Children's Classes

The next session of Children's classes will begin on February 1. This session will initiate a new type of Children's program at the JCC. All the classes that are offered will take place! Although there will be a limited number of classes offered per age group, any classes that are publicized will not be cancelled. We would appreciate any class suggestions you might have for this session. Call Cary (366-0357) with your ideas.

Club 46

Club 46 is a new club for 4th - 6th grade girls and boys.

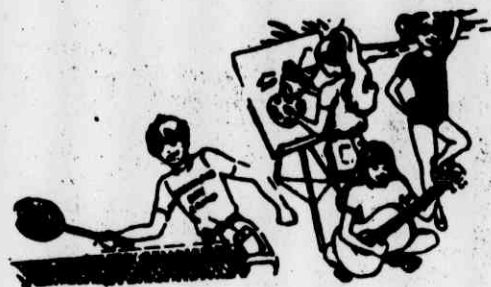

It currently has 35 members and has had three terrific meetings thus far. The group met on October 17 and voted on activities they would participate in for the rest of the year and made a Club 46 banner. On November 7, members of the group went to a roller skating party at Kate's Skating Rink and on November 20, the group met for a "picnic" bag lunch at Temple Israel and then "walked" across the street to a performance of "Clowning Around" at the Children's Theater. We will meet one more time before the end of the year.

Oil Painting

Referring to magazine photographs, learn how to use proper techniques in oil paints and how to plan correct compositions in individually taught classes by Rita Reed Allred. Ms. Allred has been elected into membership in the Salmagundi Club and the Society of Illustrators, both of New York City.

Classes will be held at the JCC on Tuesdays from 9:30 - 11:30 a.m. for 11 weeks, January 11 to March 22. Class fee for members is $45; for non-members, $49.50. Class is limited to 25.

Trim Dance

The JCC is currently offering Children's Trim Dance classes for Kindergarten through 6th grade for both boys and girls. Robin Clay is our Trim Dance instructor. She is teaching Trim Dance in many locations in Charlotte.

Robin taught Mousercise with Walt Disney World at Outlet Square last year. She performs on the Afternoon Express on Channel 18 on weekday afternoons.

Trim Dance combines Aerobics, Yoga and Calisthenics in addition to improving coordination, flexibility, stamina and cardiovascular fitness.

Attic Sale - Huge Success

November 7 saw the JCC transformed into a large department store. Beginning that Friday, the setting up was started. Tables were put up, a truck began unloading merchandise which had been stored for up to five weeks, and the workers began coming in. The results of their efforts were a huge ATTIC SALE which brought hundreds of shoppers into the Center looking for that special bargain.

This huge effort would not have been possible without the help of many people. They were Harold and Lila Josephson, Bob and Maddy Stein, Betsy Lewis, Rozanne Sklar, Mike Scharf, Paula Musler, Lynn Sheffer, Ben Jaffa, Jr., Al Levenson, Sol Levine, Bob Abel, Ed Warsawsky, Dicky Shapiro, Marshall Greenfeld, Marti Gerber, Elise Menaker and Harry Hershman. All of the above workers were under the tutelage of chairperson, Linda Greenfeld.

"Best Buy"

On January 1, 1983, the JCC starts its new membership year. Though many places and services are increasing their costs, the JCC is holding the line on increased membership costs. As in 1982, Family Membership will be $250 with corresponding Single, Senior Adult, and Young Family memberships remaining the same.

To help pay for the start-up costs of new members, a one time $30 "administrative fee" will be added to all new memberships beginning January 1, 1983. To avoid this fee and get 13 months for the price of 12, JOIN TODAY. And remember, your JCC membership is the "best buy in town."
