JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

WASHINGTON, August 17.—Judge Dent has written to Secretary Boutwell a pugent letter, of which the following is a copy:

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 17, 1869.

To Hon. George S. Boutwell, Secretary of the Treasury.

SIR:—I shall make little apology for asking your attention to my letter, and less for the nature of its contents. You were the first to deny the political orthodoxy of my friends and myself, and by the rules of the forum I am entitled to a defence.—Again, you hold an office of the republic, and your acts, therefore, are legitimate subjects of criticism by the humblest citizen thereof. But in some respects we are alike. For instance, we are both aspirants for place, with this difference: You aim to be the next President, with every assurance of success, "except" in the opinion of the people.

While I seek an humbler place, with my hopes in disastrous eclipse, "except" in the judgment of Mississippi, so in the probable results of the future we both stand adverse to the judgment of the country. In the pursuit of your ambition you are ungrateful and unscrupulous as to the means of success. Your organ, the New York Sun, in the same breath ridicules the capacity of your master, and dwells with emphasis upon your peculiar fitness for office. Your tool, Mr. Bullock, became so reckless in the manipulation of your department in the interest of your ambition and so defiant of the wishes of the President and the country, that to save yourself from an explosion of popular indignation you found it convenient to transfer him to another sphere of scandalous activity, where his talents might be exerted with equal effect and less effrontery. Virginia, Tennessee, Mississippi, and Texas, not to mention anything so humble as myself, were obstructions in the way of your success, because through President Grant's intervention is excluding the proscriptive clauses from their organic law these States are brought into the Union and firmly welded to his support.

Now, this is in direct conflict with your systematized plans; for what General Grant gets in the next Presidential election clearly Mr. Boutwell will not get, and therefore have you denounced the Conservative Republicans who, are for Grant, that you may obtain the proscriptive Republicans, who are for Boutwell; and by some strange, dexterous management and occult political strategy, you have so worked upon the confidence of the President as to cause him to flourish the club with which you intend to break his head by inducing him to join you in denunciation of the Conservative Republicans—a party created by his magnanimity and triumphant through his encouragement.

But, sir, "your purpose is easily discernible, and has a two-fold object—namely, to destroy the National Republican party in the South, and then to reconstruct from its shattered fragments a Boutwell party, with one Richmond in the field to strike for your crown. But if you cannot succeed in this scheme of desperate enterprise you mean to ruin"—a result, from present appearances, much more likely to be reached.

Your official intervention for Wells, for instance, gave thirty thousand majority to Walker. Your letter to Stokes gave Senter Tennessee by an overwhelming vote of seventy thousand. Your marvellous political sagacity, now active in Mississippi and Texas, will repeat your calamity and again overwhelm you with discomfiture and defeat. Superadd to these results of your unapproachable folly the imposition on these States of your iron clad oath, and the alienation is complete, landing them all in the outstretched arms of the Democracy.

But the consequence of your folly does not stop here—Ohio and Pennsylvania and others will follow. Decide their political status in October, and the North will echo back the condemnation of the South, and peal in your ears this fact, that there is still left enough of the incorruptible virtue of the republic to rebuke you for a wanton repression of that most sacred right the elective franchise. But, sir, this will not deter you from your mad course; you will still persist until every prop that supports our party is stricken away and the whole grand superstructure tumbles about our ears in helpless ruin.

When you were appointed Secretary of the Treasury, and unanimously confirmed by a Senate of every shade of political opinion, did you not take an oath to administer your office impartially and for the exclusive objects of its creation: "To collect the revenue and control the finances of the country?" Is not that office the property of the nation, and yourself only clothed for a time with a little brief authority? Then, sir, how do you explain this perversion of its legitimate uses and functions into a means and instrument of oppression to force and compel an election of obnoxious rulers upon the people of the South?

Is such a course consistent with your oath of office, or do you call this a great moral idea? But, Mr. Boutwell, though you have thus prostituted the power of your office for purposes of oppression, "without the warrant of conscience or law," it may be that you can tell me by what authority you assume to pronounce upon my political orthodoxy. Who constituted you the infallible hope of Republicanism?

Who gave you authority to hurl the political anathemas of the party? Again, what right had you to commit the Administration to your policy? Have you to learn yet that you are only a part of the Administration, and not the whole of it? though your friends believe that a monomania has seized your mind on that subject, and that you verily believe yourself "the State."

Very respectfully, LOUIS DEITZ.

[illegible]

DR. GERHARD HERAN GERHARD! Dr. Lieber says that having occasion to visit the eastern part of this city, which is largely occupied by Germans, he asked in his native tongue some direction at a German store which he entered, and that the man, himself a German, was unable to understand him, and he was obliged to apply elsewhere, where his application was successful, and the same result attended a third inquiry; and not till he came to the fourth or fifth man, did he find any one who could understand the sacred German of Berlin and the books. Pray, then, what sort of German is taught in Germany? The people there have the credit of the finest and best schools in Europe, and it would seem teach some patois, instead of the German of the higher schools of learning.—N. Y. Express.

JUGGERNAUT.

The Great Heathern Festival—The Curiosities of Idolatry.

About this time of the year, tens of thousands of pilgrims are making their way from all parts of India, to the shrine of that god which has the power, as they believe, to obliterate the transgressions of all who make their offerings to him in person.—Juggernaut, the "lord of the world," has been worshipped in the sacred town of Pooree, in the Southern part of Orissa, lying about three hundred miles from Calcutta, for seven hundred years past, and the pilgrims constantly increased in numbers until the year of fatal famine, when the whole country was strewn with the dead. Five years or so ago the attention of the English public was called to a celebration in honor of Juggernaut, within a few miles of Calcutta, at which several natives fell or threw themselves beneath the car and were crushed to death. Of old, the great festivals were never deemed complete unless the triumphant path of the god had been stained with the blood of his worshippers. But the priests dare not encourage that custom now. If a devotee flings himself down before the idol, the Brahmins cry out that it was an accident. The idolatry, however, still cost hundreds of lives every year. The weak and sickly perish by the wayside, and a cholera epidemic usually breaks out at Pooree when the city is over crowded with pilgrims. The poor creatures are huddled together in a way which seems almost incredible to the European. The temple of Juggernauth stands in a large enclosure in the centre of Pooree. There is a Grecian column of black basalt in front of the principal gate, brought from Kanarok. The god lives in a large tower, and about 640 persons are employed to minister to his supposed necessities. There is an attendant who puts the idol to bed every night, another who wakes him, a third whose office it is to put water and a tooth pick comfortably within his reach, a fourth to paint his eyes for him every morning, as if he were a faded beauty, several others to cook and give him his food, one hundred and twenty dancing girls to amuse him in his heavy moments, and 3,000 priests to worship him—and plunder the pilgrims. All this goes on year after year, while the pilgrims throng every road which leads to the shrine.

DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE,

LATELY MUCH IMPROVED,

AND THE NEW

UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER.

Improved with ROWELL'S PATENT DOUBLE COGWHEELS, and the PATENT STOP, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Those who have used them give testimony as follows:

"We like our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the position."—Rev. L. Scott, Bishop M. E. Church.

"It is worth one dollar a week in any family."—N. Y. Tribune.

"In the laundry of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention."—Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler.

"I heartily commend it to economists of time, money, and contentment."—Rev. Dr. Bellows.

"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.

"Friend Doty—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you 'our machine,' after a year's use, is thought more of to-day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Silas Robinson.

"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work, with less labor; and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashioned wash-board. By using it, one laundress is dispensed with."—Wm. M. F. Round, Superintendent of Infant Department of St. Catherine's Nursery, N. Y. City.

PRICES.—A Fair Offer.

Send the retail price Washer $14, Extra Wringer $2 and we will forward either or both machines, free of freight, to places where no one is selling; and so sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machines, free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.

No husband, father or brother should permit the drudgery of washing with the hands, fifty-two days in the year, when it can be done better, more expeditiously, with less labor, and no injury to the garments, by a Doty Clothes Washer, and a Universal Wringer.

Canvassers with exclusive right of sale make money fast selling them.

Sold by dealers generally, to whom liberal discounts are made.

Valuable Property for Sale in Raleigh and Wake County.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Court of Equity for this County, I, as Commissioner, will sell at the Court House, to the highest bidder, all of the Real Estate of the late Sarah Stronach, dec'd, to wit:

One House and Lot, in the City of Raleigh, containing two acres, more or less; said house in fair condition, has six rooms and good basement. On the Lot there is a very fine Well of Water and all necessary out-houses. The fences are nearly all of new and sound timber, and the soil in fine condition. There are quite a number of Shade and Fruit Trees on the premises. Also a Lot containing three-fourths of an acre, more or less, near the above mentioned one. Both Lots are on Hargett Street, just beyond the city Cemetery, and on the direct road to the "State Fair Grounds." Also a Tract of Land about five miles from the City, which is very well timbered, and adjoins the lands of W. E. Pierce and others.

This property will be sold on the 25th day of August A. D. 1869.

Terms made known on day of sale.
