"TWILIGHT REVERIES"

Is there a certain time of day that has an especial appeal for you? Perhaps you prefer early morn when Jack Frost, that inimitable artist, paints exquisite scenes upon your window pane. Or maybe it's noon time that you like—noon on a busy city street filled with smiling faces and a cheery greeting from a friend. But don't you agree that when twilight deepens into dusk, most of us feel the need to sit back and relax and let our mem'ries run unchecked to pleasant days and people we have known?

"AT TWILIGHT"

To us—at twilight, comes not the end of day when dark is nigh and darkness steals across the sky;
But purple shadows in the dark Paint miniature pictures without a name, and fireflies light the night with tiny jets of brilliant flame.
And ours is a magic world
Now grown so bright with color and with gold— an enchanting melody of love and happiness untold.
And whispered promises drift through
The garden of our hearts,
At dusk, when twilight starts.

Mrs. Garner Entertains Oak Ridge Club

The Oak Ridge Club held its annual Christmas party in the home of Mrs. A. L. Garner, with the husbands of the members as invited guests.

The home was beautifully decorated in a color scheme of red and green, with holly and red berries. A Nativity scene arranged on the living room table added to the spirit of Christmas which prevailed

During the evening Mrs. J. C. Pittman and E. B. Keel were awarded prizes as contests winners. The members exchanged gifts which were distributed from a gaily decorated tree by D. L. Wheeler.

Following the exchange of gifts guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. The table was covered with a lovely lace cloth and entered with an arrangement of holly and red berries, flanked by tall red tapers in crystal holders.

Delicious punch, cake, candy and nuts was served to Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bounds, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Garner, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Keel, Mr. and. Mrs. D. L. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Garner, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Garner, Mesdames J. C. Pittman, Dewey Spence, Wade C. Moseley and M. L. Shearin.

Mountcastle-Johnson

In a ceremony attended by only members of the immediate families Miss Nathalie Johnson became the bride of James L. Mountcastle Saturday, December 27th at high noon in the First Methodist Church, Rocky Mount, the ceremony being performed by Dr. E. L. Hillman.

The wedding music was presented by the church organist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Charles R. Gray, wore a dress of two toned green crepe with black accessories and her flowers were yellow roses.

The brides only attendant was her sister, Mrs. A. H. Pridgen of Portsmouth, Va., and the bridegroom had as his best man his brother in law, Harry E. Webb of Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. Mountcastle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jones of Farmville, N. C. but has made her home here for a number of years where she is conected with the Carolina Telephone Company as chief operator.

Mr. Mountcastle is the son of Mrs. Marion S. Mountcastle and the late Mr. Mountcastle of Weldon. He is now connected with the Halifax County Sheriff's department.

After a short southern trip Mr. and Mrs. Mountcastle will reside with his mother here.

STATE COLLEGE ANS. TIMELY FARM QUES.

QUESTION--Is there any AAA soil building payment for establishing a permanent pasture?

ANSWER--Yes. E. Y. Floyd, AAA administrative assistant of State College, says two units ($3.00) is offered for the establishment of a permanent pasture. However, a sufficient pasture mixture must be sown on land properly prepared, including the application of sufficient phosphate potash and liming materials, where necessary, to assure a good stand. The pasture mixture must contain a full seeding of legumes and grasses (other than timothy and redtop.)

QUESTION - Should I select eggs of some definite weight for hatching purposes?

ANSWER--Best results are usually obtained from eggs that weigh 24 ounces to the dozen, says C. F. Parrish, Extension poultryman of N. C. State College. In addition to the weight, hatching eggs should be clean, fresh, well formed, of good shell texture, and of a color conforming to the requirements of the breed. Eggs that are round, small, short, thin shelled, or those that have ridges around them, should be set aside for home consumption and not used for hatching. At this time of the year, eggs for hatching should be collected two or three times a day to prevent chilling.

QUESTION -- How should I care for forset three seedlings received from the nursery?

ANSWER--Seedling trees are delicate and require good attention, says R. W. Graeber, Extension forester of State College. Seedlings arrive from the nursery packed in wet moss. The roots must be kept moist at all times. It is best to plant the trees a soon as they are received. However, if it is necessary to keep them for a few days, they should be heeled-in in light, well drained soil. To do this, dig a trench, break bundles, spread trees in the trench, and cover roots and part of the stems and pack firmly. Keep the soil moist until time to plant the trees.
