Creative Playgroup

After a two week winter break, the doors of Creative Playgroup opened again on January 4th. Creative Playgroup is available for children 6 months through 3 years on Mondays through Fridays from 9:15 a.m. to 1:15 p.m. The cost is $5 for the morning for JCC members and $7.50 for non-members. There are discounts available for long term or minimum 5 day a month signups. Call Sara Schreiber at the JCC (366-0357) for details on these.

We are in the process of evaluating the need for Creative Playgroup during the summer months. We ask that you call and chat with Sara about Creative Playgroup and what you feel your needs during the summer months might be. We want to make Creative Playgroup available for you and can continue it during the summer if the need is there.

If you haven't seen Creative Playgroup in action, we invite you to stop by the Little House at the JCC any morning and see the children and meet Marie MacDonald, our director.

Chai

On December 14 we had our annual Chanukah luncheon for our Chai group. This party is to honor and thank our carpool drivers and subs for their kindness to our group; without them, believe it or not, we could not even meet and imagine not having a CHAI group!!!

The CHAI happens to be a very important club to these people. To many of the members it is a means of meeting with friends their own age, to enjoy the activities, the lectures and the art class. Otherwise all they would look forward to would be a trip to the grocery. It is important to keep CHAI alive for all these members.

Our faithful drivers who do this every Monday are: Estelle Hirsch, Sally Schrader, Micky Waldman, Fairlyn Levine, Alice Schreiber (prior to her leaving for Florida), Lina Levine, Ruth Dorian, Helga Rosenberger, Beverly Montezinos, Sylvia Sadoff, Ilse Bergen and Sam Jaffe.

Our substitute drivers are: Lil Bienstock, Sally Winokuer, Doris Fligel, Helene Patton, Eileen Darholt and Helen Sundheimer.

At this luncheon the drivers all received gifts, such as books, and the regulars also received certificates of appreciation. Sylvia Sadoff presented a check to Bob Abel for the JCC. The money came from our recent successful raffle.

Our sincere thanks to Violet Adler who was in charge of this luncheon. A lot of the delicious food and the gifts were donated by some very caring people and we thank each and every one of them.

And last, but not least, the CHAI presented Ilse Bergen a gift in appreciation of all that she does for this club. It's a time consuming and at times aggravating job, but she does it all with a smile, and so WE LOVE HER!!

CJS

With 1982 off to a flying start, it seems appropriate to find out what the future may hold for you. Carolina Jewish Singles (CJS) will meet February 7 at 7:30 p.m. at Carmel on Providence Clubhouse. The program will feature astrologer Barbara Polk whose uncanny ability to look into the future is known throughout the Carolinas. Admission is $2.50 for JCC members and $4.00 for non-members; refreshments will be served. RSVP with Ben Sinkoe, 392-8181; Sandi Rothman, 377-6555 or 366-8937; or Sara Schreiber, director of JCC adult programming, at the JCC (366-0357).

The second event for the month, a brunch, will take place February 21. More information on this will be announced in an upcoming flyer. Also plans are being made for a Purim dance in March. If your name is not on the mailing list, please contact Sara at the JCC.

Three outstanding events were held over the past several weeks. One was the Italian Night dinner in December followed in January by a review of "Taxes and the Single Person" and a get-together for Super Sunday at the Ramada Inn-Downtown.
