Middle East Perspectives: Then, Now?

A very important and relevant topic which touches all of us will be presented at the Jewish Community Center on November 7 at 8 p.m. ORT and the Community Relations Committee of the Charlotte Jewish Federation are honored to present a panel discussion on the Middle East with such notable panelists as Dr. Sanford Silberburg of Catawba College, Dr. Herbert Bodman of UNC-CH, and Rabbi Robert Seigel of Temple Beth Shalom. Moderator will be Marvin Bienstock, Executive Director of the Charlotte Jewish Federation and the Foundation of the Jewish Community.

Dr. Silberburg is Chairman of the Political Science Department at Catawba College and has a Ph.D. in International Relations. Dr. Bodman is a professor in the history department at UNC-CH. Rabbi Seigel has experience in both congregational and youth work, and is certified in social work in South Carolina and Illinois. Mr. Bienstock holds degrees in social work, psychology and sociology. He has worked in Charlotte for the past seven years as Executive Director of the Jewish Federation and now also of the Foundation. He was the former executive director of the Jewish Community Center. He is an active spokesman in the community on issues affecting the Jewish people.

After the presentations there will be ample time for questions and answers, after which refreshments will be served. For further information contact Sharon Gold, 364-7003.
