholastic year. No student, therefore, can possibly be deterred from patronizing this School on the score of the unhealthiness of the location.

Professor E. W. Adams who has charge of the Mathematical Department is an alumnus of Randolph Macon College, and has been a successful teacher of youth for many years.

The course of instruction is sound, thorough and extensive and seeks to develop and improve the mental powers of the pupils by training them to THINK, and by teaching them the right use of the faculties with which God has endowed them.

The discipline of the School, while it is mild and parental, enforces the duty of obedience to every rule and regulation. As insubordination and disorderly conduct are wholly incompatible with scholastic training and mental progress no boy who is indisposed to improve his time or who is an injury to his fellows, will be retained in the School.

Moral and religious instruction receives a due share of attention and consideration; for unless the heart and conscience be instructed and enlightened, mere secular learning will avail but little in the formation of a correct and upright character.

The four religious bodies being well represented in this place, every boarder is allowed to attend that church on Sunday which his parent may designate. This wish and preference of the parent will be strictly observed, as nothing of a sectarian character is countenanced in the School.

Boys are prepared for advanced classes in College or for the active business of life.

The building, hitherto known as the "Female College" has been secured by the Principal, and will hereafter be used as a school for boys.

Deadly weapons, intoxicating drinks, profanity and every species of gambling are strictly prohibited.

Terms, per Session of 20 Weeks

The Novel of the Season!

CHRISTIAN REIDS'

"A QUESTION OF HONOR."

"A Question of Honor, by Christian Reid, is praised by the press as a work highly creditable of American literature. The subjoined extracts are from very favorable criticisms:

From the Philadelphia Press.

"A new work of fiction by Christian Reid is always acceptable. . . 'A Question of Honor,' is a story of Southern society, with a well constructed and well-sustained plot, and with a finish which will be unanticipated by most readers".

From the New Haven Register.

"An admirable bad story, full of incident and plot, that are in no respect overstrained, and carrying intense interest as the threads of the narrative are caught up and joined together."

From the Louisville Courier Journal.

"This novel is charming one, and worthy of the author's reputation; it has secured to it the best and noblest of all that she has yet written."

From the Boston Globe.

"Exquisitely clear in style and elevated in tone, and is worth more than one careful reading."

From the Utica Herald.

"The author has wrought with care, and with a good ethical and artistic purpose, and these are the essential needs in the building up of an American literature."

From the Boston Gazette.

"As a contribution to American fiction, 'A Question of Honor,' will more than maintain the already enviable reputation of its author."

From the Dispatch Courier.

"The author of 'Valerie Aylmer' is one of the most successful of those who have tried to establish novels out of the crude material of American life."

1 vol., 12mo. Cloth. Price, $1.75.
