Carolina Shores Ladies

Lynn Jerr fired net 62 and was the overall winner in the top flight of the Carolina Shores Ladies Golf Association Nassau tournament last Thursday at Beachwood.

On a match of cards, Ginnie Derrickson edged Sally Manifold for the A Flight's top honors on the front nine with 35.5. Ginny Dorshimer won the back nine with net 33.

The top finisher in the B Flight was Betty Goodwin, who defeated Kathy Deming on a match of cards after both women shot net 65. On the front nine, Joan O'Neill topped Deming on a card match with 33.5. Deming won the back nine with 31.5

Top finishers in the C Flight included Jackie Distler with 33.5 on the front nine, Emily Sharp with net 30 on the back nine and Vera McCabe with a 64 overall.

Ilse Bateman was the overall winner in the D Flight with net 66. Carolyn D'Avanzo won the front nine with 32.5 and Esther Wannstedt won the back nine with net 30.

Jerr had the low gross of the day with 82, and Doris Sandberg had low putts with 32.

Chick Weingarten chipped in for birdie at the 18th hole. Making birdie putts were Bateman at the fourth hole, Jerr at the seventh, D'Avanzo at the 10th and Dorshimer at the 17th.

Brierwood Scramble

Three teams tied for first place with scores of 33 in the nine-hole mixed scramble last Wednesday at Brierwood.

Winning teams were Jim Bryant, Bob Allwein, Chris O'Shea and Alene Sterner; Jim Roach, Roy Havenga, Rose Reiter and Joan O'Shea; Joe Reiter, Greg Bouldin, Sally Dye and Joyce Rose.

Ruth's Renegades

Members of Ruth's Renegades competed for low gross and low net honors last Thursday at Bay Tree and Brierwood.

Top finishers at Bay Tree's green course were Carolyn McCroskey with gross 105 and Anna Clute with net 68.

At Brierwood, Elizabeth Carter had the low gross of 113 and Marie Broekstra fired the low net of 75.

Foxy Ladies

The team of Ginger Sugrue, Pierrette Tompkins, Joanna Lang and Marian Rockstroh shot 125 to win the Brierwood Foxy Ladies two best ball tournament last week at Bay Tree.

Finishing second with 130 was the foursome of Nancy Bouldin, Dot Crean, Ruth Linder and Mary Nicol.

Brierwood Couples

Neal and Julie McCall shot 57 to win the Brierwood Couples "Scotch twosome" tournament last Saturday.

Frank and Doris Niland placed second with net 65, followed by George and June Cleasby with 66 and Andy and Alice Micali with 67.

Brick Landing Ladies

Vivian Rowe and June Beck combined for the low gross of 84 in the Brick Landing Plantation Ladies Golf Asso. tournament last Thurs.

Teams played six holes using an alternate shot format, six holes of best ball and six holes of captain's choice.

Pat Taylor and Rose Gorney had the second low gross of 85.

Low net winners were Peg Campana and Ursula Styczynski with 59 and Martha Cullen and Sue Nelson with 64.

Brierwood Ladies

The foursome of Rose Reiter, Edith Wilckens, Elizabeth Carter and Sara McCullough shot 118 to take first place in the Brierwood Ladies Golf Association tournament last Tuesday.

Teams counted the two best balls on each hole. Finishing second with 119 was the team of Joanna Lang, Martha Wareheim, June Cleasby and Joyce Thompson (blind draw).

Mary Schaack, Joan Cowie, Marie Dolan and Evelyn Wuthrich (blind draw) placed third with 121, followed by Claire Aston, Evelyn Wuthrich, Dot Crean and Shirley Groff with 122.

Carding birdies were Nancy Bouldin at the fourth and 10th holes, Ruth Linder at the 10th and 14th, McCullough at the sixth, Reiter at the eighth and Helene Baker at the ninth.

Carolina Shores Men

Bill Marsh, Bern Distler, Dick Jerr and Charlie Van Audekerk shot 125 to win the Carolina Shores Men's Golf Association two best ball tournament last Thursday at Bay Tree.

On a match of cards, second place went to John Schwab, Chris Torgersen, Bill Rice and John Bashaw (blind draw) with 127.

Finishing third was the team of John Bashaw, Dick Bendin, George Sandberg and Charlie Van Audekerk (blind draw).

On Nov. 5 at Carolina Shores, the team of Bill Goetschius, John Crane, Bern Distler and Chuck Radcliffe racked up 159 points to win a Stableford tournament.

Finishing second with 140 points was the team of Bill Haupt, Bill Wannstedt, Don Errickson and Bob Remais.

Dan Roberts, John Deming, Tom Harris and Tom Fleming placed third with 138 points.

Sea Trail Ladies

Pat Reid was the winner of the gold charm in the fifth annual Sea Trail Ladies Golf Association Charm Tournament last month.

The 36-hole low net tournament was played Oct. 4 on the Maples course and Oct. 11 on the Byrd course. Pat Swanekamp won the silver charm.

The charms and other awards were presented at the group's annual luncheon last Thursday at the Jones-Byrd Clubhouse.

Betty Halloran carded the only birdie during the Charm Tournament and had the most birdies for the season with 25. Peggy Cooper was first runner-up, and Nancy Williams was named most improved golfer.

Awards for "ringer" scores went to Marge Gallop on the Maples course, Carol Patridge on the Jones and Mary Yost on the Byrd. The overall ringer score award went to Marcella Redeker with an improvement of 103 strokes.

New officers for the 1995 season are Heni Moulton, president; Ann Holman, vice president; Ann Otten, secretary; and Patti Matheny, treasurer.

In the group's regular weekly tournament last Tuesday, Ann Holman had 28 putts to lead the first flight in the low putts event. Runners-up were Carolyne Combs with 30 and Joan Llewellyn with 32.

Phyllis Manfred led the second flight with 29 putts, followed by Kitty Billiar with 31 and Ellie Helmboldt with 33.

Third flight winners were Eleanor Conboy with 32 putts and Ruth Kivett, Betty Geesey and Pam Hayes with 33 apiece.

Marie Munn won the fourth flight with 35 putts. Tied for second with 39 each were Jennie Gregory and Marge Bach.

Reporting birdies were Llewellyn at the third hole and Billiar at the 17th. Closest-to-the-pin winners were Llewellyn at the third hole and Irene Jones at the 11th.

Brierwood Men

Mike Prokop, John Lang, Emile Vrydaghs and Bob Sterner shot 157 to win the Brierwood Men's Golf Asso. tournament last Thursday.

Teams counted two low scores on the front nine and three low scores on the back nine. The winners finished 23 under par.

Finishing two shots back in second place was the team of Jerry Lula, Jack Causer, Ned Dye and Gene Cordisco.

Three teams tied for third with scores of 162. On a draw, third place went to Joe Distl, Larry Ban Der Vlet, Miles Umberger and Ray Wood.

On Nov. 7, the team of Paul Dunfee, Barney Martin, Miles Umberger and Bob Sterner shot 124 to win a two best ball tournament.

Neal McCall, John Twomey, Jerry Wolff and Carl Smith placed second with 137, followed by the team of Joe Reiter, John Cowie, Gene Cordisco and Al Hierman with 138.

Nifty Niners

Golfers competed for low gross and low net in the Carolina Shores Nifty Niners tournament last Thursday at Ocean Isle Beach and Brierwood golf courses.

On a match of cards, Martha Mullis edged Chris Alcorn for low gross with a round of 62. Cynthia Swanson edged Pat Healy for third place on another card match after both women shot 65.

Swanson had the low net of 36, followed by Healy with 36 and Marge Marcyes with 38.

Jane Taubel had a chip-in at the second hole at Brierwood.

Tourney Benefits North Athletics

A captain's choice golf tournament benefiting the North Brunswick High School baseball and golf teams will be held Saturday, Dec. 10, at Olde Fort Golf Course in Winnabow.

The entry fee is $30 per player and includes golf, lunch and beverages.

Trophies will be awarded to the winning team. There also will be prizes for the longest drive, closest to the pin and longest putt.

For more information, call Keith Moore at the high school, 371-2272, or home, 452-5777.

Southport Church Wins Tournament

The Southport Baptist Church team of Arnie Hegler, Dean Holden, Harry Martin and Ted Wood Jr. finished at 12 under par to win the Brunswick Baptist Association Golf Tournament last Saturday at Brierwood Golf Club.

Second place in the championship flight went to a foursome from Calvary Baptist with a score of 9 under par. Mt. Olive edged Town Creek on a card playoff for third place at 8 under.

In the first flight, Mill Creek took first place, Shell Point finished second and Old Shallotte was third. All three teams finished at 2 under par and the order was determined on a match of cards.

The captain's choice tournament drew participation from 33 teams representing 18 association churches.
