THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. Editors.

Friday Evening, Dec. 21, 1866.

Are They Safe?

Mr. Sumner, of the U. S. Senate a short time ago, in conversation with a gentleman from this State, asked the question, "Is it safe to travel in North Carolina?" The reply was, "Yes sir, as safe as it is in Massachusetts." "Well, sir," said Mr. Sumner, "I have very different information from that State. Last night I received letters from Raleigh and Newbern, which represent a most awful state of lawlessness and insecurity there." The North Carolina gentleman assured him, his information was incorrect, and that to his personal knowledge, Raleigh was as quiet and well governed a community as any in the Union. We gathered this in a casual conversation and state it from memory.

It is in this way that North Carolina and the South are constantly misrepresented. Throughout the South, this systematic defamation is carried on, in many cases by natives, and members of Congress are kept in constant excitement by the most false and base slanders of the South, by men who dare not attempt to make good their statments by facts.

There are cases of burglary, theft, horse stealing and murder in this State. But in four-fifths of the cases which occur, they are committed by freedmen, many of whom having been discharged from the army, are lurking about without employment. Perhaps one-fifth of them are committed by lawless white men, who were in the late war in both armies, and who have no means of support. All of these parties are emboldened in their acts by the presence of the Freedmen's Bureau, which the blacks suppose will protect them in any acts of lawlessness committed upon the "rebels." We believe that the presence of the military in the State, though by no means designed to effect that result, is the chief cause why these disorders occur. We feel confident if the military was removed, the State government could effectually suppress them entirely. Yet, after all, the number of these disorders do not equal those occurring in the Northern States.

Our Commissioners.

Gov. Worth, Judge Ruffin and Gov. Swain returned from Washington City last night to this city, having accomplished their mission, entirely to their satisfaction. They speak in high terms of the courtesy and promptness of the President, and his readiness to execute with fidelity his obligations to the entire country.—Their intercourse with the officials of the government and leading members of Congress, was entirely courteous and pleasant, and they return with the hope, mingled with much anxiety, that coming events will not be as direful and destructive to the peace and welfare of the South, as recent developements have led our people to fear.

Let the people be firm to their purpose, to obey the laws, respect all in authority, and reverence the government. Let them avoid all clamor and contention with those who differ with them in political sentiment. Above all, let them study to be industrious and devoted to their material interests, carefully avoiding needless expenditure.

Mr. Holden and the President.

We learn that since Mr. Holden's return from Washington, he was asked if he saw the President while there? His reply was No! Mr. Holden is entitled to credit for his answer.—We have no doubt he spoke the truth. How could he look President Johnson in the face after what he has done? How could he dare to propose to see President Johnson after he had said, according to the New York Times correspondent, that, "they, the Holdenites, "are now discouraged and paralized, because the President would boldly deliver them over to degradation, increased on account of their adherence to the Union, in the dark days of treason and blood." Was there ever a greater perversion of the truth?

A Word to Congress.

The people of North Carolina fear no investigation. We are ready to abide the decisions of truth and justice. We call upon the Congress to send a Committee of its own members of both Houses, to North Carolina, with power to send for persons and papers, to investigate the false charges made by unworthy sons of the State, at Washington and other places. We want Mr. Holden, Mr. Pool, Mr. Harris, Mr. Jenkins, and others, put to the test, on the Holy Evangelists, whereof they affirm of the people of North Carolina. Let us have the investigation.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY AT WELDON—ROBBER CAUGHT.—Some time ago the warehouse of the Wilmington and Weldon R. R., at Weldon, was robbed of goods to the amount of $1,000 to $1,300. The watchman failing to give a good account of himself, was dismissed, and no trace could be found of the theft. An honest man, Mr. James Allen, was appointed watchman. Some time after a proposition was made to him to become a party to a second robbery. In order to catch the thief, he consented, and last Monday night was agreed upon as the time to effect it. Mr. Allen communicated with about twenty citizens of Weldon, who on that night distributed themselves about in the warehouse and awaited the arrival of the thief. He came at the appointed time, accompanied by a freedman. The watchman told him all was right. He went to the window where he intended to make the entrance, but heard some moving and told the watchman he thought there was some one in the warehouse. The watchman affected to manifest that there were two of the hands in, opened the door and told two of the gentlemen to leave. Every thing becoming still again, the thief at once, by the aid of his tools, entered the window and the negro followed, and examined the place. It was not long before the parties inside seized both of them and found the white man to be the Postmaster at Gaston, Mr. Pittam, a Northern man. They were next day sent to Jail at Jackson, Northampton county, N. C. The above facts were communicated to the Petersburg Index.

The question being on the substitute offered by the committee, it was amended, and the substitute, with the report of the committee, was adopted by a vote of 42 to 1. Mr. Harris, of Rutherford, voting in the negative.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The bill to repeal an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to exchange the stock of the State for bonds," was taken up and discussed at considerable length. Messrs. Leach, Wilson and Love urged its passage, and Mr. Berry opposed it. The bill passed by a vote of 34 to 6.

A message was received from the House transmitting a resolution in favor of the Sheriffs of Onslow, Moore, Cumberland, Caswell, Wayne, and Northampton Counties, and on motion of Mr. Edwards, the rules were suspended and the resolution passed its several readings. Leave of absence was granted to Mr. Williams, Senator from Sampson.

On motion of Mr. Hall, the Senate adjourned until to night 7½ o'clock.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

FRIDAY, Dec. 21st, 1866.

The House was called to order at 10½ A. M.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Sundry reports were made from standing committees.

Among these, was a report made by Mr. Waugh, from the committee on Propositions and Grievances, adverse to the bill proposing the establishment of a new county by the name of Vance, to be formed of a portion of Cherokee county.

Mr. Harper introduced a resolution authorizing the Committee on Finance to burn old Coupons and Treasury notes in the Comptroller's office. Adopted.

Mr. Brown introduced a resolution to extend the time for the return of taxes for the county of Lincoln. The rules were suspended and this resolution passed its several readings.

The consideration of the special order; viz: the bill to regulate assignments and to protect creditors, was postponed until the next session.

A resolution for the relief of the people of Stanly county—proposing to loan $3000, to said county from the Public Treasury, passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. McKay introduced a resolution extending the time for the return of State taxes from the county of Cumberland.

This resolution was amended by extending like indulgence to the Sheriffs of Northampton, Onslow, Wayne, Moore and Caswell, and then passed its several readings (in relation to Caswell county, Mr. Bowe stated that the State tax had already been paid in. The indulgence desired for his Sheriff was only as to county taxes.)

A resolution for the relief of the people of Union county—loaning said county $3000, from the State Treasury. Passed its several readings.

Mr. Davis introduced a resolution authorizing the Governor to extend the provisions of the act granting Amnesty and pardon for offences committed during the war. Adopted, and sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. Davis, from the Judiciary Committee, submitted the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

"The Judiciary Committee, to which was referred a resolution instructing them to request the member from Henderson, to appear before them and furnish the facts on which he based allegations of the partial administration of justice and of the persecution of Union men, to the end that the persons or authorities guilty of such persecutions may be punished, have discharged the duty devolved on them by the resolution and submit the following report:

Mr. Blythe, the gentlemen referred to in the resolution, authorizes the Committee to say that he meant no reflection upon the Judiciary, or the courts of the State, and that he was misunderstood, if any gentleman supposed that he intended to charge or allege that there was a partial administration of justice in North Carolina, or that Union men were persecuted by the courts. There was a great deal of crimination and recrimination, and in saying that Union men had been persecuted, he merely meant to say that those in favor of the Howard Amendment had been slandered, and abused, and stigmatized as being in favor of Negro Suffrage and Negro Equality."

The committee are well satisfied, from their own knowledge, and from their investigations, that justice is fairly and impartially administered in the Courts of North Carolina, and that no Legislation, such as is contemplated in the resolution, is necessary.

It is due to Mr. Harris, the Senator from Rutherford, to state, that at his request, and with the consent of the Committe, his testimony was withdrawn, and that he disclaimed "any connection with the charges and insinuations contained in one of the papers of this city," against the Judiciary Committee.

Respectfully submitted,
JOS. J. DAVIS,
for the Committee.

An engrossed bill for the support of the Insane Asylum, passed its several readings.

A bill transferring to the University, the Land Scrip donated to North Carolina for the establishment of an Agricultural College, was put on its second reading.

Mr. Davis addressed the House in support of the bill.

Mr. Foard said that the scrip was already in possession of the State, and that all was necessary to secure it, was to sell it. There were bids for it already.

He was not opposed to the University, but was opposed to a diversion of this fund from the objects for which it was originally intended.

Mr. Peebles stated that the scrip was merely an Endowment fund, and could not be touched for the erection of buildings. He urged the passage of the bill.

Messrs. McNair, Kenan, McClammy, Waugh, Long, Hutchison and Morehead advocated the bill.

Messrs. Russ, Boyd, Everett and Foard opposed the bill.

Mr. Foard offered an amendment, providing that the University shall after receiving said donation annually receive, instruct, and board one beneficiary from each county of the State, to be recommended by the several county courts.

This amendment was rejected after discussion, and on motion of Mr. Durham, further consideration of the bill was postponed until next session.

Mr. Whitfield, (who has been detained from his seat by sickness) obtained leave to record his name in favor of the resolution rejecting the Howard Amendment.

A message was received from the Governor reporting the success of the Commissioners to Washington City in procuring the abrogation of the Military order, prohibiting the infliction of corporeal punishment by courts of the State.

Mr. Kenan introduced a resolution of thanks to Gov. Worth and his associate Commissioners.

Mr. Waugh offered a substitute for this resolution, (which was accepted by Mr. Kenan) providing for paying the expenses of the Commission.

Passed its several readings.

A bill to change the jurisdiction of the courts and the rules of pleading therein, passed its second reading.

The rules were suspended, and the bill was put on its third reading.

The bill was amended, on motion of Mr. Crawford, of Macon, by striking out the words "before the 20th of May 1161" and substituting the "1st of May 1865."

The effect of this amendment is to stay judgment, and execution as to debts contracted during the war.

Mr. Black offered as a substitute for the bill, "a bill to prevent litigation and the ruinous sacrifice of the property of honest debtors.—(This was a Senate bill introduced by Matthews of Stokes.)

Mr. Black addressed the House at length in support of the amendment. The question recurring, it was rejected.

Mr. Long opposed the bill, deeming it unconstitutional and argued that the Legislature has no power to repeal the action of the Convention in the premises.

(Mr. L's remarks will appear hereafter.)

Mr. Waugh replied, defending the bill.

The question recurring, the bill passed its third reading, as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Allen, Ashworth, Blair, Blythe, Boyd, Bradsher, Bryson, Chadwick, Clements, Crawford, of Macon, Davidson, Durham, Foard, Galloway, Garrett, Garriss, Godwin, Granberry, Guess, Harper, Hinnant, Holderby, Horton, of Watauga, Horton, of Wilkes, Houston, Jenkins, of Gaston, Jenkins, of Granville, Jones, Jordan, Kelsey, Kenan, Kendall, Latham, of Craven, Lowe, Lyon, Lutterloh, Martin, McGongan, McKay, McRae, Morehead, Morton, Murrill, Neal, Peebles, Richardson, Rogers, Rountree, Russ, Scoggin, Scott, Shelton, Smith, of Guilford, Stone, Suddreth, Teull, Umstead, Vestal, Waugh, Whitfield, Wilson, of Perquimans, Williams, of Harnett, Williams, of Yancey, Womble—63.

The House concurred in Senate amendments to sundry private resolutions for the relief of Executors, and also passed a Senate resolution relative to the direct tax imposed by Congress for the year 1861. (Providing for testing its constitutionality in divers particulars.)

A message was received from the Senate transmitting a substitute for the resolutions asserting the loyalty of the State, denying alleged persecution of Union men, etc.

The House adopted the substitute, yeas 64, nays 6.

Mr. Davis introduced a resolution authorizing the issue of a writ of election to Warren County, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Judkins.

Resolutions from the Senate to continue unfinished business to the next session; in favor of Sheriff holding elections for the ratification or rejection of the Constitution; in favor of the Sheriffs of Randolph, Yadkin and Bertie counties. Passed their several readings.

A bill to allow fees to magistrates and increase those of constables in Mecklenburg county. Passed its several readings.

Mr. Holderby introduced a resolution in favor of the relief of the late Thos. L. Judkins, which passed its several readings.

Mr. Durham entered a motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill transferring the Land Scrip to the University had been postponed. He did this, at the request of friends of the bill, though opposed to the bill himself.

The House adjourned until 10½ o'clock tomorrow.
