ROSADALIS.

The Best Blood Purifier in the World!

Dr. Lawrence's Celebrated

"ROSADALIS."

Read the Following Home Certificates From Physicians:

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and valuable one in Scrofula, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

W. A. DUGGAN, M. D
E. BARNES, M. D.
R. W. KING, M. D.

Wilson, N. C., Feb. 8th, 1866.

We hereby certify that we regard Dr. Lawrence's Compound Extract of Rosadalis as a Reliable Alterative, &c.

A. D. MOORE, M. D.
L. A. STITH, M. D.

Wilson, N. C., May 10th, 1866.

Edgecombe County, N. C., May 2, 1867.

Dr. J. J. Lawrence,—Dear Sir: Please send me immediately, per Express, to Tarboro', two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examined the Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula, and Scrofulous affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Tertiary Syphilis [one terrible case of eight years standing], in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully Yours, &c.,
A. B. NOBLES, M. D.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—(one tumor reached a large size). The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in both knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared, and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

Rosadalis will Cure the Worst Cases of Chronic Rheumatism.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

Wilson, N. C., May 6, 1867.

I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis.

JAMES WILLS.

Rosadalis Cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that during the Summer and Fall of 1866, I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles, having as many as 14 large Carbuncles and 12 ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

W. A. DARDEN, Sr.

Wilson, May 11, 1867.

Portsmouth, Va., Aug. 28, 1867.

Capt. J. H. Baker—Sir: For the last seven or eight years, I have been severely afflicted with a very troublesome form of SALT RHEUM, from which I have never been able to obtain the slightest perceptible relief from any of the many remedies which I have at various times applied, until I chanced to try DR. LAWRENCE'S ROSADALIS. In less than one month I found myself almost entirely cured of my troublesome eruption.

Other memebrs of my family have used it as a blood purifier, with the most gratifying results.

Truly I can say of all the medicines I have ever used before, none have been so happy beneficial in effects as the Rosadalis, and I would most cheerfully recommend it to the public and to all suffering humanity.

Very Respectfully, Yours, &c.,
MRS. E. N. BOGGS,
Opposite the Crawford House.

Consumption in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

Baltimore, Md., March 4th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence:—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nearly two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glassy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physicians brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis, as a tonic—which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night-sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours Respectfully,
MRS. E. ANN SMITH.

Major John W. Dunham, one of the editors of the Wilson North Carolinian, says in the issue of the 20th of April, 1867: "I believe, from personal experience, that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

Wilson, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

Dr. Lawrence—Sir:—In 1862, my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome eruption of the skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. ROSADALIS was prescribed by my family physician, Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks my son became and remains entirely well.

Yours Truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

Rosadalis will Cure the Worst Cases of scrofula. Read the Statement Below, and Despair not.

Wilson County, Sept. 10, 1867.

Dr. J. J. Lawrence—Dear Sir:—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact most of them said there was no hope of cure. During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes very much swollen.—Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr L. A. Smith to try your ROSADALIS. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well. I am, sir,

Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

Rosadalis is a Potent Remedy in all Chronic Diseases.

Certificate from G. W. Blount, Esq., Attorney at Law, Wilson, N. C.

This is to certify that I was afflicted with Chronic Inflammation of the Ear, from 858 until this Summer, when it assumed such a troublesome form as to give great pain. I was, at times, partially deaf, and the suppuration and almost continual flow of matter kept the outside of the ear badly inflamed. I was induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, and now think I am entirely cured. The suppuration has ceased. I can hear as well as ever, and there is not that teching sensation in the ear which before so much annoyed me.

My general health has also been greatly improved, and I have been entirely free from my usual bilious symtoms, &c., at this season of the year. I can confidently recommend the Rosadalis as an extraordinary blood purifier, &c.

GEO. W. BLOUNT.

Wilson, Sept. 13th, 1867.

Chronic Liver Complaint Cured.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalsi, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

SALT RHEUM CURED!—REMARKABLE CURE!!

MONTREAL, CANADA, April 4th, 1867.

Dr. Lawrence, Wilson, N. C.:

My Dear Sir:—For the last ten years (until recently), I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin, called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have visited several celebrated springs—spent thousands of dollars—and failed to get better. In December, 1866, being in Charleston, S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad tetter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope, though, of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassidy, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.

Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude.—Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?

Hotel on Fire—Narrow Escape and Injuries.

An alarm of fire was sounded about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, which was found to have been evoked by fire at the Susquehanna Hotel, kept by Mrs. Fairchilds. The fire originated in the basement, where a colored servant was engaged in filling a can with coal oil, the fluid igniting and spreading with great rapidity, and with such force that several persons in the upper stories of the house made narrow escape with their lives. The firemen were promptly on the spot, and the fire was extinguished with all possible speed, but not until the furniture was either destroyed or greatly damaged by fire and water.

The fire ascended the stairway with such rapidity that all egress to those in the upper stories was soon cut off. Mrs. Gibbons, of Rochester, New York, a boarder in the house, occupying a room in the second story, became alarmed and jumped to the pavement below, and falling into an area, broke her leg. She was removed to a house in the neighborhood, and received prompt medical attention. Mr. J. R. White, clerk at the Northern Central Railway Depot, also jumped from a second story window, spraining his ankle and cutting his head severely. Mr. R. D. Tweedy and wife and two children, occupied apartments in the fourth story, and at one time it was feared the entire family would perish in the flames, but the members of Hook and Ladder Company No. 1 promptly got to work with their ladders and rescued them. The lady and children were unhurt except from fright, but Mr. Tweedy was badly burned about the face. Several others made narrow escapes with slight injuries. Late last evening all the injured parties were doing well.—Baltimore Sun.

A Black Fiend—Horrible Brutality of a Negro Father—He Stamps to Death a Disobedient Son — Escape of the Murderer.

A most terrible instance of the brutality of the negro race when fully aroused, occurred in Williamson County a few days since, at a country place bearing the more significant than elegant title of Lousy Level—a settlement made up of a little grocery and several straggling buildings, occupied by an interesting variety of tenants, and not likely to compete successfully with the general run of commercial centers and fast towns in other parts of the State.

John Crafton, a negro resident of this unpretending neighborhood, in endeavoring to compel his son, a little boy about seven yeurs of age, to go and water a horse, became so enraged at the persistent refusal of the child to comply with his demand, that he seized it, threw it upon the ground, and with his coarse, heavy shoes, stamped upon it until life was neraly extinct. Not satisfied with this, the brute seized the boy and forcibly placed him upon the horse and attempted to make him ride. The mother at this juncture ran out and caught the boy in her arms, removed him from the horse, and in a few moments afterward the little fellow expired.

As soon as possible, a Coroner's jury was summoned and a post mortem examination made, which developed the fact that the inhuman father had not only stamped the ribs loose from the backbone of the child, but had crushed its head with his heavy foot.

When the wretch discovered the fatal result of his foolish anger, he fled precipitately, made good his escape, and nothing to indicate his present whereabouts has yet transpired.

The Exciting Murder Trial at Richmond.

The trial of Phillips, at Richmond, for the murder of his wife, which is justly considered one of the most celebrated cases on record, has attracted large crowds of ladies and gentlemen during the whole investigation. It was given to the jury on Thursday; they failed to agree, ten being in favor of conviction and two against it. There being no prospect of their finding a verdict, the jury was discharged on Friday afternoon and the prisoner remanded to jail, to be tried again at the April term of the court. The evidence was altogether circumstantial against him, but was very strong.

The Negro Excitement Against the Richmond Doctors.

The dean of the Faculty of the Medical College at Richmond, fearing for the safety of the college buildings from the excited condition of the negroes on the subject of being caught alive for dissection, has had an interview with Gen. Brown, at which all of the negro preachers in Richmond and Mr. Hunnicutt were present, which resulted in each of them promising to use his influence to disabuse the minds of the ignorant negroes of the fancy which had taken possession of them. They kept their promise, and the excitement has subsided.

Immense Fenian Meeting.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.

An immense mass meeting of Irish citizens was held this evening at Cooper Institute, under the auspices of the Irish Brigade, for the purpose of protesting against the infringements of the rights of American citizens of Irish birth, on the part of the British Government. Colonel James McIvor occupied the chair. Gen. Charles G. Halpine, Gen. Cochrane, and others made addresses and resolutions favoring the object of the meeting were adopted.

Troops at the South.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.

General Grant has decided that after the elections and Conventions now pending in the Southern States have been held, the number of military posts shall be diminished and the troops consolidated at central points, with a view to economy in the matter of transportation and subsistence.

A Romance and a Wedding—A Belgian Baron Marries a Treasury Clerk.

The Baron Henry Van Havre, who is connected with one of the most aristocratic and wealthy families of Belgium, came here a few years ago as Secretary of Legation. He is about thirty years of age, tall and commanding in appearance, and an ardent lover of poetry and music. About six months after his arrival he happened to pay a visit to the Treasury Department. Miss Camilla Webb was a clerk. She was born in the southern part of Virginia, and came to Washington about five years ago. She was accompanied by her widowed mother, and though in comparatively poor circumstances, they were known to some of the most respectable society here. The Baron effected an introduction to Miss Webb. About a year ago he returned to Europe and travelled extensively over the Continent. After spending about five months there, he resolved on coming back to this country, impelled by a desire to express his attachment to Miss Webb, having failed to find abroad any more attractive object. Three days ago the wealthy and aristocratic Baron, accompanied by his intended bride, Miss Webb, and attended by a party of intimate friends, proceeded to the Catholic church of St. Aloysius and had the nuptials ceremony performed. The Baron is a Catholic and his wife an Episcopalian. To-day the Episcopal ceremony of marriage was completed in presence of a select and fashionable congregation. The bride, who is about twenty years of age, was dressed in pearl-colored silk, and with her wealth of golden tresses, bright blonde complexion, and delicately-chiselled features, created no small degree of admiration. In the evening they left for New York, whence they sail for Belgium.—N. Y. Herald.

How He Managed It.

Mr. Jones, who intended taking his wife out for a drive one day, asked his milkman, who had a very spirited horse, for the loan of the same; which request was granted. However, Mr. Jones was not a good driver, and had great difficulty in managing the horse, which at last became ungovernable, and to the great horror of Mrs. Jones, bolted with them. Mr. Jones did not know what to do, and a serious accident seemed unavoidable, when all of a sudden, Mr. Jones remembering the capacity for which the horse was used, and calling out with a stentorian voice, "Milk, oh! milk, oh!" the horse stopped instantly, to their great joy, at this familiar cry, and Mr. and Mrs. Jones got home safely without any further incident, save that when they returned in the evening, on passing a pump in the neighborhood, the horse would not stir an inch until Mr. Jones got down and worked the pump handle a dozen times, after which operation it moved on directly; and to finish off the day's pleasure, it stopped at all the customers of the milkman in the road where Mr. Jones lived, his house being at the further end.

The Bureau.

A dispatch from Washington says that Mr. Eliot, of Massachusetts, will introduce the following in relation to the Freedmen's Bureau:

Resolved, That the committee on freedmen's affairs be directed to ascertain what reasons there are, if any, why the Freedmen's Bureau should be continued beyond the time now limited by law, and report by bill or otherwise, with power to send for persons and papers, and examine witnesses under oath.

The California Senatorship.

An election for United States Senator to succeed Mr. Conness will take place in California soon after the meeting of the Legislature next month. The Democrats have a majority on joint ballot. Among the prominent candidates on that side are Colonel John P. Hoge (Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee), and Henry H. Haight, Governor elect.

A Poet's Funeral.

On the afternoon of the 22d, Fitz Greene Halleck was "laid under the sod of his native village" of Guilford, Connecticut. A long procession of mourners on foot followed the remains to the grave, and at their head walked Miss Halleck and her cousin, Charles Elliott, each in their sixth year. The funeral services took place in the Episcopal Church.

The Fifteen Cent Postage.

It is understood that the new fifteen cent denomination of fractional currency is now ready to be issued, but that the delay is occasioned by a desire to know the opinion of Congress on the subject of issuing it. It seems that so far all the members who have been conversed with in regard to it are favorable to the new denomination.

CLIPPINGS.

The Baptists of Minnesota have 130 churches, 93 ministers, and 3,310 members. There are besides, 22 meeting-houses in the State.
