Create A Winning Turkey Recipe

By BARBARA A. MINTER

It is easy to enter the North Carolina Turkey Cooking Contest. To begin with, all you have to do is find or create a winning recipe using any turkey part or parts other than the whole bird. The recipe should serve from 4 to 8 people and may include any garnish you would like to add. An official entry blank is not required. Just write your name, address and telephone number on the front of your recipe.

There are a few rules you will need to follow in order to qualify for this event. First, you must be a resident of North Carolina during the time of the contest. Second, entries must be postmarked no later than July 15. Thirdly, the entire preparation and cooking time should not exceed 3 hours.

The recipes will be judged equally on flavor, simplicity, appeal, and appearance. Prizes will include: $500 first place, $250 second place, and $100 for third, fourth and fifth places. To enter your recipes, mail to: Turkey Contest, N. C. Turkey Federation, P. O. Box 2431, Raleigh, North Carolina 27602.

Turkey is great for eating year round. It is economical, high in protein, and low in fat content, calories and cholesterol. The North Carolina Department of Agriculture, and the North Carolina Turkey Federation extend an invitation to you to enter your recipes and enjoy eating turkey in a variety of ways.

TURKEY & MARACONI SALAD

4 c. cooked elbow macaroni
2 c. chopped turkey
½ c. diced cheddar cheese
½ c. coarsely chopped cucumber
½ c. quartered radishes
1/4 c. sliced green onion
½ c. chopped green pepper
3/4 c. mayonnaise
½ c. bottled Italian dressing
Salt - pepper

In large bowl, combine all ingredients; toss lightly. Chill 6 hours or more.

CAROLINA TURKEY PIE

4 c. cooked turkey, cubed
1 can cream of celery soup
2 c. turkey broth
3/4 c. self-rising corn meal
1 c. self-rising flour
½ tsp. poultry seasoning
½ tsp. pepper
1 tsp. sage
2 Tbsp. onion, chopped
1½ c. milk or buttermilk
½ c. margarine, melted

Grease a 13x9 inch casserole. Place turkey in prepared dish. Cobmine soup and broth in a saucepan and bring to a boil. Pour over turkey pieces. Mix dry ingredients; add onion, milk and margarine. Combine well and pour over turkey mixture. Bake at 425 degrees fro 25 minutes until well browned. Serves 8.

HOT TURKEY SANDWICHES

2-3 c. cooked & diced turkey
½ c. chopped celery
1 c. shredded cheddar cheese
1 c. unpeeled - diced apple
½ c. mayonnaise or salad dressing
1 Tbsp. lemon juice
1 tsp. curry powder
Dash salt
1/8 tsp. pepper
8 French loaves or 1 French loaf

Mix together all ingredients except the French loaves. Cut the top off the French loaves.

Take out bread from the middle of loaves. Fill with turkey salad and put top back on loaves. Wrap loaves in foil and place on grill. Leave on grill until loaves are heated through — approximately 15 to 20 minutes — turning frequently. Loaves may be baked in the oven at 350° until heated through. Yield: 8 sandwiches.

Wisher, Harris Vows Said

Debra Hall Wisher of Waynesville and Paul Andrew Harris of Sylva were married Saturday afternoon at the Sylva First United Methodist Church by the Rev. Joe C. Davis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Bryce Hall of Leicester. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Jean Harris of Sylva and the late Frank Harris.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Donna Hall of Canton served as the matron of honor. Terry Hall of Leicester was the bridesmaid.

Debbie Williamson and Jennifer Schutters provided music during the ceremony.

Dave Spaulding of Houston, Texas was the best man. and Robert Johnson, Jr. of St. Petersburg, Fla, was the groomsman.

Christopher and Katherine Serzan served as the junior attendants.

Sherri Moses directed the wedding service.

The bride is a graduate of Western Carolina University with a B.S. degree in medical records administration. She is employed as the director of medical records at Haywood County Hospital.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Florida State University with a B.S. degree in business administration. He is a business consultant with the Center for Improved Mountain Living at Western Carolina University.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the Asbury Room of the church. Connie Newsome attended the bride's register and Beverly Williams, Nancy Bumgarner and Ann Marie Montgomery served as hostesses at the reception.

Following a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will make their home in the Bethel community of Haywood County.

4-H'ers Give Demonstration

By PAM CROWHURST

Madison County 4-H'ers participated in a demonstration contest at the Senior Citizen Center in Marshall on Friday.

Kirby Boone placed first in the junior horse category with a horse shoeing demonstration. ALlen Lamberson presented a fiberglass working demonstration and won in the wood-working category.

Randy Riddle was the first place winner in safety with a demonstration of first aid kits and Tara Breedlove presented a demonstration in preparing peanut burst cookies.

In other 4-H news, the Madison County ×-H Horticultural team finished third in the district horticulture contest held Saturday at the Farmers' Market in Asheville. Randy Riddle, Elizabeth McBride and Lana Pack represented Madison County at the competition.

On Sunday, some 25 Madison County 4-H'ers and their leaders took part in the second day of the stream clean-up along the French Broad River. Carolina Wilderness Adventures sponsored a boat trip for the clean-up crews.

Deadline For CD

Young people throughout Western North Carolina will be recognized for outstanding horticultural projects carried out during 1984, according to Woody Cumbo of the horticulture department at Haywood Technical College and chairman of the Horticultural Crops Commission of the Western North Carolina Development Association.

Deadline for entries in the contest is July 1. Preregistration is required in order for projects to be judged. Judging will be based upon both field inspections of projects and examination of the official record books maintained by entrants.

Cash awards totaling $450 will be presented at an awards banquet in early December to winners of the two contests. First prize in both the annuals and perennials competition will be $100, with second prize of $50, third prize of $25 and five honorable mentions in each contest at $10 each.
