FOR COUGHS AND CROUP USE
TAYLOR'S
CHEROKEE REMEDY
OF SWEET GUM AND MULLEIN.

The sweet gum, as gathered from a tree of the same name, growing along the small streams in the Southern States, contains a stimulating expectorant principle that loosens the phlegm producing the early morning cough, and stimulates the child to throw off the false membrane in croup and whooping cough. When combined with the healing mucilaginous principle in the mullein plant of the old fields, presents in Taylor's CHEROKEE REMEDY OF SWEET GUM AND MULLEIN the finest known remedy for Coughs, Croup, Whooping-Cough and Consumption; and so palatable, any child is pleased to take it. Ask your druggist for it. Price, 25c. and $1. WALTER A. TAYLOR, Atlanta, Ga.

Use DR. BIGGERS' HUCKLEBERRY CORDIAL for Diarrhœa, Dysentery and Children Teething. For sale by all druggists.

The Daily Review.

THE DEATH OF LOVE, ALAS!

We dwell together, you and I,
The same in outward seeming
As when we first, in years gone by,
Saw Hymen's torches gleaming.
No open jar, no passing strife,
Disturbs our level courses,
But yet we feel the springs of life
Are poisoned at their sources.

The courteous smile, the pleasant speech,
When others gather near us;
The lengthening silence, each with each,
When none are by to hear us;
The furtive watch and covert sneer,
Sharp jest, in earnest spoken,
All these have meaning full and clear,
Though peace may seem unbroken.

Our dols lie amid the dust
In thousand fragments shattered.
And faith and quiet, truth and trust,
Foreevermore are scattered.
So day by day, unheard, unseen,
Still grows the barrier stronger;
A sombre shadow sweeps between,
And love is ours no longer.

"The little ri.. within the lute"
Will mar the song's completeness;
"The little speck within the fruit"
Will kill its bloom and sweetness,
In skies that seem to others bright
We hear the muttering thunder;
The hidden doubt shall leap to light,
And part our lives asunder.

Important to Druggists.

(Mr. Cicero Harris in Goldsboro Messenger.)

Some weeks ago a druggist in a North Carolina village wrote to me, making enquiries about a firm of Washington attorneys and a proposition of theirs to recover a claim alleged to be due druggists from the Government. I had no authority to divulge any part of the correspondence and its enclosure, except on the condition that I found upon investigation that the whole concern was a fraud deserving exposure, if not punishment. I declined to undertake the case, as I saw that it would require an immense amount of pains and labor without any certainty of an adequate return. The city papers of yesterday have something on the subject, and I now feel at liberty to treat the matter as far as it is understood. The senior partner of the law firm, Allen Rutherford, figured in Reconstruction politics in North Carolina, They say in their circular: "The subject on which we address you is of importance to you, in that we believe there is a certain amount of money due you by the United States. Our action is taken after the most careful consideration of the matter, and we are so convinced by our investigations that there is money due you and other dealers in drugs, the list of whom is now before us, that, with a view of obtaining your claim for this sum we now communicate with you." They announce that the claims must be prosecuted through the Court of Claims, and say the law firm will have all the expenses, if the claimants agree to allow them 33⅓ per cent. of what they recover. They say: "We believe that there is a considerable sum due you, but cannot say how much until clothed with the proper authority by you to represent you, and can say nothing positive until your case is under headway and we have all the data necessary for calculating the size of your claim. Naturally the question will arise, 'What money of mine is it that it is proposed to recover?' Permit us to answer, in anticipation, that until some future time we must decline to enlighten you. Details now would endanger the success of the whole matter, as by the least publicity we would experience the interference of unscrupulous attorneys, who, if they could, would rob us of the fruits of our enterprise and labor."

The circular of the firm gives the following references:

Mr. Allen Rutherford refers by permission to Gen. W. S. Rosecrans, Register United States Treasury, Washington, D. C., Hon. W. P. Canaday, Sergeant-at-Arms United States Senate, Washington, D. C.

Mr. Edward R. D. Mayne refers by permission to William S. Thompson, Chairman of Council American Pharmaceutical Association, Washington, D. C.; Adolph J. Schafbirt, druggist, Washington, D. C.

The mystery surrounding the matter gives to it additional interest, and druggists all over the country are talking over the matter, and the general impression is that there is "something in it."

The very latest that can be ascertained to-day about the "mystery" is the following: Mr. W. S. Thompson, an eminent druggist of this city, says Messrs. Rutherford & Mayne, the legal firm in this city, have confided to him their secret concerning claims of druggists against the Government, but he is not at liberty to divulge it. He says it is a law point, and apparently a perfectly proper one, and the firm are satisfied they will succeed in enforcing payments of the claims. It is perfectly legitimate, he says, and the only object for keeping the grounds upon which the claims are based a secret is to protect the lawyers who want to take charge of the cases. He says most of the druggists in this and other cities will enter into the matter and the validity of the claims will be tested.

AN OPEN FRANK LETTER.—it is by no means strange that Dr. David Kennedy should have received the following letter. By reading it you will see in one minute why its writer could recommend it.—(ED.) Mr. J. W. Horner, Traveling Agent for Ambach, Burgander & Co., Baltimore Md., says: "His head felt bad, and he was suffering from indigestion. A trial of 'Favorite Remedy' made me feel like a new man. I cheerfully recommend it to all needing a medicine of the kind."

Too well known to need lengthy advertisements—Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

He: "I see the latest idiocy of women is to have a monkey for a pet." She: "That is not new. It was so when we got married."

Advice to Mothers.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

1885.

Harper's Young People.

AN ILLUSTRATED WEEKLY.

The serial and short stories in Harper's Young People have all the dramatic interest that juvenile fiction can possess, while they are wholly free from what is pernicious or vulgarly sensational. The humorous stories and pictures are full of innocent fun, and the papers on natural history and science, travel, and the facts of life, are by writers whose names give the best assurance of accuracy and value. Illustrated papers on athletic sports, games, and pastimes give full information on these subjects. There is nothing cheap about it but its price.

1,500 ACRES OF LAND IN THE long leaf pine region. For sale on easy terms in lots to suit purchasers. Four acres for $25. Larger tracts $5 per acre, in monthly payments of $10. This land adjoins the "Southern Pines", a recently established health resort (or sanitarium), and is specially adapted for Fruit Culture, as well as all the cereals. A number of New England people have bought lots in the town of "Southern Pines," and it is the desire of the owners of this land to induce small farmers, mechanics and others from the New England and Middle States, as well as elsewhere, to locate here. No State in the Union offers greater inducements to settlers than North Carolina. Nowhere can a better farming country or as fine a climate be found. This is the opinion of Northern men who have settled in North Carolina. This is a bona fide offer, and is limited

Quarantine Notice.

QUARANTINE FOR THE PORT OF WILMINGTON will be enforced from May 1st, to November 1st, as follows:

Pilots will bring all vessels from Ports south of Cape Fear, from all Mediterranean Ports; and all vessels which have had any kind of sickness on board during the passage, or which have sickness on arrival, to the Quarantine anchorage; and will cause a signal to be set in the main rigging on the port side, as soon as possible after crossing the Bar.

Special notice will be issued to the pilots, by the Quarantine Physician, to bring vessels from other ports to the Quarantine Station whenever it shall appear to the Quarantine Board that they are infected, or suspected of being so.

No vessel must leave the Quarantine anchorage, or allow any person, steamer or tug boat, lighter, or boat of any kind to go alongside, unless by written authority from the Quarantine Physician; and every vessel must be anchored as far to the eastward of the channel as is consistent with safety.

Regulations governing vessels while in Quarantine may be had on application at the office of the Quarantine Physician at Smithville.

Applications for permits to visit vessels in Quarantine must be made to Dr. Thomas F. Wood or Dr. Geo. G. Thomas, and permits so obtained will be endorsed by the Quarantine Physician, if in his opinion, it is proper and safe to allow communication with such vessels.

A penalty of $200 for each and every offence will be enforced against any person violating any of the Quarantine Regulations of the Port.

Quarantine Physician, Port of Wilmington.
