FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

[VOL. XII.] FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., SEPTEMBER 4, 1862. [NO. 1157.]

PRINTED MONDAYS AND THURSDAYS.

EDWARD J. HALE & SONS,
EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

Price for the Semi-Weekly OBSERVER $3 00 if paid in advance; $3 50 if paid during the year of subscription; or $4 after the year has expired.

For the Weekly OBSERVER $2 00 per annum, if paid in advance; $2 50 if paid during the year of subscription; or $3 00 after the year has expired.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS inserted for 60 cents per square of 16 lines for the first, and 30 cents for each succeeding publication. Yearly advertisements by special contracts, at reasonable rates. Advertisers are requested to state the number of insertions desired, or they will be continued till forbid, and charged accordingly.

Advertisements to be inserted inside, charged 50 per cent extra.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

From and after this date, no name of a new subscriber will be entered without payment in advance, nor will the paper be sent to such subscribers for a longer time than is paid for.

Such of our old subscribers as desire to take the paper on this system will please notify us when making remittances. Jan'y 1, 1858.

☞ TO ADVERTISERS.

Persons out of town who desire advertisements inserted in the Observer, and persons in town with whom we have not regular accounts, will please send with the advertisement as much money as they wish to invest in it, according to our advertising rates on the first page. We do not wish to open any more such accounts,—or indeed any accounts. The process of collection is too difficult, and we have to pay cash for every thing we use or sell in these times.

Oct. 2, 1861.

OBITUARY NOTICES.—We have heretofore given notice repeatedly, that we charge for obituary notices of unreasonable length, and for resolutions of respect; because that kind of reading, we have much occasion to know, is not often more agreeable to readers than to editors of papers. As it generally happens, however, that after charging and paying postage on the account forwarded, we never get paid, we now give notice that we will insert nothing of the sort hereafter unless accompanied by the cash. (Always excepting in the case of deceased volunteers, when we require no pay.) Bear in mind, therefore, that we will insert obituary notices and resolutions, not exceeding 70 words, gratis. For all over 70 words, one cent a word, which must be paid before the notice will be put in type.

The last Conscription Orders.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
ADJ'T AND INSP'R GEN'S OFFICE,
Richmond, Aug. 19, 1862.

GENERAL ORDERS }
No. 58. }

1. The following rules in relation to the examination of conscripts are published for the guidance of the enrolling and medical examining officers:

1. At each Camp of Instruction, and at such Military Stations and other points as may be designated, an experienced Army Surgeon, from a different section of the country, will be detailed to examine Conscripts.

2. All Conscripts capable of bearing arms will be received.

3. Conscripts not equal to all military duty may be valuable in the Hospitals, Quartermaster's or other Staff Departments, and if so, will be received.

4. Blindness, excessive deafness, and permanent lameness or great deformity, are obvious reasons for exemption.

5. Confirmed consumption, large, incurable ulcers, and chronic contagious diseases of the skin, are causes for exemption.

6. Single reducible hernia, the loss of an eye or of several fingers, will not incapacitate the subject for the performance of military duty.

7. A certificate of disability of a conscript given by a private physician, will not be considered unless affidavit is made that the conscript is confined to bed, or that his health and life would be endangered by removal to the place of enrollment.

8. But when a Conscript is incapacitated by temporary sickness, he must present himself so soon as recovered to the enrolling officer, or to the nearest School for Conscripts.

9. No previous discharge, certificate or exemption from any source will be acknowledged.

10. Medical Officers of the Army are not allowed to examine Conscripts, and give certificates, unless they are regularly detailed for that duty.

By command of the Secretary of War.

WEST POINT SOLDIERS.

The following particulars of the history of prominent officers of the Confederate and United States, graduates at the Military Academy at West Point, are believed to be reliable. Up to 1850, the facts stated are taken from the Register of that institution, compiled in that year. A short explanation will enable the reader to understand the statements.

Each cadet after graduating is entitled to the rank of 2d Lieutenant, his commission bearing date according to his proficiency in his studies, in drill, &c. The discipline and standard of scholarship are very high, as may be inferred from the fact that, on an average, about two-thirds of the cadets who enter the Academy are dropped in the four years' course, from ill health, bad conduct, laziness or inability to keep pace with their more able classmates, leaving about one-third only to finish their course and attain the rank of 2d Lieutenant in the regular army. A graduate attaining high distinction in his class, must possess not only fine mental endowments, but physical dexterity and vigor, and habits of punctuality. The numbers in the subjoined compilation denote the respective class rank—No 1 being highest, No. 2 next, and so on; the first five being regarded as peculiarly distinguished, while those having lower numbers must be highly accomplished officers—much more thoroughly educated than are usually the graduates of other Colleges. The class rank was adopted in 1818. It is interesting to notice in what cases "age has performed the promises of youth."
