REMARKABLE MASONIC INCIDENT.

The first Masonic funeral that ever occurred in California, took place in the year 1849, and was performed over a brother found drowned in the bay of San Francisco. An account of the ceremonies states that on the body of the deceased was found a silver mark of a Mason, upon which were engraved the initials of his name. A little further investigation revealed to the beholder the most singular exhibition of Masonic emblems that was ever drawn by the ingenuity of man upon the human skin. There is nothing in the history or traditions of Freemasonry equal to it. Beautifully dotted on his left arm, in red and blue ink, which time could not efface, appeared all the emblems of the entire apprenticeship. There were the Holy Bible, square and compass, the twenty four inch guage and common gavel. There were also the Masonic pavement, representing the ground floor of King Solomon's Temple, the indented tassel which surrounds it, and the blazing star in the centre. On his right arm, and artistically executed in the same indelible liquid, were the emblems pertaining to the Fellow Craft's degree, viz: the square, the level and the plumb. There were also the five columns representing the five orders of architecture—the Tuscan, Doric, Ionic, Corinthian and Composite.

In removing his garments from his body, the trowel presented itself, with all the other tools of operative masonry. Over his heart was the pot of incense. On other parts of his body was the bee hive, the book of constitutions, guarded by the Tyler's sword pointing to a naked heart; the All-seeing eye, the anchor and ark, the hour glass, the scythe, the forty seventh problem of Euclid, the sun, moon, stars, and comets; the three steps, which are emblematical of youth, manhood and age. Admirably executed was the weeping virgin, reclining on a broken column, upon which lay the book of constitutions. In her left hand she held the pot of incense, the Masonic emblem of a pure heart, and in her uplifted hand a sprig of Acacia, the emblem of the immortality of the soul.

Immediately beneath her stood winged Time, with his scythe by his side, which cuts the brittle thread of life, and the hour glass at his feet, which is ever reminding us that our lives are withering away. The withered and attenuated fingers of the Destroyer were placed amid the long and flowing ringlets of the disconsolate mourner. Thus were the striking emblems of mortality blended in one pictorial representation. It was a spectacle such as Mason never saw before, and, in all probability, such as the fraternity will never witness again. The brother's name was never known.—Philadelphia Ledger.

LEGAL ENFORCEMENT OF SOCIAL EQUALITY.

The following act, enforcing social equality upon the people of the District, passed the Board of Aldermen about 2 o'clock on Tuesday morning last, having previously passed the Board of Common Council, and consequently has become a law. It seems that the party in power in this city, not content with squandering the money of the taxpayers during their reign, now aim to ruin, or at least break up every first-class place of amusement in the city. There is no manager of any respectable place of amusement in this or any other city who could obey that law and make his institution profitable; and, if enforced, it will surely result in closing every first-class place of amusement. The people of this District have, from time to time, been subjected to all sorts of experiments, much against the popular will, and this attempt to force social equality upon us in places of amusement will only fill the house with colored people, to the exclusion of the whites; and while the Radical party are in favor of the negro enjoying every political right, we very much question whether a majority of them would be pleased to have a negro seated beside them and their ladies at an opera. The people of this District have been more patient under the indignities that have been heaped upon them than would have been any community in any Northern city; but there is a point beyond which forbearance ceases to be a virtue, and we think that point has been reached in this bill.

Be it enacted by the Board of Aldermen and Board of Common Council of the city of Washington, That from and after the passage of this act it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, who shall have obtained a license from this Corporation for the purpose of giving a lecture, concert, an exhibition, having a circus performance, keeping a theatre, or any other place of public amusement, to make any distinction on account of race or color in regard to admission to any position where the audience is admitted: Provided, The person or persons wishing admission pays the regular price, according to the seats desired, and conducts himself, herself, or themselves in an orderly and respectful manner; and any person or persons offending herein shall forfeit and pay to this Corporation for each offence a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty dollars, to be prosecuted and collected as other fines and penalties.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

Some one of the many friends with whom Mr. Grant has been classed since he ceased to be a resident of Galena, wishing him to appear as an epigrammatic philosopher, has contrived for him and credited him with the remark that "Office-seeking is fast becoming one of the industries of the country."

When Deacon Hezekiah Bedott, his mind being "uncommonly exhausted," told his wife that "We are all poor critters," he, in a pithy and concise manner, gave expression to a truth equally plain with that above attributed to Mr. Grant.

Of course, office-seeking is an "American industry." As such, it demands and receives "protection." The civil service now has about four times as many men in it as it had four years ago, and its salaries in all branches have been greatly increased. In proportion as this branch of "American industry" has been "protected," the power of the ruling party has been strengthened. Think of the "protection" to this industry which has been given by the reconstruction infamy to the carpet baggers in the South. The industry, and the "protection" given to it, presents irresistible temptations to weak demagogues and demagogues to become apostates.—Chicago Times.

Assets $10,462,531,75.

SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,075,000,46.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,

CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.

Being situated in the northwestern part of the State, in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.

The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility, dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.

The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, will arranged for either large or small families.

Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.

FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC

Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.

Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. Capren, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.

The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

BOARD:

For one single month,	$30 00
For two or more months, $25 per month, or at that rate.
For week,	10 00
For day,	2 00
