—I P—

Oh! How fine if I might play
A hurdy-gurdy all the day,
And after me, whith shouts and noise,
Have crowds of little girls and boys!

Oh! What fun if I possessed
A monkey all in crimson dressed,
Who tumbled 'round upon his head
And did exactly as I said!

Oh! if I could hold my hat
And let the pennies fall in that!
And if I ever went to bed
Have just the stars over my head!
