THINK OF IT NOW!

Although much is said about the importance of a blood-purifying medicine, it may be possible that the subject has never seriously claimed your attention. Think of it now!

Almost every person has some form of scrofulous poison latent in his veins. When this develops in Scrofulous Sores, Ulcers, or Eruptions, or in the form of Rheumatism, or Organic Diseases, the suffering that ensues is terrible. Hence the gratitude of those who discover, as thousands yearly do, that will thoroughly eradicate this evil from the system.

As well expect life without air as health without pure blood. Cleanse the blood with AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all Druggists; $1, six bottles for $5.

AYER'S Ague Cure

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.

The Morning Star.

DR. HOLMES IN OCTOBER ATLANTIC.

"Full well I know the frozen hand has come,
That smites the songs of grove and garden dumb,
And chills sad Autumn's last chrysanthemum:

"Yet would I find one blossom, if I might,
Ere the dark loom that waves the robe of white
Hides all the wrecks of Summer out of sight.

* * * * *

"Ah me! my skies are dark with sudden grief,
A flower lies faded on my garnered sheaf,
Yet let the sunshine gild this virgin leaf—

"The joyous, blessed sunshine of the past,
Still with me, though the heavens are overcast—
The light that shines while life and memory last.

"Go, pictured rhymes, for loving readers meant:
Bring back the smiles your jocund morning lent,
And warm their hearts with sunbeams yet unspent!"

THE CAMPAIGN.

— The Democrats of Ohio count upon carrying fourteen out of the twenty-one Congressional Districts of that State.

— Rev. Thomas R. Bacon, of the Dwight Place Church, New Haven, Conn., has declared for Cleveland, much to the chagrin of certain Blaine members of his cangregation.

— Ex-Governor Solomon writes that although a Republican, he opposes the election of Mr. Blaine and will support Grover Cleveland. He signifies his willingness to address independent Republican meetings.—N. Y. Herald.

— A letter received by a gentleman in this city yesterday from W. T. White, editor of the leading paper in Coshocton county, Ohio, says that the State is safe if Dudley does not buy if up as he did Indiana four years ago.—Wash. Post.

— After one of the most exciting and disorderly discussions in its history the Young Republican Club of Brooklyn, last evening, at a special meeting, adopted resolutions supporting the Republican Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates.—N. Y. Herald.

— A letter from a prominent New York German says: "I have spent the last two weeks in travelling through Ohio. From the reports I received from German friends of mine I am confident that the Democratic ticket will be elected in October."—N. Y. Herald.

— A letter from a prominent Democrat who is stumping West Virginia, says: "Our prospects of victory continue to grow brighter as the canvass progresses. The Democracy of the State seems to be determined that it will not be wrested from the Democratic column."—N. Y. Herald.

— A letter to the National Democratic Committee from the Democratic State Committee of New Jersey says that the campaign is progressing most encouragingly in that State, and that New Jersey can be depended on to give its electoral votes to Cleveland and Hendricks by a handsome majority."—N. Y. Herald.

— A Republican writes from New Haven, Conn.: "I have been a life long Republican, and suppose I am only one of many thousands who are dissatisfied with Blaine's nomination. I hate very much to cast a vote for a party whose principles I do not admire. Still, it may be my duty to do so, as I certainly regard a good Democratic nomination better than a bad Republican one.—N. Y. Herald.

— Representative Barbour, of Virginia, was in the city to-day. He said to a Star reporter that the canvass is not arousing much interest in his State. "The Democrats," he added, "take it for granted that they are going to win, and they are going along very easy. What we want to do is to stir them up and get the voters out. The State is certain to go Democratic if the voters will turn out."—Wash. Star, Ind. Rep.

PERSONAL.

— Mr. Walters, of Minneapolis, hanged himself "to fool his wife." He would have his little choke.

—"DEAR SIR:—My regular charge for "lecturing" is a million of dollars for outsiders; for my soldier comrades, once a year, nothing. For the former never has this fee been accepted. For the latter my book of engagements is full for the natural period of my life. With great respect, WILLIAM T. SHERMAN.

— CHEYENNE, WY., September 23.—The Leader's special from Fort McKinney, Wy., says: The mangled and lifeless body of Gillie Leigh, a member of the British Parliament, has been found at the base of a precipitous cliff in Big Horn Mountains. Leigh was out here with a small English pleasure party and left camp on the 4th inst., for a stroll, and was not heard of till after the the eight days' search revealed his dead body. The remains will be shipped to England.

HERE ARE YOUR HOT BUNS.

— "Blaine Is an Important Man for us to have feel all right toward us."—Calwell to Fisher.

— "No one will ever know from me that I have disposed of a single dollar in Maine."—Blaine to Fisher.

— "I Say to You to-night solemnly that I am immeasurably worse off than if I had never touched the Fort Smith matter."—Blaine to Fisher.

— "I do not wish to seem importunate and troublesome, but if you knew the agonies I have suffered in this matter during the past six months you would pity me, I am sure, and make great efforts to relieve me. Pray let me know what I am to expect."—Blaine to Fisher.

SOUTHERN ITEMS.

— Alabama has coal fields 5,500 square miles in extent—nearly half the coal area of Great Britain.

— Mr. C. V. Phillips, of Portsmouth, was killed Tuesday by a fall, resulting from the breaking of a scaffold on which he was at work at J. L. Thomas' marine railway in Berkley. Mr. Jefferson Brownley had his hip broken and other employes were hurt.

— Indianapolis, Sept. 23.—A dispatch to the Journal from Haysville, Tenn., states that Capt. E. F. Johnson killed Edward Henry at that place to-day. The latter had caused letters to be printed reflecting upon the memory of Capt. Johnson's wife, who committed suicide last November, and the killing to-day was the result.

A CARD.—To all who are suffering from errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send self-addressed envelope to REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York. †

The Man with a Cross Wife.

This man may have high ambition and noble aspirations, yet he cannot be expected to enjoy very good health, especially if the lady scolds him while at meals. This is enough to give any man chronic dyspepsia. If he takes Brown's Iron Bitters he has a splendid chance for recovery. Mr. G. A. Wightman, Thomaston, Conn., says: "I used Brown's Iron Bitters for dyspepsia and have been greatly benefited by it." †

NOTICES OF THE PRESS:

The STAR is decidedly one of the best papers in the State, as bright and newsy as ever. Long life to it.—Salem Press.

The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year—as good a paper as any people should want.—Charlotte Democrat.

The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up head."—Concord Register.

The Wilmington STAR has entered its twenty-fifth volume. There is no better paper published in the State.—Lenoir Topic.

The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its thirteenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gazette.

The Wilmington STAR has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight.

The Wilmington STAR is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typographical appearance cannot be beaten.—Jackson Reporter.

The Wilmington STAR is one of the very best papers in the South, in every department from typography up to editorial ability and independence. Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appeal.

The Wilmington (N. C.) MORNING STAR is a model newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggerate its merits when we say it is the newviest (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond (Va.) Religious Herald.

The Wilmington STAR has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it.—Tarboro Southerner.

We like the STAR because it is thoroughly reliable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited, newsy, spicy, and in fact a perfect newspaper. Long may the STAR twinkle.—Mt. Airy Visitor.

Although at the head of the press in this State in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magaitnde. May its lustre never wane.—The Free Will Baptist.

The STAR is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dailies in the South.—Robesonian.

That magnificent beaming STAR has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, erudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the paper surpasses them all.—Tarboro Southerner.

The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited, a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina journalism.—Charlotte Observer.

The Wilmington STAR is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter. The STAR is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlotte Observer.

The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington STAR. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Fayetteville Times.

The Wilmington STAR, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.—Oxford Free Lance.

Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) STAR, the Washington Star, the Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all.—Richmond (Va.) State.

The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial department is conducted with much ability.—Morganton Blade.

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of fortune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the STAR has steadily "waxed" until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a newspaper it has few equals, and no superior, for appropriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most acceptable exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Wilmington MORNING STAR has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the STAR is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the STAR (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the STAR never be retarded, and may its genial enterprising proprietor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness.—Goldsboro Messenger.
