"ON THE WINGS OF A STORM..."

The storm we had Tuesday at noon left me with a few thoughts I would like to share with our readers....

The morning began with a clear sky-yet without the sweet song of a bird. The promise of a beautiful day was almost sure at the coming of dawn as the brilliant sun rose over the sleeping hills. It was the kind of morning you can't greet without feeling good. The breeze, then so mild, was pleasant and refreshing.

But the breeze grew stronger, and soon it was no longer a "breeze." Rushing gusts of wind brought loose twigs and small branches from the tree tops, the sky darkened, and leaves turned over, showing a contrasting lighter color. Then came a cold,
