Adult Spring Classes

Many of the spring classes being offered for adults at the JCC are beginning this week. If you are interested in any of these (the information was in the January "Charlotte Jewish News"), call Sara Schreiber at the JCC (366-0357).

The following classes are beginning later this month or the first of March. Remember: Classes will be cancelled one week prior to the starting date if registrations are insufficient. If you are interested in a class — don't delay — register today!

COMPUTE!: An introductory course "Getting to Know Personal Computers" for the would be purchaser, the curious or the novice. This class will be held on Tuesdays, February 9th & 16th from 7 - 9 p.m. at the Academy of Computer Science in the INA Building across from Cotswold Shopping Center. The fee is $18 for JCC Members and $27 for non-members.

CANDY MAKING: Henry Ohland of Grandma's Candy Kitchen will show you the many things you can do with chocolates! In this total participation class you'll melt, pour and mold chocolates in all-theme and Jewish molds. This class will be on Wednesday, February 24th from 7:30 - 9:30 p.m. or Thursday, February 25th from 9:30 - 11:30 a.m. and the fee is $4 for JCC Members and $6 for non-members.
