FLOATING SHOWER

Miss Lois Ann Hurdle was guest of honor at a floating shower, given by friends and relatives Tuesday night at the Winfall Community Building. The building was decorated throughout with pink chrysanthemums and lighted tapers in crystal holders. Miss Hurdle was presented a corsage of mums.

Refreshments of punch, wedding ices, nuts and mints were served to the 60 guests who called during the evening.

4-H NEWS

The Winfall 5th grade held its second meeting on October 17 with Jarvis Miller presiding. Brenda Baccus presented the devotional and the program in which the following people took part:

Elizabeth Ivey, Queen of Harvest Home; Louise Ivey, America; Mike Bunch, Country Gentleman; Farmerettes, Cindy Winslow and Jarvis Miller, William Rowland, Brenda Baccus, Sheila Morse, Richard White, Douglas Grant and Kathryn Langley.

The 7th Grade 4-H Club meeting of the Perquimans County Central Grammar School was held October 3 at the Perquimans County Grammar School.

The president, Grant Chappell, called the meeting to order. The group all stood and recited the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag and the 4H Pledge.

Evelyn Trueblood was in charge of our devotional and the group all prayed the Lord's Prayer. Shirley Lilly, the secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting and they were approved. The meeting was then turned over to the program chairman for a delightful program entitled "To Tell the Truth." The group then separated for the meetings with the agents.

Richard Bryant talked to the boys about selecting projects. Miss McIlwean talked to the girls and both handed out selection cards to fill out. The meeting was then adjourned by the president.

BURGESS CLUB MEETS

The Burgess Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday night with Mrs. J. B. Basnight.

The meeting was opened by singing "Carry Me Back to Old Virginny."

The hostess gave the devotional.

Final plans for Achievement Day and Christmas open house were discussed.

In the absence of the agent, Mrs. J. B. Basnight gave a demonstration on Good Citizenship.

The meeting closed with the Collect.

Mrs. S. T. Harrell was winner in the berry contest.

The hostess served mints, nuts, ice cream and cake.
