

The Seder

You are now ready for the Seder.

Begin the Seder after dark. During the Seder we recline to the left at certain points to show our freedom.

Kadesh קדש

Kiddush
The Seder service begins by reciting Kiddush over a cup of wine or grape juice. This is the first of the four cups of wine which we drink, reclining at the Seder.

Ur'chatz ורחץ

Washing the hands
After Kiddush, we wash our hands the way we usually do before a meal, but without reciting a blessing.

Karpas כרפס

Dip a small piece of potato, onion, or similar vegetable in salt water and before eating it say the proper blessing (see Haggadah).

Yachatz יחץ

"Break Matzah"
Break the middle-Matzah, and put away the larger half as the Aphikomen (to be eaten at the end of the meal). Put back the smaller part between the two other Matzoth.

Maggid מגיד

Ask Four Questions
Fill up the second cup of wine or grape juice. We begin to read the Haggadah. Now it's time for your special part in the Seder when you ask the Four Questions. (listen carefully to the answer!)

Rachatzah רחצה

Wash the Hands
After drinking the second cup of wine reclining, or grape juice wash your hands for the meal. This time recite the customary blessing.

Motzi Matzah מוציא מצה

Eat the Matzah
Next, take hold of the three Matzahs, and say the blessing "Hamotzi." Then let the bottom Matzah drop back onto the plate, and say the blessing "Al achilas Matzah" (See Haggadah) Break a piece from each and eat them together, reclining.

MORROR — bitter herb, usually horse-radish and/or romaine lettuce. מרור

Korech כורך

Take the bitter herbs, dip them into Charoses and place them between two pieces of the third Matzah and say "Ken Ossoh Hillel" (See Haggadah) and eat it, reclining.

Shulchan Orech שלחן עורך

We are now ready to perform the Mitzvah of Eating the Yom Tov Meal

Tzafun צפון

Eat the Afikomen
After the meal is completed, the Afikomen should be eaten, reclining. (This is the piece of Matzah you put away earlier). After the Afikomen no food should be eaten.

Barech בריך

Grace
The third of the "Four Cups" is filled, and after grace has been said, say the blessing over wine and drink the third cup reclining.

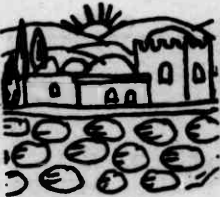

Hallel הלל

Fill the fourth cup of wine or grape juice. Then say the prayer "Shefoch" (Haggadah) with the door open. We then say the Hallel followed by the blessing for wine and the drinking of the fourth cup reclining.

Nirtzoh נרצה

Now that you have carried out the Seder properly you can be sure that it will be accepted by G-d and that next year we will celebrate Passover in Yerushalayim.

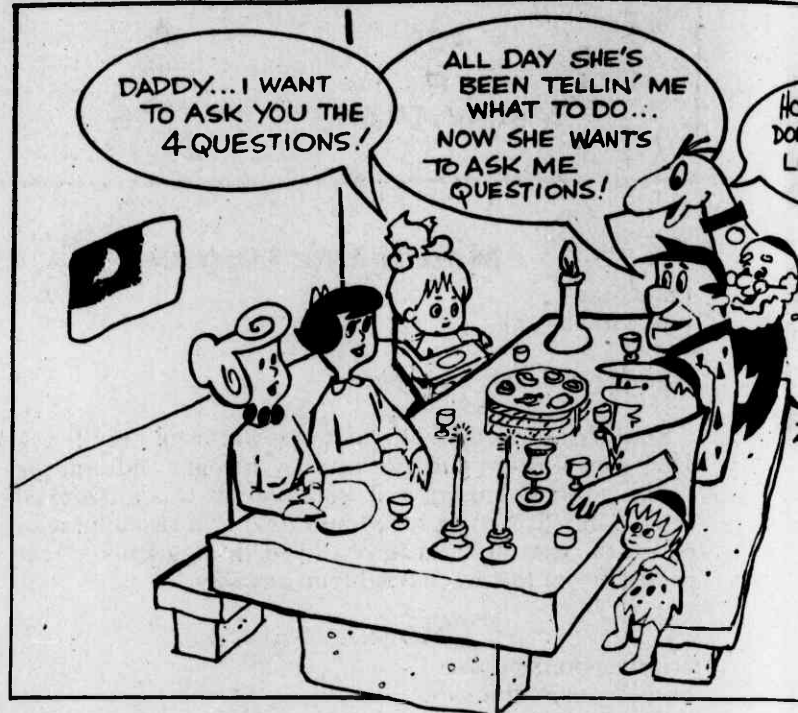

ELIJAH'S CUP

Try to make this your most joyous Seder ever and sing the Passover songs. Remember — Passover does not end after the two Seder nights. Passover lasts eight days.
