"We Shall Meet but We Shall Miss Him."

AIR—The Vacant Chair.

AS SUNG AT THE NEWBERN CONCERT, MAY 8TH.

We shall meet but we shall miss him,
There will be one absent form;
One that oft to glory led us—
Through the deadly battle storm.
'Tis but three short years we number
Since our hearts were beating high,
But alas! in ceaseless slumber;
All our hopes with Jackson lie.
We shall meet but we shall miss him,
There will be one dreary void;
For the hopes we fondly cherished,
Are for evermore destroyed.

At our firesides, sad and lonely,
Often will the bosom swell
As we listen to the story
How our noble Chieftain fell—
How he bravely bore our banner,
Through the fiercest of the fight,
To uphold our Southern honor,
In the cause of Truth and Right!
We shall meet but we shall miss him,
We shall for our loved one weep,
As we bend in silent sorrow,
O'er the grave where Stonewall sleeps.

True, they tell us wreaths of glory
Evermore will deck his brow;
But this soothes the anguish only
Sweeping o'er our heart-strings now;
And though Fame, in future ages,
May enshrine him where he fell,
No surcease our heart assuages,
For his fall became our knell.
We shall meet, but we shall miss him,
Ever miss our fallen brave;
While we grieve in mournful silence,
O'er the cause he died to save.

Well Employed.

MRS. GENERAL RANSOM.—This lady, the wife of the gallant General Robert Ransom, of North Carolina, will this fall open in Wilmington, North Carolina, a first class Seminary for young ladies. She has secured the services of a corps of able and experienced Southern teachers.

Neither wife nor daughter of any Southern man, however distinguished his name, could be more honorably employed. Gen. LEE, the most illustrious of them all, is at the head of an institution for the education of boys. And who would have him anywhere else? Where could he be more useful than in a position to impress the grandeur of his character daily upon hundreds of young men preparing to go out into the world, and fix in their minds, by personal intercourse, a standard of excellence, which each may strive to approach in the formation of his own character.

How well it would be if thousands of those who served under and idolize him would follow his example by becoming instructors of the ignorant youth of our Southern land. The seperate benefit to themselves in the improvement of their own minds, in many cases would not be small, while the aggregate result of advantage to others would be incalculable. The consciousness of being engaged in a noble and philanthropic work could not be otherwise than elevating and ennobling to the character. Why, even the poor scarred and maimed Mississippi soldier mentioned in the last Floridian, as engaged in teaching a school of colored children, thus making an honest livelihood, and at the same time doing something to dispel from their minds a darkness more deplorable than that of their skins; sowing good seed, where, but for him, an enemy would probably be sowing tares; carrying on his work amid prejudices which even threaten to break out in deeds of violence; can the reader fail to see in his conduct a heroism equal to any exhibited by him in fighting on the battle field?

In our poor judgment, Gen. LEE's whole life shows nothing more truly noble than his acceptance of the position which he now holds.—Tallahasse Floridian.

RAILROAD SIGNALS.—Those who travel on the cars, or who witness the movement of the trains, and the men who operate the roads, may desire to know the signals used everywhere on the roads. She signals are given by the whistle, lanterns, flags, and motion of the arms. Their signification is:

One whistle—"Down brakes."
Two whistles—"Off brakes."
Three whistles—"Back up."

A rapid succession of short whistles is the cattle alarm, at which the brakes will always be put down.

A sweeping parting of hands on level of eyes is the signal to "go ahead."

A downward motion of one hand, with extended arms, "to stop."

A beckoning motion of one hand, "to back."

A lantern raised and lowered vertically is a signal for "starting;" swung at right angles, or crosswise the track, "to stop;" swung in circle, "back the train."

A red flag waved up the track must be regarded as a signal of danger. So with other signals given with energy.

Hoisted at a station is a signal for a train to stop.

Stuck up by the roadside is a signal of danger on the track ahead.

Carried unfurled upon the engine is a warning that another engine or train is on its way.

We do not understand the taste on the part of our northern cotemporaries which dotes whole columns to the details of the murder in Philadelphia,—of a courtesan by a blackguard. The thing is natural enough to such a class of life, and all that is needed is to hang the murderer.

The most extraordinary instance of pence on record, in modern times, is that of an Indiana judge, who listened for two days while a mimic of wordy attorneys were contending as to the construction of an Act of the Legislature, and then ended by quietly remarking: "Gentlemen, the law is repealed."

There was a tournament at Huntsville Ala., lately, and as the "Knight of the Gory Locket" was passing down the street, the militia cut off his buttons for him. The operah was quietly submitted to.

DAGUERREOTYPE LOST.

MRS. THOMAS BRANCH, late of this city, but now of Richmond, about the time she removed from this city, lost a daguerreotype of an aged friend, which she values very highly. It represents an old man, with white hair, with a pair of spectacles in his hand and pointing to a small clock. The case is worn and has been mended.

She authorizes us to offer TWENTY DOLLARS reward for the recovery of said daguerreotype.

The Editors of the Sentinel will pay the reward, to any one who will deliver them the daguerreotype.

PROSPECTUS.

This company owns by warranty title nearly fourteen thousand acres of mineral lands, situated in the counties of Chatham, Moore, Rockingham and Stokes, on the waters of Deep and Dan Rivers, in North Carolina, which abound in plentiful deposits of coal, copper, iron, salt, and, there is every reason to believe from general and surface indications, petroleum or coal oil.

The services of two practical and efficient men, experienced in boring for oil, and stimulated by a long course of success in Venango county, Pennsylvania, were secured by the company several months since and they are now on the lands, with the requisite force, tools, steam engine and machinery, boring a well with very flattering prospects of success. The organization of this company effected some time since has now been perfected in legal form, by act of incorporation, with a capital of $500,000, divided into 100,000 shares of $5 each.

By reference to the valuable and laborious reports of Prof. Emmons, State Geologist, and Commodore Wilkes, U. S. Navy, every one interested will be enabled to judge of the value of the large area of territory secured by the North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Co.

It is well known that a superior article of bituminous coal is now being mined in the Deep river coal region, where a portion of the lands are situated, and this company owns property known to be equal if not superior to any on which shafts have been sunk. Copper, iron and salt also abound, and the attention of capitalists has already been directed to this section on account of its value for the above minerals.

Below are given a few extracts from the journals showing that there is no good reason why there should not be as large quantities of oil in the "Old North State" as in other States.

Oil has been struck in Overton county, Tennessee, on the north line of that State, about midway from its eastern border, eighteen miles from the Cumberland mountains.—Christian (Richmond) Observer.

OIL WELLS IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The Parkersburg Times gives an astonishing statement of the yield of wells in the region thereabout, consisting of Wood, Wirt, Ritchie and other counties, viz: Burning Springs, 2,500 barrels per day; White Oak, 1,500; Lick Run, 300; Horse Neck, 150; and of the several wells on Hughes river, 6,000 barrels per day. The quality is said to be remarkably fine. The Times considers the oil of West Virginia the best yet discovered.

THE OIL EXCITEMENT IN ILLINOIS.—The oil excitement in Clark county is still high. Some eight or ten derricks are up and at work. The deepest well is only 325 feet, with a fair yield of oil. Some of the other wells have struck oil and gas at from 70 to 100 feet.—Much time and money will be spent this summer in the thorough development of the oil resources of Clark county. Men of capital and experience seem confident that oil will be found in large quantities, and are willing to test their faith by a free expenditure in developing the lands. The first company who bored on the land of Hon. T. R. Young, are now engaged in trying to raise the auger which was lost last fall. The Eastern Illinois Company will begin work in a few days twelve miles southwest of the first well. The prospect in that locality is good.—Chicago Tribune.

It is known that after a few months boring in the vicinity of Lynchburg, a large vein of oil was struck and a productive well is now in successful operation. This is on the same line with, and about 30 miles from, the company's first well on Dan River, where the indications both general and particular are similar.

In order to have sufficient means to develop this valuable property in such a manner as to insure success, the Directors have authorized 10,000 shares of the capital stock to be sold to raise a working capital, and subscriptions for that number or any part thereof will be received.

An uncommonly favorable opportunity for investment is thus afforded, as those who choose to buy stock under this offer will have the advantage of an equal footing with the original corporators in an enterprise which, after the example of the immense profits realized in those of a similar character in other States, though in many respects on less favorable conditions than this, (compare the extent, cheapness and fee simple title of the basis of operations here offered) gives reasonable assurance of the most lucrative results. In many instances in sections of less favorable oil localities, shares have advanced in a few days from $2 or $5 to $20 and even $50, and poor men who made small investments realized fortunes.

Further information may be had at the office of the company, one door north of the Court House, Greensboro, N. C., where books of subscription are now open.

By order of the Directors.

A. G. BRENIZER, Secretary.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to war ant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals incubated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. The property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by E. E. Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.
