Business advertising must be paid in advance. For all other ads must be paid on reasonable time of contract. Statements will be rendered monthly for short time advertisements, quarterly for regular advertisements.

Obituaries and tributes of respect, resolutions of churches, societies, etc., will be charged for as other advertisements.

Local notices of 10 lines and proportionate rates.

Local advertisements in department of business notices will be charged at the rate of ten cents per line for first insertion, and 5cts. per line for each insertion thereafter.

Legal advertisements, such as administrators', executors', assignees', mortgagees', commissioners' and trustees' sales, summons to non-residents, etc., will be charged for at legal rates, except when they consist of a certain class of spaces, in which case we reserve the right to fix our own rates.

If you take a copy of THE GAZETTE, you can't expect us to know that fact by reading a line and knowing the only time about it. It is your business to tell THE GAZETTE manager straight, what you want to do in While so much uncertainty is rife in the land about the purity of the metals, it is refreshing to observe that Mr. Josephus Daniels and his friends still maintain an old time regard for silver.

The long-haired young man is still with us. The public mind is much agitated to know whether, as the spring styles come in, he will adopt the French twist or the Psyche knot.

The sheep-like dumbness of the lawyers under the ten dollar tax shears is a significant phenomenon. We reckon, however, the inconveniences of a little ten dollar tax are not worthy to be compared with the glorious graging which comes along with it.

A correspondent informs the Charlotte Chronicle that in 41 states out of 45 the Governor has the veto power. If our esteemed contemporary will now let down a light into its encyclopedia and read off the names of all the states which do not allow their chief magistrate the veto power it will make a good advertisement for its merchandise department.

THERE WILL BE OIL HERE.

One wholesome result of the late disastrous election will be to shake up the notion of many people that there's nothing in politics for anybody except the candidates. People are learning that the burden of all the evil done by unwise and incompetent representatives settles down at last upon their own shoulders.

One of the noticeable things in the last campaign was the extreme apathy of business men. In '92 they contributed liberally of their means to the local campaign funds and lent the enthusiasm of their presence and help at club meetings and the demonstrations. In '94 it was different. Committees complained of failure to interest business men in the active work of the campaign. We recall that we wrote an editorial or two pointing out dangers of this apathy.

Now it turns up that business men principally and chiefly are the sufferers from the vexatious incompetence of the legislature. Business interests all over the State are lagging because of the meddlesomeness of that body. It is, perhaps, well, if annoyance had to come, that it should come to those in whom it is likely to perform a work of grace. We are not writing to upbraid any one. The only aim is to direct attention to a state of things that ought to end, we believe, will set business men to thinking of what they owe to Democratic government in North Carolina. And if they think over it, they will all be on hand in the next campaign, at the conventions, club meetings, demonstrations, collections, and polls.

CHARLOTTE WOMAN CONGRESSMAN.

And it gets worse and worse. The Legislature created some new courts and elected judges thereof. Then the Governor appointed a duplicate set of judges. Now it turns up that one of the Fusion judges whom the Governor failed to appoint as any judge at all has been sworn in without any commission. So the thing goes in the courts. It is a farce.

Now have come the morning papers saying that Richmond Pearson has gone to Raleigh and summoned an extra session of the Clerks and certain members of the General Assembly in order to find out who passed the amendment law. The Raleigh News and Observer prints a fac simile of the bill which was never passed but yet is a law bearing the signatures of the presiding officers of both branches of the Legislature. Somebody has most assuredly a heavy forfeit for making a mess of legislation. Pearson says that the entering of another bill which was signed by the two presiding officers was skipped on this one and that it became a law. Clerk Satterfield says he left the blow among the tabled bills when the House adjourned. Enrolling Clerk Brown says the bill never was in his hands at all and that he never saw it at all. The News and Observer says:

The testimony of Mr. Smith, of Stanley, fixes the bill in the hands of the Principal Clerk of the House on his way to have it enrolled. It lies between Mr. Satterfield, or one of his assistants, and the enrolling clerk or one of his assistants, as to which one forged, or permitted the forgery, in the passage of the bill. There is a rumor that the enrolling clerk, when approached upon the matter, at first, said that when he enrolled it, it was properly stamped; but when the bill was found yesterday, it was stamped "tabled" and if he enrolled the bill that is giving so much trouble, if properly stamped, it was a forgery.

After enrolling the bill the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker of the House did not sign it until it was certified to them by the committee on enrolled bills that it was a correct copy of the bill.

The News and Observer notes that not a Democrat on the committee certified, Examined and found correct" and that not a single solitary Democrat was employed in either the Principal or Enrolling Clerk's office. The case is then summed up as follows:

If anybody paid anybody to forge the bill through, no Democrat was in a position to be involved. Somebody forged the bill through. Who did it? And who are the sworn and paid clerks who did it or connived at it? Senator Fortune, Republican from Cleveland, wasn't far wrong when he suggests: "There is something rotten in Denmark."

And when a good wife, bewildered at the misdoings of the Legislature, asked her husband for an unbiased opinion of that body, it is no wonder he asked her to send the children out of the room before he began.

Woman Suffrage in Billville.

Atlanta Constitution.

Had woman suffrage meetin' at Billville on the Band,
With Sister Wilkins in the chair,
Miss Jinkins on one end
An' Sally Jones on t'other and that air gal o' Brown's
An' Molly Spinks, paradin roun' in these new-fangled gowns.

An' twus: "Now, step lively, ladies!
Fer soon you'll wear a coat,
And you'll canvass all the country
When you vote, vote, vote!"

The meetin' sure was lively—with not a man in sight;
An' as for speechifyin'—why, they had it left and right;
They said the men warn't nothin'
but a set o' fools an' sich,
An' when the women voted they would make country rich!

An' twus: "Step up lively ladies!
For soon you'll wear a coat,
An' the men'll do the cookin'
When you vote, vote, vote!"

They passed a resolution to the 'fect that "women rules,
An' orter run the gover'ment as well as teach the schools;"
That they ort to be a-votin', an' a-raisin' of a row;
They'd been raised to bakin' biscuits but the men can bake 'em now!

An' twus: "Step up lively ladies!
For soon you'll wear a coat;
An' the men kin mind the babies
When you vote, vote, vote!"

They talked from sun to sundown, an' ther sentiments wuz free;
An' every man in Billville climed a oak or hick'ry tree!
An' the thing is been decided that the women own the town,
An' the men'll take the kitchen jest as soon as they climb down!

An' it's "Step up lively, gentlemen!
An' come an' jerk your coat!
An' don't you burn the biscuits
While your wives is gone to vote!"

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by CURRY & KENNEDY, Druggists.

Spilled All the Communion Wine.

Greensboro Record.

Last night was regular communion at Shiloh Baptist church—Rev. L. R. Jeffrey's church.

Just before, or while preparing to celebrate the occasion, old man Tom Bailey, a good old darkey, became enthused and got to shouting.

He must have been very happy, for he fell over the communion table, kicked over the wine, spilling every drop of it, so that the service was suspended and a man sent off after more.

Critical Times.

A Western writer has just issued a little pamphlet intended for the guidance of amateur critics of amateur theatricals. One of its golden rules reads as follows:

"In referring to a thin boy, it is all right to say 'skinny,' but you must call a thin girl 'spiritu'le.' It means the same, but sounds better. Never call any one but a boy 'puny.' A puny girl should be called 'fragile.' It sounds more like delicate china, and all of that sex like to be compared to fine Dresden. A 'chunky' boy is all right, but a girl has a 'finely rounded form.' A boy is 'scawny'; a girl displays 'untutored grace.'"

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenison, of Bolan, Worth Co., Iowa, who has been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Ft. Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: "A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me, he got a bottle and it cured them up in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale by CURRY & KENNEDY, druggists.

OUR LOWELL LETTER.

The News as It Came, Jotted Down in Short Paragraphs.

Correspondence of The Gazette.

LOWELL, April 2—The balmy days of spring are hailed with delight. Gardens are being planted and things are taking on quite a lively appearance among us.

Lowell sent up a snug little batch of ladies on the 23d and 23d to be present at the "opening" in response to the catchy invitations sent out, and they report nice goods and plenty of them.

Rev. D. P. Tate of Belmont Academy visited our town last week on business and was accompanied by Rev. Mr. Surratt, of Mt. Holly.

Mr Holland the new section master has arrived and occupies the house owed by Mr. C. W. Nipper Mr. Holland comes from Van Wyck near Lancaster, S. C.

Mrs. J. D. Hogan visited her father Mr. A. A. Rhyne near Dallas a few days last week.

Mrs. J. W. Abernathy and daughter Miss Dora are visiting her son, in Charlotte this week.

Preparatory communion services will begin in the Presbyterian church here Wednesday night and continue over Sunday.

Mr. Sam Sanford of Gastonia came down Saturday on a visit to his sister Mrs. Hagerty.

Mr. A. C. Elmore and family arrived here yesterday from Arkansas, and will make their home at Mt Holly, N. C. Mr. Elmore has been gone west 13 years and says things look a little strange around here.

Rev. Mr. Postell started this morning to drive through the country to Shelby.

Several distilleries closed up last week—perhaps the traffic may wear itself out and stop yet.

We have just heard of the death of Rev. A. N. Wells. While we regret very much to hear of his death, still there is more consolation in hearing of a good man's death than the death of one who is unprepared.

McAdenville sent over a small delegation to witness the ball game in Charlotte yesterday between the University and Boston League nines.

MT. HOLLY HAPPENINGS.

Banquet by Knights of Pythias—Rev. A. N. Wells Dead—Operator Putnam Taken Charge at Stanley—Personal Items.

Correspondence of The Gazette.

MT. HOLLY, April 2—The dime reading on the evening of the 21st ult., was a very pleasant affair, and enjoyed by all present.

The banquet, which was given last Tuesday night by the K. of P.'s and Odd Fellows proved a grand success. Dr. Cressy could not be present, and in his absence, Rev. A. R. Surratt addressed the packed house in a very pleasant and interesting manner. After this, those who had been fortunate in receiving cards, were led by our band to the Davis hall, where an elegant lunch was served. The evening was very pleasantly spent.

Rev. A. N. Wells, who has been in feeble health for some time past, died at his home last Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. His remains were interred in Ebenezer graveyard on Sunday evening. A good man is gone.

Mr. W. H. Lewis spent a few days of last week in our town. He came over for——(the Lutheran Conference?)

Miss Fannie Smith of Gastonia spent last week in Mt. Holly, the guest of Miss Ada Dunn.

Miss Maggie Sutes is visiting her sister, Mrs Paul Lentz of this place.

Mr. J. B Putnam, operator, who has been in the office at this place for the past four months left this morning to take charge of the depot at Stanley, N. C.

OLD FURNACE NOTES.

The News of the Neighborhood Consisting of one Thing and Another Put Down in Condensed Items.

Correspondence of The Gazette.

OLD FURNACE, April 2.—From March 1st to April 2d, Mr. Jno. J. Hovis, proprietor of our "New York" store bought from his customers and sold to R. C. G. Love & Son, of your place 948 dozen eggs.

Our farmers are working from "early morn till dewy eve" preparing to plant their crops.

Mr. M. V. Hovis has had his dwelling house re-roofed and his barn re-roofed. Safe during thunder storm now.

Miss Sarah Hager, of King's Mountain, worshiped at Concord church last Sunday and also visited her cousin, Mr. S. L. Abel Hager.

Now we have three magistrates in "hollerin" distance of each other, and the fourth is not very far away.

The 2d quarterly conference for the King's Mountain circuit was held at Concord church last Saturday by the presiding elder Rev. Joseph J. Rona, who preached very able sermons Saturday and Sunday. Messrs. P. B. Long, F. T. Patterson, E. A. Mauney and John J. Hovis were elected delegates to the district conference, which meets in Gastonia in July. Messrs Rufus Jackson and B. F. Digon and Messrs. D. A. Fulton and Thos. S. Rayster were elected delegates to the District S. S. Conference which meets at Providence church. Henrietta circuit, in May.

Mr. John E. Jones has been quite indisposed for several days.

Mrs. P. G. Putman and her little daughter Miss Lola, are visiting in Forest City Rutherford county.

Why of Course.

Chattanooga Times.

North Carolina is becoming a cotton mill country. Old mills are being renewed and extended and new ones built at many different points. As things are now going the Carolinas and Georgia will have five-eighths, if not nine-tenths of the southern cotton trade at the end of the century.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

TIMES OF NEWS.

The city of Wilmington has four negro policemen, some of the fixings of the fusion legislature.

The Messenger says the truck farmers near Wilmington will begin to ship strawberries by the 10th of April.

Mr. H. A. Shuford, foreman of the Hickory Mercury, was married in that city on March 26th to Miss Pattie Jones.

The men with their invention for cooking meats and most vegetables without water are "doing" Lincoln county.

An act of the legislature requires that a plank be put above the wire on all wire fences along public roads in Catawba county.

A Newberry (S. C.) negro is engaged in the business of shipping rat skins to New York where he sells them at from three to five cents apiece.

Hon. W. L. Wilson, the new Postmaster General will take charge April 4. He will be sworn in on a Bible once used by Benjamin Franklin.

Gov. Carr has offered a reward of $50 for the capture of Jim Byers, the negro against whom a prosecution of outlawry was issued several days ago.

Senator J. J. Long died at Whiteville, Columbus county, last week. His wife died the Sunday before, and his father-in-law two weeks ago, all with pneumonia.

A special term of Davidson county court has been ordered by the Governor to try the Shemwell-Payne homicide case first Monday in July. Shemwell is in jail at Charlotte.

Mrs. Ned Ireland Thacker, representing W. H. & R. S. Tucker, of Raleigh, is the only woman drummer in North Carolina, and is visiting the various cities in the State.

An old negro woman of sixty-five years of age, who in a fit of passion killed her husband, has been sent to the penitentiary from Hertford county for the balance of her life.

Over one thousand workmen are engaged in putting up the buildings of the Atlanta Exposition to be held in September. It will be a good second in every way to the Chicago show.

In the city primaries at Charlotte last Tuesday, J. H. Weddington was nominated mayor over Dr. R. J. Brevard by a majority of seven, the vote standing Weddington 865; Brevard 858.

It is reported in Raleigh that Daniel L. Russell, the eminent Republican lawyer and adviser to the fusionists in the Legislature made no less than $7,000 in the way of fees during the session.

When a meeting of Methodist young people of Wilmington adjourned one night lately to go home they found on the doorsteps a basket containing a baby boy a day or two old and a can of condensed milk. He was sent to the city hall next day.

The Southport Leader says the hotel Brunswick, which has been closed five years will be opened this season and thousands of Southport's friends will again be given the opportunity of enjoying its unrivalled climate during the summer months.

The Morganton Herald says that "everybody is pleased with Judge Timberlake and his court. He is a high-toned gentleman, and is as fair in his rulings as any. The bar returned their compliments to the judge and commended him for his courteous dealings with the bar."

A. R. Cochrane recently a resident of Davenport, Mecklenburg county, run way, says the Charlotte News, with a young woman named Katie Freeman. He left a wife and four children. They were living near Matthews when the elopement occurred. It is thought he is somewhere in South Carolina.

The Rutherford Democrat learns that the registered distillery of J. Bunyan Rhyne, near Waco, Cleveland county, was destroyed by fire on the night of the 18th, together with the stills, fixtures and cistern room. The warehouse, containing 2,700 gallons of whiskey, was saved by hard work. The origin of the fire was accidental. The loss amounts to about $600.

Many Florida orange growers who lost thousands of dollars by recent freezes, have lost faith in Florida and are investigating the advisability of removing to Jamaica. The climate of Jamaica is said to be admirably suited for the production of all kinds of fruits that can be raised in Florida, and there is no danger of any freezes calculated to destroy in a single night the work of years.

Mr. Albert Jennings, of the well known book and music house of J. Pemberton & Co., of Fayetteville died last week at his home in that city, aged 27 years. The circumstances of his death are peculiarly sad. The Observer says: In his usual health on Friday, he participated in the amusement of the skating rink that evening, returned to his home and an hour or two after was battling for life in the fatal clutch of congestion of the lungs.

CLOVER'S EX-POLICEMAN LAY.

He has been Arrested for Breach of Trust—Unwillingly Admits his Guilt—In Jail to Await Trial.

Yorkville Enquirer, March 29.

B. L. Lay, ex-policeman at Clover, was brought down to Yorkville, last Wednesday by Messrs. J. W. Pursley and E. B. Faulkner, and committed to jail on a warrant issued by Trial Justice, J. Q. Howe.

Lay is charged with breach of trust, and his prosecutor is Mr. Perry Dover, Mr. Dover claims that in February last, he gave Lay $190 with which to buy a check, and instead of buying the check, Lay skipped the country. Mr. Dover offered a reward and had Lay's photograph published in the Atlanta Constitution; but saw no results until a few days ago, when Lay again made his appearance in Clover, and at the instance of Mr. Dover, was arrested.

Lay refuses to talk very much about the matter; but according to Messrs. Faulkner and Pursley, he is unwilling to admit his guilt. He says that he did not know anything about the charge until he saw himself advertised and that he at once gave up a job at which he was getting two dollars a day, and walked back to Clover from Macon, Ga., to see about it. From what the reporter could gather, it is likely that a trial of the case will develop two sides to the question.

The Women of Spain.

Our Mrs. Lang's showing in the Humanitarian the life of a Spanish woman must be dull enough. But of course there is everything in the point of view. The Spanish woman evidently has neither our ambition nor our uncomfortably developed sense of tedium. She has no aspirations for a wider horizon. she has no desire for a university education, or a parliamentary vote or a profession to render her independent. She is perfectly satisfied with life as it is; she has no responsibilities, money affairs being attended to by her male relatives and housekeeping being looked after by the servants; she has plenty of dancing, flirtation and intrigue, which is carried to a science and is her chief amusement in life. What more can she possibly want? would be her answer to your query as to whether her existence realized her ideal of happiness.

An Extraordinary Ointment.

The Irish "weapon salve" was an ointment supposed to possess the most extraordinary virtues in keeping with its most extraordinary ingredients. One of these was a powder made from the moss which had grown on skulls lying exposed on battle fields. Unless the skull was of a person who died a violent death the powder was supposed to lose its virtue.

Sale for Partition.

Elizabeth J. Ferguson, et. al.

vs.

James William Ferguson, and Thomas Campbell Ferguson.

Having been appointed commissioner of sale in the above entitled cause, on Monday the 6th day of May, 1895, (being the first Monday in May) I will sell at the court house door in Dallas, N. C., to the highest bidder the tract of land ordered to be sold for partition known as the Elizabeth J. Ferguson tract, upon which J. W. Ferguson now resides. Terms of sale are as follows: One third of the purchase money must be paid in cash, and the balance in 8 months with security to be approved by the court, deferred payment bearing interest from day of sale. Land will be sold in fourths and as an entirety, and that sale confirmed which aggregates the larger amount of money.

Private bids will be received by the commissioner pending said sale.

R. L. WILSON, Commissioner.

MORTGAGE SALE

Of Valuable Cotton Mills, Water Power Land etc.

By virtue of the power contained in a certain mortgage, or deed of trust, executed by John H. Hall and wife to the undersigned, dated the 16th of September, 1889, and recorded in the office of register of deeds of Gaston county, North Carolina, in book of mortgages 18, page 408, the undersigned will on THURSDAY, 25TH DAY OF APRIL, 1895,

at the court house door in the town of Dallas, N. C., at 12 o'clock m., sell for cash at public outcry to the highest bidder the several tracts of land mentioned and described in said deed, situated on both sides of the South Fork of the Catawba river, in the said county of Gaston, viz

I. That tract known as the Woodlawn Tract, containing 116 acres.

II. That tract known as the Lawrence Mills tract, containing 102½ acres.

III. That body of of land on opposite side of the river from the Woodlawn Tract, containing 13½ acres.

Also all mills, factories, buildings, machinery, tools fixtures on said lands or attached thereto, and all water forces, rights, privileges, woods, waters and ways which were conveyed in said mortgage, or deed of trust.

These are the lands upon which the Renwood Cotton Mills Company recently operated their cotton mills, and there are valuable buildings and machinery now on said lands. The water power is excellent.

For further particulars apply to Jones & Tillett, attorneys, Nos. 10 and 11 Law Building, Charlotte, N. C.

BENJAMIN H. CHADWICK, Trustee.
