CLUB BRIEFS

Rotary Club Members Help With Buddy Program

South Brunswick Islands Rotary Club members passed a basket at its Aug. 12 meeting and raised $465 to help the Brunswick Buddies program receive its IRS nonprofit status and ability to apply for public funds.

Buddies Director Bob Hayes told the Rotarians the program aims to match volunteer counselors with children in trouble and is at its present capacity of 15 "matches," the largest number in the state.

When a visiting Rotarian offered to match up to $100 of money collected at the meeting, the entire sum was raised.

Helping With Shower

Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 7288 auxiliarists in Calabash have set aside $100 to purchase items for a Sept. 20 shower to benefit the Duke University Medical Center Ronald McDonald House.

Auxiliarists also are participating in a project to redeem proofs of purchase for rebates to help the facility.

Sept. 10 is the post's next visit to the Veterans Hospital in Fayetteville to deliver refreshments and play bingo with patients. The next meeting is Sept. 19 at 7 p.m. at the post; officers meet at 6.

VFW Wants You

Holden Beach VFW Post 8866 will conduct a membership drive beginning Aug. 28 at 2 p.m. featuring a free fish fry for current members and all eligible new members.

Interested persons should bring DD Form 214 or proof of service in any foreign combat zone to the post on Sabbath Home Road between Tri-Beach Fire Department and Lockwood Folly Golf Course turnoff.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Four Brunswick Students Compete Ventures Workshop

Four Brunswick Countians were among 600 North Carolina high school students completing the Summer Ventures in Science and Mathematics program.

They are Martha Daniels of South Brunswick High School; and Mark Causey, Kenneth McGee and Chad Smith, all of West Brunswick.

The program is designed to enrich high school and university coursework, expanding students' experience in scientific inquiry, mathematical problem-solving and computer applications.

Students learned about experimental design, laboratory skills, instrumentation, mathematical modeling, strategies in mathematical problem-solving and exploratory data analysis.

The program also provides information about careers in science and math, social issues related to science and communication skills for math and science competitions.

McGee and Smith attended at East Carolina University. Causey went to UNC-Wilmington and Daniels, to N.C. Central University.

In Who's Who

Stephen Jared Benton of Zebulon has been accepted for the 28th annual edition of "Who's Who Among American High School Students."

Only 5 percent of students from 22,000 high schools are honored in "Who's Who" each year.

Benton is a senior at Eastern North Carolina School for the Deaf in Wilson. He is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Benton, formerly of Winnabow.

Coppersmith Enlists

Ronald A. Coppersmith of Winnabow has enlisted in the U.S. Army for four years.

The son of William C. and Linda Bevier of Winnabow, he is a graduate of Hoggard High School in Wilmington.

He will report for basic training at Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri, in October. He will later attend training at Ft. Sam Houston, Texas, to become a medical specialist.

To Marry Sept. 2

The children of Patricia Polito of Calabash have announced their mother's forthcoming marriage to Gary Cushing of Mahopac, N.Y. The couple will exchange vows Sept. 2 at 7 p.m. at the Wedding Chapel by the Sea in Myrtle Beach, S.C.
