American Legion Auxiliary Installs New Officers

Officers were installed at the regular meeting of the William Paul Stallings Unit 126 of the American Legion Auxiliary June 4.

The Installing Officer was Mrs. Ruth Powell, Past District President.

Mrs. Geneva Sawyer, President, presided at the meeting using the regular ceremony. The devotional was by the Chaplain, Mrs. Elizabeth Haskett.

After the roll was called and minutes were read, reports were made by officers and chairmen. Cards will be sent to the sick and bereaved.

An urgent letter from the Dept. President and a copy of the Night Letters sent as requested to Senator Sam J. Ervin Jr., Senator E. Everett Jordan and the Honorable Walter B. Jones, also, the replies were displayed by Mrs. Ruth Powell, Communications Chairman.

The President thanked the members for helping to make Poppy Day, May 23, a success and wishes to express appreciation to the public for the generous contributions, which will be used for Rehabilitation and Child Welfare. The amount collected was very good. Many thanks to the Editor of the Perquimans Weekly for liberal publicity.

Mrs. Sawyer announced the Annual Dept. of N. C. Convention will be at Durham Hotel June 18-21 and asked who could go as a delegate.

The Legion met with the Auxiliary for a short ceremony in which Charlie Skinner Jr., First District Commander, made a short talk about the many offices the late Charles Clifford Banks had held, read the "Resolution", and presented it to his wife, Mrs. Naomi D. Banks.

The members voted unanimously to send the President, Mrs. Sawyer, as delegate to the Convention.

Mrs. Sawyer announced the Legion will have a Fish Fry June 13 and that Auxiliary members are asked to help sell tickets and to serve.

Refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour.
