PTA President Names Committee Chairmen

Committee chairmen for the school year were announced at the PTA meeting in the Morehead City school auditorium Monday night.

President A. B. Cooper presided. The Rev. E. Guthrie Brown of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church opened the meeting with a scripture reading and prayer.

Mr. Cooper welcomed the returning and new teachers and the new citizens to the community. He made a brief talk on the PTA's goal for the year.

The president announced the committee chairmen as follows: Mrs. Gus Davis, membership; Mrs. S. A. Horton, grade mothers; Warren Beck, program; Mrs. Harry Salter, lunchroom; and Jewell Smith, Halloween Carnival chairman.

On Oct. 24 the PTA will sponsor their annual Halloween Carnival. Meals will be served and the public is invited.

All the committees are asked to help Mrs. Davis work for 100 per cent membership. Grademothers are to assist Mrs. Horton with new furnishings for the teachers lounge.

Dr. M. B. Morey, assistant chairman for the Citizens Committee for Better Schools, was speaker for the evening.

The next meeting will be held Oct. 13, at 7:30 p.m.

Diana Thompson Named President of Troop 226

Girl Scout Troop 226 met Wednesday afternoon at the Episcopal Parish House and new officers were elected for the coming year.

Officers elected were Diana Thompson, president; Frances Davis, vice-president; Betty Ruffin Garner, secretary and Frances Lawrence, treasurer.

The 1959 calendar sale was discussed and plans made for a cookout next Wednesday afternoon.

The meeting was adjourned by the leader, Mrs. Gerald Davis. The assistant leader is Mrs. Barrett Davis.

The hostesses, Jane Patrick and Janice Sewell served refreshments.

Miss Alida Willis, finance; Miss Bettie Barksdale, publicity. Co-chairmen of a proposed bridge benefit to raise money for the Girl Scouts are Mrs. W. E. Pickard and Mrs. Spears.

New members at the meeting Monday night, the first of the current year, were Mrs. Russell Outlaw, Mrs. Roy Denkins, Mrs. Bill Moore, Mrs. Garland Scruggs, Mrs. L. E. Kelly, Mrs. Clifton Lynch, Mrs. Harvey Gaskins, Mrs. Mel Adcox, Mrs. James Jones, Mrs. William Jones, Mrs. Robert Herrick, and Mrs. Georgie Beaver.

Hostesses Give Tea In Honor of Bride-Elect

Mrs. Jack Morgan and Mrs. L. A. Daniels entertained at a tea Wednesday afternoon at the Morgan home, honoring Miss Cecelia Oglesby, bride-elect.

A pink and white motif was carried out. A miniature bride and groom in a crystal bowl centered a table in the hall.

The honoree received a white carnation corsage. Her mother, Mrs. Cecil Oglesby, received a corsage of pink carnations and Miss Sandra Olson, also an October bride-elect, was given a pink and white corsage.

Miss Oglesby and Miss Olson received aluminum and glass casserole dishes from the hostesses.

Hors d'oeuvres, pickles, olives, salted nuts, brownies, nutty fingers and colas were served from a table covered with a white cloth. It was centered with an arrangement of pink and white carnations and pom-poms flanked with pink candles.

Fifty guests called between four and five-thirty.

Deputy Grand Regent Visits Women of Moose

Women of the Moose were honored Saturday night by a visit by the Deputy Grand Regent of High Point, Mrs. Billy Bowman. The meeting was held at the lodge hall, Atlantic Beach.

An informal discussion was held followed by refreshments. Mrs. Flay McCabe served block cake, coffee, peanuts and mints.

The next meeting will be Tuesday night at the lodge hall.

Mary Alice Morris Heads Girl Scout Troop

Morehead City Girl Scout Intermediate Troop met Wednesday afternoon in the recreation building and elected the following officers for the coming Scout year:

Mary Alice Morris, president; Betty Jo Gray, vice-president; Joyce Femia, secretary; Lelia Anne Southard, treasurer.

Coffee This Morning

The Presbyterian women will entertain at a coffee from 9:30 a.m. to 10 today in honor of Dr. and Mrs. F. Crossley Morgan. The coffee will be at the fellowship hall and precede Dr. Morgan's morning lecture.

Episcopal Auxiliary Meets Tuesday Night

St. Catherine's Chapter of St. Andrew's Episcopal auxiliary met at the home of its new chairman, Mrs. Gus Davis, Tuesday night. Devotions were led by Mrs. Mary Shockley.

Mrs. Davis greeted the large number of members at their first meeting of the auxiliary year, and read a list of the new department chairmen as follows:

Devotions, Mrs. Mary Shockley; United Thank Offering, Mrs. Margaret Greenwood; Christian Education, Mrs. O. H. Johnson; Supply, Mrs. Stanley Woodland; Christian Social Relations, Mrs. J. H. Burruss; Promotion, Mrs. Elizabeth Howland.

The chapter voted to take orders for pansies for November delivery, but there will be no general soliciting.

Mrs. Robert Hicks, treasurer of the general auxiliary, outlined the new budget reported at a previous board meeting.

Service teams were designated for the October supper meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Andrews and for the luncheon meeting of Every-Member Canvassers.

The revised list of hostesses for the year was read and announcement made of the October meeting at the home of Mrs. David Murray with Mrs. Percy Deyo, co-hostess.

Mrs. Mary Shockley gave a report on the Thrift Shop, stating that men's shoes, shirts and work clothes are needed.

Announcement was made of the corporate communion and of presentation of the annual fall United Thank Offering Oct. 10 at 7:30 a.m.

The meeting was closed with the Lord's Prayer. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Davis and Miss Amie Klein.

Mrs. W. C. Carlton Hostess to Bible Class

Mrs. W. C. Carlton was hostess to the Lillian Wallace Bible class Tuesday night at her home on Arendell Street. Attractive arrangements of early fall flowers and potted plants were used throughout the home.

Prior to the usual business session, class members enjoyed a delicious buffet supper they had prepared. The menu consisted of sliced baked ham, french bread, string beans and dumplings, pickled peaches, relish, potato salad and banana cake.

Mrs. Carlton was in charge of the Bible Study course, and in using references they studied the plan of salvation found in the New Testament. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Edgar Bell.

Mrs. Harold Webb, outgoing president, was remembered with a silver medallion necklace and matching earrings. Mrs. Webb then presented each member a small jar of homemade pickle relish.

All members of the class are urged to attend the meeting in October, the date and place to be announced later. Officers for the coming year will be elected and installed.
