ONE HUNDRED YEARS

AFRICAN METHODISM.

CENTENNIAL APPEAL OF THE AFRICAN METHODIST EPISCOPAL ZION CHURCH.

TO ALL ANGELICAL CHURCHES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND ENGLAND, CANADA AND THE WEST INDIES.

GREETING: Through the great mercies of God, we, the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, have been brought within the threshold anniversary of our history as a separate and distinct organization.

In 1796 James Varick and others, because of the existence of proscription and other conditions which hindered their fullest development and religious liberty, and prevented them from exercising in the work preceding the cause of Christ according to their faith, believing themselves moved by the Spirit of God, withdrew from the Mother Church and formed a separate and distinct organization, out of which has grown the great African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church.

We congratulate ourselves on having had a man of such unselfish motives, such pronounced ability as an organizer and leader, to head this great movement; he was the first man of the race to grasp the great idea of a strong religious Negro organization. During this hundred years our church has grown from a handful to nearly 400,000 communicants, embracing every State in the United States, Canada, a part of Africa and some of the Islands of the Sea. It has taken a foremost part in all movements affecting the moral, intellectual and spiritual welfare of the race.

At the session of the General Conference held at Pittsburgh, Pa., in 1892, it was decided that we should hold our One Hundredth Anniversary in the month of October, 1896, in the "Mother Zion," (our first established church of the connection,) now situated on the corner of Washington and Bleecker streets, New York City, N. Y.

We take this medium through which to inform you of our intention, and to earnestly ask your sympathy and co-operation to make this Centennial effort a success in advancing the Redeemer's Kingdom and the elevation of the race.

It is our purpose to hold a Ten Day Centennial Conference, four sessions each day, and which time papers will be read and such subjects discussed as may be agreed upon.

Every denomination or religious organization is cordially invited to participate with us. We especially invite all Methodist organizations to take part with us.

Each denomination desiring representatives will please communicate with Bishop A. WALTERS, D D, Chairman Centennial Committee, No. 353 Bleecker St., New York City, N. Y.

Executive Committee:

Bishop J W Hood, D D, LL D; Bishop J P Thompson, D D, Bishop T H Lomax, D D, Bishop C C Pettey, A M, D D, Bishop C R Harris, D D, Bishop I C Clinton, D D, Bishop A Walters, D D, Rev Wm Howard Day, D D, Rev J W Alstork, D D; Rev B F Wheeler, A M, D D, Rev J W H Clinton, A M, Rev J G Caldwell, B D, Rev G W Clinton, A M, Rev W H Goler, D D, Rev R S Rives, D D, Rev H Blake, Rev J P Thompson, D D.

Hon J C Dancy, General Manager.

THE A. M. E. ZION CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL.

By Rev ALFRED A. WRIGHT, D D, Dean of the School.

Some hundreds have got, have sent in applications for instructions in the various courses of study. These I have [illegible] to place on file, as I have not been able to prepare all the needed [illegible].

In January, 1895, I published in THE STAR OF ZION an outline of my hopes and purposes concerning THE COURSE OF STUDY. The pressing nature of my other duties has largely interfered with my ability to carry out my intentions, yet I am happy to say that students will now be [illegible] the Courses named below.

[illegible] this announcement be kind enough to circulate the [illegible], so that those who are most interested therein may get it. Please consult the fourth page of THE STAR OF ZION, for the "Outline of the Course of Study, for the A. M. E. Zion Preachers," approved by the Board of Bishops.

Work is now ready on the whole of the single books, on subjects named below. Qualified students may apply at once.

(1) Course II, No. 6, "Methodology, The Art of Study."

(2) Course II, No. 10, "Binney's Theological Compend," Finished.

(3) Course III, No. 8, "Binney," completed.

(4) Course IV, V, VI and VII, "Systematic Theology," Field.

(5) Course, V, VI, VII, and VIII, No 4, "The Revised English Bible, Scientific Method."

(6) Course VII, No. 2, "Divine Light."

(7) Course VIII, No. 2, "Spiritual Culture."

(8) Course IX, No. 2, "Biblical Theology," No. 3, "New Testament Greek."

All persons writing to the Dean for information concerning the Correspondence School will please send stamp for reply.

Auburndale, Mass.

Yours,

R. R. MOZRON,
General Supt. and Editor.

THE NEW HYMNAL AND HYMN BOOK.

The new Hymnal and Hymn Book ordered by the General conference is now ready. The books are gotten up in first class style. They contain a large number of hymns of our own ministers, prepared by Rev. B. F. Wheeler, A. M., S. T. B. Several of them were written by the late Bishops Jones and Moore. Other authors are Revs. G. W. Clinton, B. F. Wheeler, Smith Claiborne, J. W. Smith, R. R. Morris, William Howard Day, R. Haywood Stitt, J. H. White, W. H. Marshall, John E. Price, E. George Biddle, John A. D. Bloice, et al.

They also contain some of the lates and choicest revival hymns from the Gospel Hymn Book. A short Ritual Service prepared by the late Elder John Wesley Brown adds to the usefulness of the books. They are by far the most complete books of the kind ever published by the church. Now is the time for churches, literary associations, etc., to supply themselves with the new Hymnals. These books are sold at the following low prices: New Hymn and Tune Book, $1 each; Hymn Book (without notes) 50 cents each.

A large discount will be made to those who purchase 25 or more. Send all orders to the A. M. E. Zion Book Concern, 353 Bleecker street, New York.

JEHU HOLLIDAY, Agent.
