and to the point: 'We make our work known to man, our needs to God." No funds for the home, which is non-sectarian, have ever been solicited, he said.

Mr. Vogel's work has been widely publicized, however, in newspapers and magazines. And he, himself, has told the story in a full-length book, "This Happened in the Hills of Kentucky".

The stop here was due to a broken drive shaft.

It looked like it might be a long stop. For when he notified Burrell Motor Company, Mr. Vogel was told that a drive shaft for that particular bus wasn't available this side of the factory. That would have meant a wait of several days, or the expense of having the part flown here from the factory.

The folks at Burrell's, however, got in touch with the Franklin Machine Shop, and Ray Penland, told of the "family's" plight, dropped everything and made a drive shaft. In 24 hours the party was on the road again.

Mr. Vogel cited that as an example of the kindness and consideration he and "my children" received from everybody in Franklin. "People could not have been kinder", he said; I want to express my heart-felt appreciation."

Federation Picnic Set Saturday

East Franklin School will be the scene of the annual Farmers Federation picnic on Saturday.

The program will get under way at 10 a. m.

Special entertainment is on tap, including a one-man band, acrobats, singers, and the Federation string band, with the "Mimosa Boys".

Sack races, relay races, tugs-of-war and other contests also are slated following lunch. Prizes will be awarded the winners.

A prize of $10 will be awarded the best local entertainment. First and second prizes will be given for the largest truckloads attending the picnic.

Choirs, quartets, and singers will compete for prizes in the afternoon. Song books will be given the best choirs.

Short talks on farm practices, poultry, and livestock also are programmed during the day.

Tourists About Triple In June

Tourist registration at the Franklin Chamber of Commerce's information booth is almost tripling last year's.

A check of the registration book this week showed that 148 signed in during June. This is nearly three times the number (56) for June, 1955.

July also may set some records. By noon of the 6th, 41 had registered, indicating a trend that could beat all past monthly figures if it holds steady.

Activity at the Cowee Ruby Mines is responsible for the sharp increase in inquiries, according to Mrs. Lasca E. Horsley and Z. Weaver Shope, who run the booth. The chamber has mimeographed a fact-sheet on the ruby mines for distribution to visitors.

PICNIC AREA WORKING

Hickory Knoll community will work at the picnic area Saturday, it has been announced.

How Do You Worship GOD?

Ask that question of 100 people and you'll get 100 answers.

Episcopalians believe there's only one answer — you worship God as a part of a group of people meeting together on the Lord's Day and in His Church.

And we believe that the service of worship is something in which everyone should take part. That's why we Anglicans — 40,000,000 of us the world over — use "The Book of Common Prayer" (in whatever country it's used, it's in the language of the country) so that we may all take part in the service.

We're convinced that when we worship God in this way, we'll be the better able to carry that worship of God out into our everyday lives in the world in which we live and work.

The teaching of the Episcopal Church is practical, workable, down to earth — a religious approach that helps you to use Christianity to meet the problems of every day living. We find in the Church and its Sacraments a source of strength and comfort beyond words to describe.

Wouldn't you like to know more about it? Visit the Episcopal Church near you — soon. You'll find a friendly welcome.
