Courtyard Is Setting For Schutte-Chavez Ceremony

Stephany Suzanne Schutte became the bride of Gregory Lee Chavez in a 2 p.m. ceremony Sept. 3 in the Taste of Country Courtyard in Wilmington presided over by the Rev. Clyde McCall.

The bride is the daughter of Stephen and Connie Schutte of Supply. She is a senior at UNC-Wilmington majoring in elementary education and will graduate in May 1995. She is employed with First Citizens Bank and Parkview Medical Center in Wilmington.

The bridegroom is the son of Gregory Chavez of Smithfield and Phyllis Greene of Boone. He is an MBA student at UNC-Wilmington and is employed by the N.C. Employment Security Commission.

The bride, who was escorted to the ceremony with her sister in a horse-drawn carriage, was given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father. She wore a white satin lace gown with sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice with basque waist, keyhole back with candybox bow and full skirt with graduate hemline. The bodice and elbow-length puffed sleeves were of lace over satin. She wore a portrait hat with three-tiered pouf veil and adorned with pearls, sequins and lace.

She carried a cascading bouquet of white roses, gardenias, stephanotis, freesia, ivy ferns and pearls. She also carried a single purple iris in memory of her paternal grandmother, Vera Schutte.

The bride's sister, Sally Jo Schutte of Supply, served as maid of honor. She wore a tea-length floral chintz print dress with V-neckline, cap collar and basque wait. She wore a white straw hat with blue streamers and carried a white lace fan with blue delpheniums and blue satin streamers.

Gregory Chavez served as his son's best man. Bobby Moore of Cary, the bride's cousin, was groomsman.

The wedding was directed by Nancy Thornton, the bride's aunt. The bridal registry was presided over by Rhonda Currents, and gift table attendants were Leslie and Lyndsie Schutte, cousins of the bride.

A reception in the Courtyard featured a three-tiered cake over a fountain embellished with fresh flowers. Reception servers were Jean Cheers, Judy Holden and Maggie Small.

After a honeymoon in Charleston, S.C., the couple will live in Wilmington.

Prenuptial Events

The families and wedding party were entertained at a family barbecue, hosted by the bride's family on Sept. 2 at their home.

The employees of First Citizens Bank, Front Street Branch, Wilm-ington, hosted a breakfast shower on Aug. 18.

On Aug. 23, a miscellaneous shower was given by Jean Cheers, Judy Holden and Maggie Small at Lockwood Folly Clubhouse.

A bridal luncheon at Elijah's Restaurant on Sept. 2 was hosted by two of the bride's aunts, Mary Jane Daniels of Independence, Ky., and Janine Reeves of Georgetown, Texas.

A couples' shower was given Sept. 22 by the bride's sorority, Sigma Sigma Sigma of UNC-Wilmington.

YWCA Offers After-School Care

The YWCA is offering after-school care for students at Southport Primary, Supply Elementary, Lincoln Primary and Bolivia Elementary schools.

Children receive supervised care and structural educational, recreational and cultural activities. A typical afternoon schedule includes snack, physical activities, homework time, tutoring and activities designed for specific age group, said YWCA spokesman Barbara Jo Lineberger.

The program requires a minimum of 10 children at each school, she added. Some scholarships are available through Cape Fear United Way.

For application information call the YWCA at (910)799-6820 or write YWCA, 2815 S. College Rd., Wilmington NC 28412.
