RECONSTRUCTION.

ORDER OF GENERAL POPE PROVIDING FOR THE REGISTRATION OF VOTERS.

The Alabama papers of April 11 contain General Order No. 5, of Major General Pope, dated at Montgomery, April 8. After setting forth the provisions of the Reconstruction law, and the oath required to be taken by voters, the order says:—

In order to execute the provisions of the act referred to with as little delay as possible, the commanding officers of the Districts of Alabama, Georgia and Florida will proceed immediately to divide those States into convenient Districts, for registration, aided by such information on the subject as they have or can obtain. It is suggested that the election districts in each State which in 1860 sent a member to the most numerous branch of the State Legislature, will be found a convenient division for registration. It is desirable that in all cases the registers should be civilians, where it is possible to obtain such, as men within the provisions of the act, and are otherwise suitable persons; and that military officers shall not be used for this purpose except in case of actual necessity. The compensation for registers will be fixed hereafter, but the general rule will be adopted of graduating the compensation by the number of recorded voters. The checklist of voters shall be upended the oath of the Register or Registers that the names have been faithfully recorded, and represent actual legal voters, and that the same has not appear under different names. The Registers are specifically instructed to see that all persons not disqualified by the political rights bill are enrolled persons entitled to vote under the act of Congress, and that they are made responsible that every such legal voter has the opportunity to record his name.

As speedily as possible the names of persons chosen for Registers shall be communicated to these Headquarters for the approval of the Commanding General.

The District Commander in each of the States comprised in this Military District is authorized to appoint one or more general supervisors of Registration, whose business it shall be to visit the various points where registration is being carried on; to inspect the operations of the Registers, and to assure themselves that every person entitled to vote has the necessary information concerning his political rights, and the opportunity to record his name.

A general Inspector, either an officer of the army or a civilian, will be appointed at these Headquarters, to see that the provisions of these orders are carefully executed.

District Commanders may at their discretion, appoint civil officers of the United States as Registers, with such additional compensation as may seem reasonable and sufficient.

The Commanding Officer of each District will give public notice when and where the Registers will commence the registration, which notice will be kept public by the Registers in each District during the whole time occupied in registration.

Interference by violence, or threats of violence, or other oppressive means, to prevent the registration of any voter, is positively prohibited; and any person guilty of such interference shall be arrested and tried by the military authorities.

By command of Brevet Major General John Pope.

THE DEATH OF DR. LIVINGSTONE.—It is no longer doubtful that the celebrated explorer of Africa is dead. An official confirmation of the original report has been received at the British Foreign Office. On the eighteenth of May last, a dispatch from him, dated at Ngomasa, stated, that the Zulus had been spreading ruin round about him at that region. His escort, by desertions and other causes, was there reduced to twenty men. The point he had arrived at was Kampunda, on the Northwestern shore of Lake Nyassa.—Between Mareuga, and Makloworo he was set upon by people, some of whom were armed with bows and arrows and others with shields, spears and axes. Livingstone fired—killed two Zulus, and in the smoke was swept down by the tide of savages.—The blow of an assegaye from behind him killed him outright. The fearful weapon went through the neck and spine up to the throat in front. Instant death ensued.—The enemy respected him when dead and he was buried after the manner of the country. Thus has perished, unfortunately for science, one of the most valuable and venturous spirits. No man in our time had been more useful in unfolding the mysteries attached to the distant and unexplored regions of Africa. His labors must always be gratefully acknowledged, because he was a pioneer into regions destined to be opened hereafter not so much by individual enterprise as by the commissions of governments. The British government, in the matter of inquiries respecting the loss of so valuable a life, may with safety continue the explorations in Africa.

"OUR BRAVE DEFENDERS."

It is a curious fact that the Senate cuts down in the most remorseless manner officers of the United States army. The nominations sent in by Mr. Johnson, for the [illegible] names of men distinguished for good conduct in the late war, and yet, notwithstanding their record, their heads fall in the basket and the majority still swings its inexorable axe over the remains of soldiers who fought for the Union.

THE SOUTHERN OWNERS ASSOCIATION.—We have been for several weeks advertised of a Gift Concert to be held in Baltimore, under the auspices of an association having for its object the providing of an asylum for the orphans of Confederate soldiers. The agents in Baltimore have lately been subject to inconvenience and arrest, and the public press has added in many instances to produce a bad impression as to the reliability of the concern, and its honest intentions. Our belief is that the enterprise is a legitimate one, that its managers may be trusted, and that its ends will be secured. Certainly Mr. Palmer's large dealings with Southern planters have been marked by correctness.—Norfolk Journal.

The Paris horse-car lines sell about eight hundred a week now, and expect during the exposition to double that number.

IMPORTANT ORDER BY GENERAL SICKLES.

HEAD'QRS, SECOND MILITARY DIST., Charleston, S. C., April 11, 1867.

The general destitution prevailing among the population of this military district cannot be relieved without affording means for the development of their industrial resources. The nature and extent of the destitution demand extraordinary measures. The people are borne down by a heavy burden of debt; the crops of grain and garden produce failed last year; many families have been deprived of shelter, many more need food and clothing; needful implements and auxiliaries of husbandry are very scarce; the laboring population in numerous localities are threatened with starvation unless supplied with food, by the government of the United States; the inability of a large portion of the people to pay taxes leaves the local authorities without adequate means of relief, and the gravity of the situation is increased by the general disposition shown by creditors to enforce upon an impoverished people the immediate collection of all claims. To suffer all this to go on without restraint or remedy is to sacrifice the general good. The rights of creditors shall be respected, but the appeal of want and suffering must be heeded. Moved by these considerations, the following regulations are announced, and they will continue in force, with such modification as the occasion may require, until the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the requirements of the government of the United States. The Commanding General earnestly desires and confidently believes that the observance of these regulations, and the co-operation of all persons concerned in employing fairly and justly the advantages still remaining to them, will mitigate the distress now existing, and that the avenues of industry, enterprise and organization thus opened will contribute to the permanent welfare and future happiness of the people:—

First—Imprisonment for debt is prohibited, unless the defendant in execution shall be convicted of a fraudulent concealment or disposition of his property with intent to hinder, delay and prevent the creditor in the recovery of his debt on demand; and the proceedings now established in North and South Carolina respectively for the trial and determining of such questions may be adopted.

Second—Judgment or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising between the 19th of December, 1860, and the 15th of May, 1865, shall not be enforced by execution against the property or the person of the defendant. Proceedings in such causes of action now pending shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be hereafter instituted or commenced for any such causes of action.

Third—Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend for twelve calendar months the sale of all property upon execution or process on liabilities contracted prior to the 19th of December, 1860, unless upon the written consent of the defendants, except in cases where the plaintiff, or in his absence his agent or attorney, shall upon oath, with corroborative testimony, allege and prove that the defendant is moving or intends fraudulently to remove his property beyond the territorial jurisdiction of the court. The sale of real or personal property by foreclosure of mortgage is likewise suspended for twelve calendar months, except in cases where the payment of interest money accruing since the 15th day of May, 1865, shall not have been made before the day of sale.

Fourth—Judgments or decrees entered or enrolled on causes of action arising subsequent to the 15th of May, 1865, may be enforced by execution against the property of the defendant, and in the application of the money arising under such executions regard shall be had to the priority of liens, unless in cases where the good faith of any lien shall be found in question. In such cases, the usual mode of proceeding adopted in North and South Carolina respectively to determine that question shall be adopted.

Fifth—All proceedings for the recovery of money under contracts, whether under seal or by parole, the consideration for which was the purchase of negroes, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered or enrolled for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Sixth—All advances of moneys, subsistence, implements and fertilizers loaned, used, employed or required for the purpose of aiding the agricultural persons of the people shall be protected, and the existing laws which have provided the most efficient remedies in such cases for the lender will be supported and enforced. Wages for labor performed in the production of the crops shall be a lien on the crop, and payment of the amount due for such wages shall be enforced by the like remedies provided to secure advances of money and other means for the cultivation of the soil.

Seventh—In all sales of property and execution or by order of any court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family, dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances and twenty acres of land for the use and occupation of the family of the defendant, and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence, implements of trade, husbandry or other employment of the value of $300. The homestead exemption shall enure only to the benefit of families—that is to say, parent of parents and child or children—in other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing, implements of trade or other employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of $300. The exemption property of the defendant shall be ascertained by the Sheriff or other officer executing the execution, who shall specifically describe the same and make a report thereof in each case to the Court.

Eighth—The currency of the United States declared by the Congress of the United States to be a legal tender in the payment of all debts, dues and demands, shall be so recognized in North and South Carolina, and all cases in which the same shall be tendered in payment and refused by any public officer, will be at once reported to these headquarters, or to the commanding officer of the post within which such officer resides.

Ninth—Property of an absent debtor or one charged as such without fraud, whether consisting of money advanced for the purposes of agriculture or appliances for the cultivation of the soil, shall not be taken under the process known as foreign attachment; but the lien created by any existing law shall not be disturbed, nor shall the possession or the use of the same be in any wise interfered with except in the execution of a judgment or final decree in cases where they are authorized to be enforced.

Tenth—In suits to recover ordinary debts known as actions ex contractu, bail, as heretofore authorized, shall not be demanded by the suitor nor taken by the sheriff or other officer serving the process; in suits for trespass, libel, wrongful conversion of property and other cases, known as actions ex delicto, bail, as heretofore authorized, may be demanded and taken. The prohibition of bail in cases ex contractu shall not extend to parties about to leave the State; but the fact of intention must be clearly established by proof.

Eleventh—In criminal proceedings the usual recognizances shall be required and taken by the proper civil officers heretofore authorized by law to take the same, provided that upon complaint being made to any magistrate or other person authorized by law to issue a warrant for breach of the peace or any criminal offence, it shall be the duty of such magistrate or officer to issue his warrant on the recognizance of the complainant to prosecute without requiring him to give security on such recognizance.

Twelfth—The practice of carrying deadly weapons, except by officers and soldiers in the military service of the United States, is prohibited. The concealment of such weapons on the person will be deemed an aggravation of the offence. A violation of this order will render the offender amenable to trial and punishment by military commission. Whenever wounding or killing shall result from the use of such weapons, proof of the party carrying or concealing a deadly weapon shall be deemed evidence of a malicious attempt to take the life of the injured person.

Thirteenth—The order heretofore issued in this military department prohibiting the punishment of crimes and offences by whipping, maiming, branding, stocks, pillory or other corporal punishment, is in force and will be obeyed by all persons.

Fourteenth—The punishment of death in certain cases of burglary and larceny imposed by the existing laws of the provisional governments in this military district is abolished. Any person convicted of burglary or of larceny, when the property stolen is of the value of $25, of assault and battery with intent to kill, or of any assault with a deadly weapon, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and shall be punished by imprisonment at hard labor for a term not exceeding ten years nor less than two years, in the discretion of the court having jurisdiction thereof. Larceny, when the value thereof is less than $25, shall be punished by imprisonment at hard labor for a term not exceeding one year in the discretion of the court.

Fifteenth—The Governors of North and South Carolina shall have authority within their jurisdiction respectively to reprieve or pardon any person convicted and sentenced by a civil court and to remit fines and penalties.

Sixteenth—Nothing in this order shall be construed to restrain or prevent the operation of proceedings in bankruptcy in accordance with the acts of Congress in such cases made and provided for, with the collection of any tax, import, excise or charge levied by authority of the United States or of the provisional governments of North and South Carolina; but no imprisonment for over due taxes shall be allowed, nor shall this order or any law of the provisional governments of North and South Carolina operate to deny to minor children coming of age, or their legal representatives, nor to suspend as to them, any right of action, remedy or proceeding against executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, or other officers or persons holding a fiduciary relation to the parties or the subject matter of the action or proceeding.

Seventeenth—Any law or ordinance heretofore in force in North or South Carolina inconsistent with the provisions of this General Order is hereby suspended and declared inoperative.

By command of Major General D. E. SICKLES.
J. W. CLOUS, Captain Thirty-Eighth United States Infantry, A. D. C. and A. A. A. G.

ASTROLOGY.
THE WORLD ASTONISHED
AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS
MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,
Madame H. A. Perrigo.
She reveals secrets to mortal ever known! She labores to happiness, those who, from doubtful events, calculations, crosses in love, loss of friends and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, reviews past or shows prosperity, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person, reveals your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hitherto mysteries of the future. From the mere lines in the firmament—the majestic stars that overpower or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she produces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write giving the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair. Address,
