Announcing The First Great Annual Passover Family Afikomen Hunt

With the cooperation of Temple Beth El, Temple Israel, Temple Beth Shalom, the Hebrew Academy and the JCC. The Foundation has taken the family tradition of searching for the Afikomen (the last piece of Matzo to be eaten at the Seder) and turned it into an exciting treasure hunt for your family. There will be fantastic prizes for two winning families: 40 General Cinema movie tickets or a portable B/W TV or a $100 Deli-party for up to 25 people.

Here's how it works: We have hidden the Afikomen somewhere in JEWISH HISTORY - in a very particular specific place in Jewish history. Starting with this issue of The News we are giving you the 1st of 15 clues to its location. Three different clues will be given each week, starting with Shabbat, March 12, at the following locations: each of the Temples, the Academy and the JCC lobby. They will also appear in the Temple Bulletins and in the April issue of the Charlotte Jewish News.

WHEN YOU THINK YOU HAVE SOLVED THE LOCATION OF THE AFIKOMEN, USE ANY OF THE CONVENIENTLY PLACED ENTRY BLANKS TO SUBMIT YOUR ANSWER. YOU MAY SUBMIT MORE THAN ONE ANSWER.

DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES IS WEDNESDAY, APRIL 7. ALL FAMILIES SUBMITTING THE WINNING ANSWERS WILL HAVE TWO WAYS TO WIN:

1. You will be invited to hunt for the actual Afikomen on the grounds of the JCC, Sunday, April 11, 3 p.m.
2. All winning answers will be placed in a drawing to be held Sunday, April 11, 4 p.m.

EACH OF THE WINNING FAMILIES WILL HAVE THEIR CHOICE OF ANY ONE OF THE THREE FABULOUS PRIZES.

SAMPLE PUZZLE: See if you can solve this puzzle. Here are six clues as to where we might have hidden the Afikomen:

- |                      |                               |
|----------------------|-------------------------------|
| 1. Go Fer It         | 4. Gene Kelly in Paris        |
| 2. Pitch Every Curve | 5. 2 plus 2 plus 2.....plus 8 |
| 3. Roy G. Biv        | 6. Dr. Doolittle              |

DID YOU SOLVE IT?
